24 (a) of this section. The office may provide the service after entering into a written 25 agreement with the agency describing the services to be provided and providing for 26 reimbursement by the agency to the office of the costs incurred by the office in 27 providing the services.

28 (c) To the extent otherwise permitted by law, the agency may delegate to the 29 administrative law judge assigned to conduct the hearing on behalf of the agency the 30 authority to make a final agency decision in the matter. The final decision may be 31 appealed to the superior court by any party.

1 (d) Nothing in AS 44.21.510 - 44.21.599 may be construed to create a right to 2 a hearing or to require a hearing that is not required under other law.

3 Sec. 44.21.540. Administrative law judges. (a) An administrative law judge 4 must be admitted to practice law in this state and must have been admitted to practice 5 in this state for at least two years before being employed or retained with the office.
6 The chief administrative law judge shall establish additional qualifications for 7 administrative law judges employed or retained by the office and for those 8 administrative law judges that may be assigned to particular types of cases.
9 Notwithstanding AS 39.25.120(b), full-time administrative law judges employed by 10 the office are subject to the personnel rules adopted under AS 39.25.150(7), (15), and 11 (16).

12 (b) An administrative law judge employed or retained by the office may, in 13 conducting an administrative hearing for an agency, exercise the powers authorized by 14 law for exercise by that agency in the performance of its duties in connection with the 15 hearing. An administrative law judge may 16 (1) engage in alternative dispute resolution under regulations adopted 17 by the chief administrative law judge that is in addition to any alternate dispute 18 resolution procedure used by an agency before the case is referred to the office;

19 (2) order a party, a party's attorney, or another authorized 20 representative of a party to pay reasonable expenses, including attorney fees, incurred 21 by another party as a result of actions done in bad faith or as a result of tactics used 22 frivolously or solely intended to cause unnecessary delay;

23 (3) perform other necessary and appropriate acts in the performance of 24 official duties.

25 (c) An administrative law judge employed by the office must devote full time 26 to the duties of the office unless appointed to a position that is less than full-time. An 27 administrative law judge employed by the office may not perform duties inconsistent 28 with the duties and responsibilities of an administrative law judge.

29 (d) The office may enter into a contract with an individual who meets the 30 qualifications established in (a) of this section to serve as an administrative law judge 31 in a particular administrative hearing or in several hearings of the same type. The 1 individual is subject to AS 39.52 (Alaska Executive Branch Ethics Act).

 2 Notwithstanding AS 36.30.015(d), the office may contract for or hire an 3 administrative law judge without notifying or securing the approval of the Department 4 of Law.

5 Sec. 44.21.550. Code of hearing officer conduct. (a) The chief 6 administrative law judge shall, subject to AS 39.52.920 and by regulation, adopt a 7 code of hearing officer conduct. The code shall apply to the chief administrative law 8 judge, administrative law judges of the office, and hearing officers of each other 9 agency.

10 (b) Except as provided in (d) of this section, the chief administrative law judge 11 shall receive and consider all complaints against administrative law judges or hearing 12 officers employed or retained by the office or another agency alleging violations of the 13 code. If the chief administrative law judge determines that the conduct alleged, if true, 14 would constitute a violation of the code, the chief administrative law judge shall 15 deliver the complaint to the attorney general.

16 (c) If the attorney general determines that a violation has occurred, the 17 attorney general shall submit written findings to the agency that employed or retained 18 the administrative law judge or hearing officer who is the subject of the complaint 19 together with recommendations for corrective or disciplinary action. If the 20 administrative law judge is employed or retained by the office, the chief administrative 21 law judge shall take appropriate corrective or disciplinary action.

22 (d) The attorney general shall, by regulation, establish procedures to 23 implement (c) of this section, including procedures for investigating and holding 24 hearings on complaints. The attorney general shall receive and consider any 25 complaint filed against the chief administrative law judge under this section, and may 26 investigate or hold a hearing on the complaint in compliance with the regulations 27 adopted under this subsection.

28 Sec. 44.21.555. Reimbursement agreements. The office may enter into 29 agreements for reimbursement for services related to an administrative hearing from a 30 school district, municipality, or other governmental entity if the reimbursement is 31 authorized by other law.

1           Sec. 44.21.560. Procedure for hearings. (a) The chief administrative law 2 judge shall, by regulation, establish procedures for administrative hearings conducted 3 by the office. Each administrative hearing under the jurisdiction of the office or that 4 has been transferred to the office by an agency shall be conducted in accordance with 5 statutes that apply to that hearing, including, if applicable, AS 44.62 (Administrative 6 Procedure Act). In case of conflict between this section and another applicable statute 7 establishing procedures for administrative hearings, the other statute prevails.
8 However, to the extent regulations adopted by an agency for the conduct of an 9 administrative hearing conflict with regulations adopted by the chief administrative 10 law judge under this subsection, the regulations adopted by the chief administrative 11 law judge control to the maximum extent possible without conflicting with applicable 12 statutes.

13           (b) When an agency receives a request for a hearing that will be conducted by 14 the office under AS 44.21.530, the agency shall immediately notify the office. The 15 agency shall, within 10 days, compile and transmit to the office a copy of the request 16 for a hearing, the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of all parties and their 17 representatives, and the agency's decision, if any, together with the record relied on to 18 support the decision. Any information provided to the office that is confidential by 19 law shall be identified by the agency as confidential and shall be kept confidential by 20 the office.

21           (c) If requested by the agency that will make the final decision, the chief 22 administrative law judge may permit that agency to participate in an administrative 23 hearing. The chief administrative law judge shall determine the degree of 24 participation by the agency and may terminate that participation at any time.
25 However, a representative of an agency that participates under this subsection may not 26 serve as the administrative law judge or preside during the hearing.

