A BILL

FOR AN ACT ENTITLED

"An Act relating to an advisory vote during regional educational attendance area school board elections; and providing for an effective date."

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

Section 1. AS 14.08.071 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

(d) If a regional school board adopts a resolution requesting that an advisory question relating to education be placed on that regional school board's next election ballot, the division of elections shall place the advisory question on that regional school board's next election ballot. A resolution described in this subsection must be filed with the division of elections on or before the first Friday in August of the year in which the advisory question is required to be placed on the ballot. An advisory question authorized under this subsection may not consist of more than 100 words and shall be worded in a manner that allows the advisory question to be answered with a "yes" to favor the question or "no" to oppose the question.

Sec. 2. This Act takes effect July 1, 1995.
