Sectional Summary

HB 156 – An Act Relating to the Chair of the Regulatory Commission of Alaska

The following is a sectional summary of HB 156 and is not an authoritative representation of the bill. For an authoritative interpretation, please refer to the bill itself.

Section 1: Allows the Governor to designate one member of the Commission to serve as chair.

If a vacancy occurs in the office of chair, the Governor shall select one of the members of the Commission to serve out the remaining term as chair.

Sets the term as chair at three years.

Section 2: Transition language to account for the current chair of the RCA. Under this language, the Governor will designate the next chair once the current chair's term has expired.