27           (d) An administrative law judge employed or retained by the office shall, 28 within 120 days after the date the agency received the request for a hearing, prepare a 29 proposed decision, unless another time period is provided by law or agreed to by the 30 parties and the chief administrative law judge. The administrative law judge shall 31 immediately submit the proposed decision to the agency.

1 (e) A proposed decision in an administrative hearing shall be in a form that 2 may be adopted as the final decision by the agency with authority to make the final 3 decision. The proposed decision is a public record. A copy of the proposed decision 4 shall be served by the office on each party in the case or on the attorneys representing 5 those parties in the hearing. The agency with authority to make a final decision in the 6 case retains agency discretion in the final disposition of the case and shall, within 30 7 days after the date the proposed decision is served or at the next regularly scheduled 8 meeting that occurs at least 30 days after the proposed decision is served, do one or 9 more of the following:

10 (1) adopt the proposed decision as the final agency decision;

11 (2) return the case to the administrative law judge to take additional 12 evidence or make additional findings or for other specific proceedings, in which case 13 the administrative law judge shall complete the additional work and return the revised 14 proposed decision to the agency within 30 days after the original decision was 15 returned under this paragraph;

16 (3) exercise its discretion by revising the proposed enforcement action, 17 determination of best interests, order, award, remedy, sanction, penalty, or other 18 disposition of the case, and adopt the proposed decision as revised;

19 (4) in writing, reject, modify, or amend a factual finding in the 20 proposed decision by specifying the affected finding and identifying the testimony and 21 other evidence relied on by the agency for the rejection, modification, or amendment 22 of the finding, and issue a final agency decision;

23 (5) in writing, reject, modify, or amend an interpretation or application 24 in the proposed decision of a statute or regulation directly governing the agency's 25 actions by specifying the reasons for the rejection, modification, or amendment, and 26 issue a final agency decision.

27 (f) If a final decision is not issued timely in accordance with (e) of this section, 28 the administrative law judge's proposed decision is the final agency decision.

29 Sec. 44.21.570. Disqualification of administrative law judge. (a) The chief 30 administrative law judge or an administrative law judge employed or retained by the 31 office is disqualified from a case in which the administrative law judge cannot accord

1 a fair and impartial hearing or for other reasons established in the code of hearing 2 officer conduct.

3 (b) A party may request the disqualification of the chief administrative law 4 judge or another administrative law judge by filing an affidavit, before the taking of 5 evidence at a hearing, stating with particularity the grounds upon which it is claimed 6 that a fair and impartial hearing cannot be accorded by that administrative law judge.
7 Notwithstanding AS 44.62.450(c), upon receipt of the affidavit, the administrative law
8 judge assigned to the administrative hearing shall make a determination. If the affiant 9 objects to the decision, the matter shall be decided by the chief administrative law 10 judge, whose decision is final, or if the hearing is assigned to the chief administrative 11 law judge, by the attorney general, whose decision is final.

12 (c) In addition to disqualification of an administrative law judge under (a) and 13 (b) of this section, each side is entitled to change the assigned administrative law judge 14 once. Two or more parties aligned on the same side of an action shall be treated as 15 one side for purposes of this subsection, but the chief administrative law judge may 16 allow an additional change to a party whose interests are adverse to the interests of 17 another party on the same side. A party wishing to exercise the right to change the 18 administrative law judge shall give notice to the chief administrative law judge within 19 five days after notice is given that the case has been assigned. A party waives the 20 right to a change in the assigned administrative law judge by participating before that 21 administrative law judge in any proceeding or conference involving the case.

22 Sec. 44.21.580. Agency cooperation. (a) All agencies shall cooperate with 23 the chief administrative law judge and with other administrative law judges of the 24 office in the matters involving the duties of the office.

25 (b) Except as provided under AS 44.21.570 or by regulation adopted under 26 this chapter, an agency may not select or reject a particular administrative law judge 27 for assignment to an administrative hearing.

28 (c) After an administrative hearing is referred by an agency to the office for 29 hearing, the agency may not take further adjudicatory action in the case, except as a 30 party litigant or to render a final decision as provided by law. This subsection does 31 not otherwise limit the agency's authority to take action affecting a party to the case.

1           Sec. 44.21.590. Administrative hearing records. (a) The office shall 2 acquire and organize statistical and other information relating to administrative 3 hearings of the office and of other agencies. The office shall acquire and organize 4 copies of proposed and final agency decisions in contested cases and copies of court 5 decisions resulting from those contested cases. The information and decisions shall be 6 made available to the public, agencies, and legislature. The office shall make final 7 agency decisions available online through an electronic data base.

8           (b) This section does not apply to records that are confidential or privileged.

9           Sec. 44.21.595. Federal requirements. Federal requirements applicable to an 10 administrative hearing prevail to the extent they conflict with any provision of 11 AS 44.21.510 - 44.21.599.

12           Sec. 44.21.599. Definitions. In AS 44.21.510 - 44.21.599,

 26 location, or transfer to another person of a license without affording the applicant 27 notice or hearing, except

28           (1) if an application is denied, the notice of denial shall be furnished 29 the applicant immediately in writing stating the reason for the denial in clear and 30 concise language; the notice of denial must inform the applicant that the applicant is 31 entitled to an informal conference with either the director or the board, and that, if not

1 satisfied by the informal conference, the applicant is then entitled to a formal hearing 2 conducted by the office of administrative hearings (AS 44.21.510) [BEFORE THE 17 a public hearing on the question of whether the issuance, renewal, or transfer of the 18 license in the city or village would be in the public interest;

19 (4) if a protest to the issuance, renewal, transfer of location or transfer 20 to another person of a license made by a local governing body is based on a question 21 of law, the board shall hold a public hearing.
