IN THE HOUSE BY MILLER AND DUNCAN

HOUSE BILL NO. 36

IN THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA

TENTH LEGISLATURE - FIRST SESSION

A BILL

For an Act entitled: "An Act relating to administrative leave for employees engaged in collective bargaining; and providing for an effective date."

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

* Section 1. AS 23.40.080 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

(b) Public employees chosen or elected to represent employees in a bargaining unit are entitled to administrative leave for each day of travel to and from the place of bargaining and for each day spent in the bargaining process. No more than six employees for each bargaining team may be granted administrative leave at one time.

* Sec. 2. The provisions of this Act are retroactive to July 1, 1976 and a person who took leave without pay or annual leave for the purposes set out in AS 23.40.080(b) is entitled to a compensation or an annual leave adjustment.

* Sec. 3. This Act takes effect immediately in accordance with AS 01.10-070(c).
