

Differences Between CS SS HB 251 Versions R and O
Version O is dated 3/26/12

1. Section 1 - Version O:

- a. ADDS language requiring the Department to verify information provided by a licensed veterinarian from out of state wishing to provide pro bono care. The Veterinarian must provide contact information and a copy of his/her license from the State in which the Veterinarian lives and practices. (Version O, Page 2, Lines 1-8)

2. Section 2 - Version O:

- a. DELETES “gross negligence, or repeated negligent conduct;” (Version R, Page 2, Lines 22-23); and “gross negligence, or negligent conduct” (Version R, Page 2, Line 24). Testimony by Alaska State Veterinary Medical Association revealed concern that these phrases created a higher bar to showing professional incompetence.

3. Section 3 -Version O:

- a. Extends the time allowed to file a complaint to two years following the act or omission which is the basis for the complaint. (Version O – Page 3, Line 19)

4. New Section 4 - Version O:

- a. Creates a Task Force to examine the need for and status of veterinary services in rural Alaska, including rabies vaccinations. Task Force members are:
  - Two House members representing rural Alaska
  - Two Senate members representing rural Alaska
  - Representative of the Alaska Federation of Natives
  - Representative of the State Board of Veterinary Examiners
  - State Epidemiologist or designee
  - DHSS/Div. of Public Health Veterinarian or designee
  - DEC State Veterinarian or designee
  - A veterinarian providing services in rural Alaska, not a member of the Board

- A veterinarian providing services in a road-system (urban) community in Alaska, not a member of the Board

The Task Force recommendations are due to the Governor and Legislature by December 31, 2012.
