

Sec. 12.55.015. Authorized sentences; forfeiture.

(a) Except as limited by AS 12.55.125 - 12.55.175, the court, in imposing sentence on a defendant convicted of an offense, may singly or in combination

(1) impose a

(A) fine when authorized by law and as provided in AS 12.55.035; or

(B) day fine when authorized by law and as provided in AS 12.55.036 if the court does not impose a term of periodic or continuous imprisonment or place the defendant on probation;

(2) order the defendant to be placed on probation under conditions specified by the court that may include provision for active supervision;

(3) impose a definite term of periodic imprisonment, but only if an employment obligation of the defendant preexisted sentencing and the defendant receives a composite sentence of not more than two years to serve;

(4) impose a definite term of continuous imprisonment;

(5) order the defendant to make restitution under AS 12.55.045;

(6) order the defendant to carry out a continuous or periodic program of community work under AS 12.55.055;

(7) suspend execution of all or a portion of the sentence imposed under AS 12.55.080;

(8) suspend imposition of sentence under AS 12.55.085;

(9) order the forfeiture to the commissioner of public safety or a municipal law enforcement agency of a deadly weapon that was in the actual possession of or used by the defendant during the commission of an offense described in AS 11.41, AS 11.46, AS 11.56, or AS 11.61;

(10) order the defendant, while incarcerated, to participate in or comply with the treatment plan of a rehabilitation program that is related to the defendant's offense or to the defendant's rehabilitation if the program is made available to the defendant by the Department of Corrections;

(11) order the forfeiture to the state of a motor vehicle, weapon, electronic communication device, or money or other valuables, used in or obtained through an offense that was committed for the benefit of, at the direction of, or in association with a criminal street gang;

(12) order the defendant to have no contact, either directly or indirectly, with a victim or witness of the offense until the defendant is unconditionally discharged.

(b) The court, in exercising sentencing discretion as provided in this chapter, shall impose a sentence involving imprisonment when

(1) the defendant deserves to be imprisoned, considering the seriousness of the present offense and the defendant's prior criminal history, and imprisonment is equitable considering sentences imposed for other offenses and other defendants under similar circumstances;

(2) imprisonment is necessary to protect the public from further harm by the defendant; or

(3) sentences of lesser severity have been repeatedly imposed for substantially similar offenses in the past and have proven ineffective in deterring the defendant from further criminal conduct.

(c) In addition to the penalties authorized by this section, the court may invoke any authority conferred by law to order a forfeiture of property, suspend or revoke a license, remove a person from office, or impose any other civil penalty. When forfeiting property under this subsection, a court may award to a municipal law enforcement agency that participated in the arrest or conviction of the defendant, the seizure of property, or the identification of property for seizure, (1) the property if the property is worth $5,000 or less and is not money or some other thing that is divisible, or (2) up to 75 percent of the property or the value of the property if the property is worth more than $5,000 or is money or some other thing that is divisible. In determining the percentage a municipal law enforcement agency may receive under this subsection, the court shall consider the municipal law enforcement agency's total involvement in the case relative to the involvement of the state.

(d) [Repealed, Sec. 1 ch 188 SLA 1990].

(e) If the defendant is ordered to serve a definite term of imprisonment, the court may recommend that the defendant serve all or part of the term

(1) in a correctional restitution center;

(2) by electronic monitoring.

(f) Notwithstanding (a) of this section, the court shall order the forfeiture to the commissioner of public safety or a municipal law enforcement agency of a deadly weapon that was in the actual possession of or used by the defendant during the commission of a crime involving domestic violence.

(g) Unless a defendant is ineligible for a deduction under AS 33.20, when a defendant is sentenced to a term of imprisonment of two years or more, the sentence consists of two parts: (1) a minimum term of imprisonment that is equal to not less than two-thirds of the total term of imprisonment; and (2) a maximum term of supervised release on mandatory parole that is equal to not more than one-third of the total term of imprisonment; the amount of time that the inmate actually serves in imprisonment and on supervised release is subject to the provisions of AS 33.20.010 - 33.20.060.

(h) In addition to penalties authorized by this section, the court shall order a person convicted of an offense requiring the state to collect a blood sample, oral sample, or both, for the deoxyribonucleic acid identification registration system under AS 44.41.035 to submit to the collection of

(1) the sample or samples when requested by a health care professional acting on behalf of the state to provide the sample or samples; or

(2) an oral sample when requested by a juvenile or adult correctional, probation, or parole officer, or a peace officer.

(i) In this section "deadly weapon" has the meaning given in AS 11.81.900.

