FISCAL NOTE

STATE OF ALASKA
2011 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. HB087

Analysis

HB 87 will amend Alaska's antitrust statute to increase the criminal penalty for violating the statute from a misdemeanor to a class C felony, and increase the criminal fines from $20,000 to $1 million for a natural person, and from $50,000 to $50 million if not a natural person. It will also add a new section that allows the attorney general to bring a civil action for antitrust violations, and seek the same amounts in civil penalties.

There will be no fiscal impacts to the Department of Law.
