

Capital Appropriation Status Report – November 30, 2020

Summary Graph for Senate Finance Legislative Committee February 3, 2021

The Department of Transportation & Public Facilities (Trans) and the Department of Commerce, Community, and Economic Development (Commerce) represent the largest recipients of CASR appropriations.

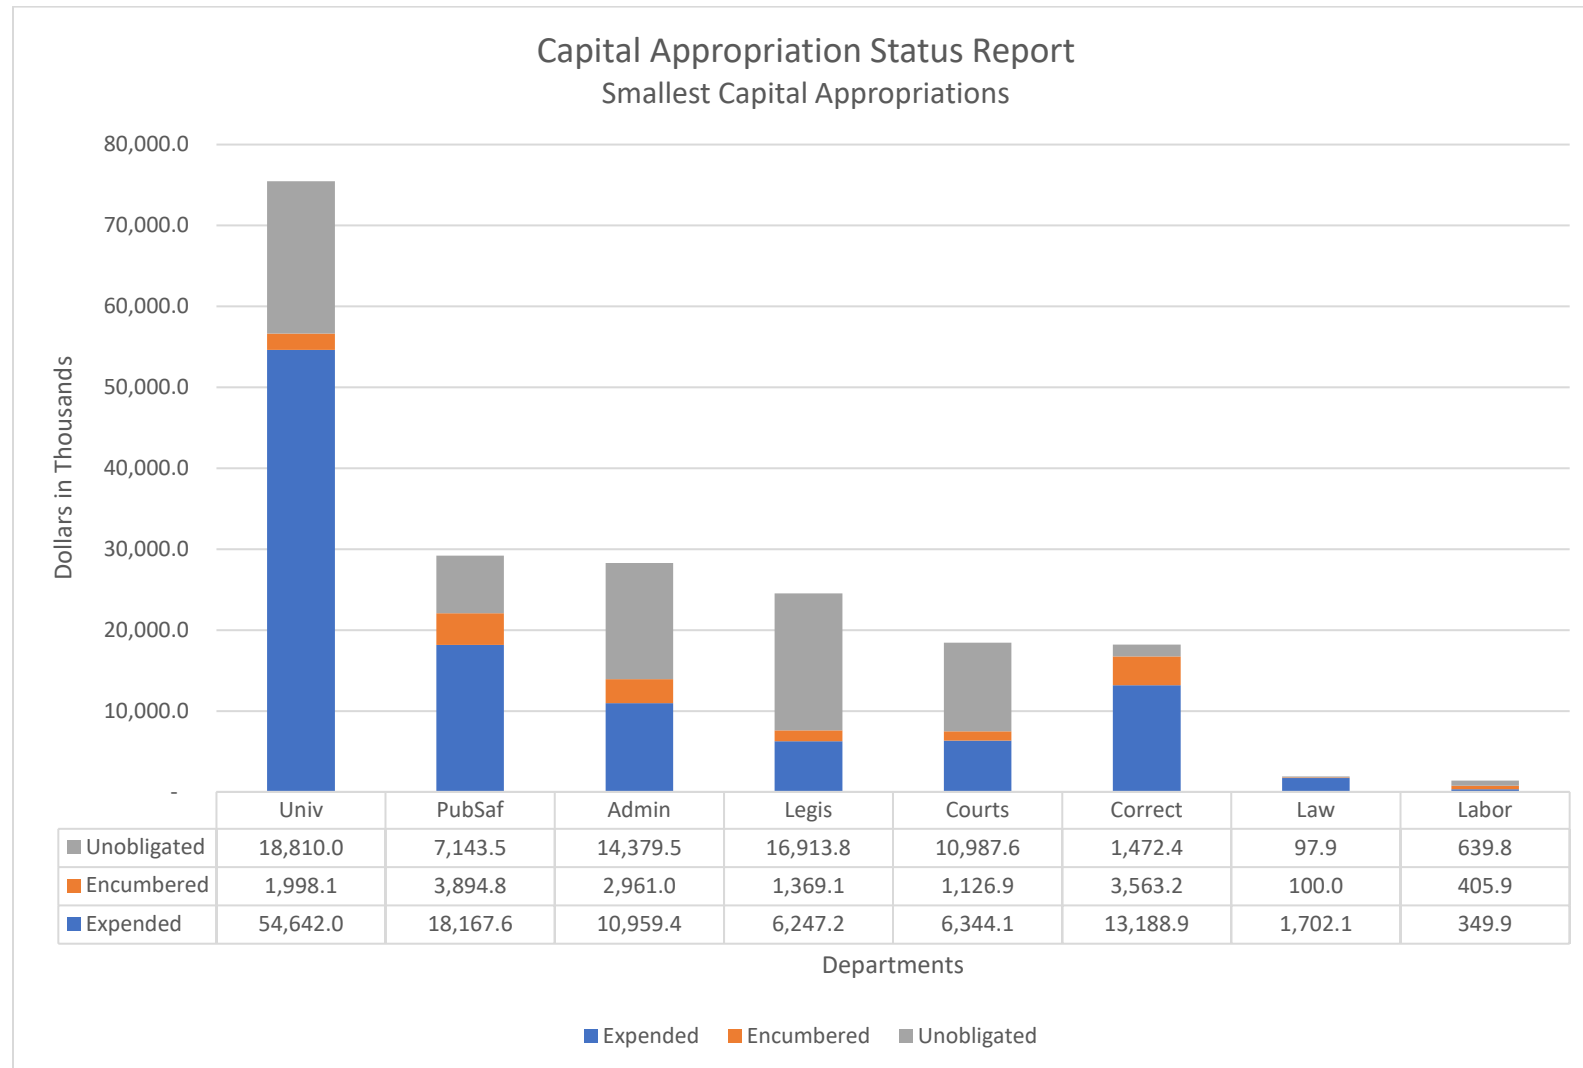

The Department of Environmental Conservation (EnvCon), Department of Education & Early Development (E&ED), Department of Revenue (Rev), Department of Health and Social Security (H&SS), Office of the Governor (Gov), Department of Natural Resources (NatRes), Department of Fish and Game (FshGm) and the Department of Military & Veterans Affairs represent the next largest recipients of CASR appropriations.

Capital Appropriation Status Report – November 30, 2020

Summary Graph for Senate Finance Legislative Committee February 3, 2021

The University of Alaska (Univ), Department of Public Safety (PubSaf), Department of Administration (Admin), Alaska State Legislature (Legis), Courts (Courts), Department of Law (Law), and Department of Labor & Workforce Development (Labor) represent the smallest recipients of Capital appropriations.

Source Data: State of Alaska, Office of the Governor, Office of Management and Budget

Capital Appropriation Status Reports 2021, Capital Appropriation Status Export (Excel), updated 2-8-21, <https://omb.alaska.gov/information/capital-appropriation-status-reports/>