FISCAL NOTE

STATE OF ALASKA
2012 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. HB 221

Analysis

House Bill 221 requires an applicant for the services of court-appointed counsel to provide information about the financial resources of the person.

The bill also requires an applicant for court-appointed counsel to swear both orally and in writing that the information the person is giving the court is accurate, and provides that the person who gives the information does so under penalty of perjury.

The fiscal impact to the Department of Law is zero.
