BROADBAND STATUTES

Last update: August 11, 2017

Broadband is considered by many to be a fundamental vehicle for new services and applications—such as telecommuting and online education—that require high speed Internet connections. State legislative involvement has been an important factor for successful implementation of broadband in the states. This table provides examples of various types of state broadband initiatives.

State	Statute	Description	Category
Alabama	Code of Ala. § 37-2A-2	Defines broadband and related terms for purposes of public utility regulation.	Definition
Arizona	A.R.S. § 15-249.07	Establishes the Broadband expansion fund and outlines requirements for disbursement.	Funding
Arizona	A.R.S. § 28-7381, et seq.	Defines broadband and related terms for purposes of infrastructure projects.	Definition/Regulation
Arizona	A.R.S. § 42-14403	Requires valuation of broadband assets for telecommunications companies.	Regulation
Arizona	A.R.S. §§ 41-3508; 15-1261	Establishes the “Statewide E-rate Program Fund” and requires all school districts and charter schools that receive e-rate funding to establish an e-rate fund, which may be used to reimburse the school district or charter school for broadband Internet and telecommunications costs.
