STATE OF ALASKA 2012 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. HB293

Analysis

This bill amends AS 12.61.010(a) by requiring that the victim of a crime be notified of any request for a continuance or pending motions that may substantially delay the prosecution, and inform the court of the victim's position on these motions. This bill amends Rule 45 (d)(2) of the Alaska Rules of Criminal Procedure by adding language that requires the court to grant continuances only after consideration of the crime victim as provided in a new subsection (h) that this bill would also add to Rule 45. The new subsection (h) requires the court to consider the victim's position on motions to continue.

Courts currently consider the impact of delay on a victim's rights under the state constitution. The Public Defender Agency believes that the victim's concerns are already considered by parties in trial cases as a result of constitutional requirements concerning crime victims. The compulsory language in the amendment to Rule 45 may have the collateral effect of causing additional hearings and delay if the victim cannot be located. This will be impacted by how the courts interpret "substantial delay."

Although this bill may increase hearings and delay, the Public Defender Agency cannot reliably predict whether this will occur and have a fiscal impact on the Agency and therefore submits an indeterminate fiscal note.