(1) $500,000 for murder in the first or second degree, attempted murder in the first degree, murder of an unborn child, sexual assault in the first degree, sexual abuse of a minor in the first degree, kidnapping, promoting prostitution in the first degree under AS 11.66.110(a)(2), or misconduct involving a controlled substance in the first degree;

(2) $250,000 for a class A felony;

(3) $100,000 for a class B felony;

(4) $50,000 for a class C felony;

(5) $10,000 for a class A misdemeanor;

(6) $2,000 for a class B misdemeanor;

(7) $500 for a violation.

(c) Except as provided in AS 12.55.036, upon conviction of an offense, a defendant that is an organization may be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding the greater of

(1) an amount that is

(A) $1,000,000 for a felony offense or for a misdemeanor offense that results in death;

(B) $200,000 for a class A misdemeanor offense that does not result in death;

(C) $25,000 for a class B misdemeanor offense that does not result in death;

(D) $10,000 for a violation;

(2) three times the pecuniary gain realized by the defendant as a result of the offense; or

(3) three times the pecuniary damage or loss caused by the defendant to another, or to the property of another, as a result of the offense.

(d) If a defendant is sentenced to pay a fine, the court may grant permission for the payment to be made within a specified period of time or in specified installments.

(e) In imposing a fine under (c) of this section, in addition to any other relevant factors, the court shall consider

(1) measures taken by the organization to discipline an officer, director, employee, or agent of the organization;

(2) measures taken by the organization to prevent a recurrence of the offense;

(3) the organization's obligation to make restitution to a victim of the offense, and the extent to which imposition of a fine will impair the ability of the organization to make restitution; and

(4) the extent to which the organization will pass on to consumers the expense of the fine.

(f) In imposing a fine, the court may not reduce the fine by the amount of a surcharge or otherwise consider the applicability of a surcharge to the offense.

Sec. 12.55.036. Day fines.

(a) Upon conviction of a misdemeanor, other than a violation of AS 11.41 and AS 11.56.740, a defendant may be sentenced to pay a day fine as authorized by this section. If a day fine is imposed under this section, the defendant may not be sentenced to pay a fine under AS 12.55.035, serve a term of imprisonment, or be placed on probation.

(b) The Alaska Supreme Court shall adopt a day fine plan that includes

(1) an assessment of the gravity of all misdemeanor offenses, which assessment must include the existence of prior offenses, and the assignment of presumptive penalties to them in day fine units within the following ranges:

(A) for class A and unclassified misdemeanors, not to exceed 365-day fine units;

(B) for class B misdemeanors, not to exceed 90-day fine units;

(2) a schedule of the presumptive day fine penalties;

(3) procedures for a court to increase or decrease the presumptive day fine penalties if the court finds the existence of an aggravating factor under AS 12.55.155(c) or a mitigating factor under AS 12.55.155(d);

(4) a table for the conversion of a defendant's actual, potential, or estimated gross income, less one-third for a defendant above the federal poverty guideline as determined by the United States Department of Health and Human Services, and less one-half for a defendant below the federal poverty guideline into net daily income amounts; the table must include adjustments for the number of dependents actually supported by the defendant;

(5) procedures for a court to gather information about the defendant's occupation, actual, estimated, and potential income, number of dependents, and other facts necessary or relevant to sentencing a person to a day fine; a court may order the production of the financial or other records of a person it determines to be relevant to a determination under this section; the procedures must include a requirement that the facts shall be received

(A) under oath so that the defendant is subject to prosecution under AS 11.56.200;

or

(B) in a writing or recording that bears notice that false statements made in it are punishable under AS 11.56.210; and

(6) other information the court determines to be necessary for implementing the day fine plan.

(c) The amount of a day fine shall be the product of the net daily income of the defendant, adjusted for the number of dependents actually supported by the defendant, times the day fine penalty. When imposing a sentence of a day fine, the court shall

(1) state on the record the

(A) presumptive day fine penalty for the offense, and whether the court is adjusting the presumptive day fine penalty for the existence of aggravating or mitigating factors;

(B) net daily income of the income of the defendant, adjusted for the number of dependents actually supported by the defendant; and

(C) amount of the day fine;

(2) make written findings of the facts considered in

(A) finding the existence of aggravating or mitigating factors and in assigning a value to those factors; and

(B) determining the defendant's gross and daily net incomes.

(d) When imposing a sentence of a day fine, the court may permit the payment of the day fine in specified installments or within a certain period of time, provided the entire day fine is paid within 180 days of imposition.

(e) A sentence imposing a day fine shall be considered a civil judgment for the day fine. The Department of Law shall enforce the judgment and may utilize any procedure available for the enforcement of civil judgments. If the Department of Law uses the civil process of the court to enforce or collect a day fine, the department shall be awarded costs and attorney fees.

(f) [Repealed, Sec. 7 ch 79 SLA 1994].

(g) Money collected under this section shall be deposited into the general fund and separately accounted for under AS 37.05.142.
