FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2017 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. HB 104

Analysis

HB 104 would repeal AS 09.68.130, a law which requires the parties in certain types of civil litigation cases to report information about settlements or judgments, and attorneys fees to the Alaska Judicial Council. The bill also would repeal two related court rules - conditionally effective upon a two-thirds vote of the Legislature - requiring parties to certify that they will submit civil case resolution information as required by AS 09.68.130.

Because the bill would relieve the parties of the obligation to report civil case resolution information to the Judicial Council, Council staff will no longer need to collect, collate, and record information from the civil case data forms. This time savings amounts to a few hours a month of staff time that will be reallocated to time-sensitive tasks and legislatively-mandated projects, such as staffing the Criminal Justice Commission, judicial selection, and judicial retention.

Thus, no fiscal impacts are expected.
