6 AS 06.01.030(d) and (e), if the department finds, after notice and opportunity for a 7 hearing, that a person has violated, is violating, or is about to violate any provision of 8 this chapter, a regulation adopted under this chapter, or an order issued under this 9 chapter, the department may publish findings and enter an order requiring the person
10 to cease and desist from committing or causing the violation and any future violation 11 of the same provision or regulation. An order may, in addition to requiring a person to 17 (b) Notwithstanding AS 06.01.030(d) and (e), if the department determines 18 that the alleged violation or threatened violation is likely to result in significant 19 dissipation or conversion of assets, significant harm to consumers, or substantial harm 20 to the public interest before the completion of cease and desist proceedings, the 21 department may enter a temporary order requiring the respondent to cease and desist 22 from the violation or threatened violation and to take action to prevent the violation or 23 threatened violation and to prevent dissipation or conversion of assets, significant 24 harm to consumers, or substantial harm to the public interest as the department

25 determines appropriate pending completion of the proceedings. A temporary order 26 may be entered only after notice and opportunity for a hearing, unless the department 27 determines that notice and hearing before entry would be impracticable or contrary to 28 the public interest. A temporary order becomes effective on service on the respondent 29 and, unless set aside, limited, or suspended by the department or a court of competent 30 jurisdiction, remains effective and enforceable pending the completion of the cease 31 and desist proceedings.

 16    issue an order to prohibit, conditionally or unconditionally, permanently or for a 17    period of time the department determines, a person who has violated this chapter from
