BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

* Section 1. AS 09.38.017(a) is amended to read:

(a) In addition to the exemption under AS 09.38.015(b), the following are exempt from a claim of an individual's or beneficiary's creditor:

(B) if excludible from gross income under 26 U.S.C. (Internal Revenue Code), as a

(i) rollover under 26 U.S.C. 408 or 26 U.S.C. 408A;

* Sec. 4. AS 13.06.120 is amended to read:

Sec. 13.06.120. Pleadings; when parties bound by orders; notice. In any proceedings involving trusts, nonprobate assets, or estates of decedents, minors, protected persons, or incapacitated persons brought under AS 13.06 - AS 13.36 or

AS 13.38, [INCLUDING ANY JUDICIALLY SUPERVISED SETTLEMENTS AND ANY NONJUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS AND SETTLEMENTS,] the following apply:

(1) interests to be affected shall be described in pleadings that give reasonable information to owners by name or class, by reference to the instrument creating the interests, or in other appropriate manner;

(2) persons are bound by orders binding others in the following cases:

(A) orders binding the sole holder or all co-holders of a power of revocation or a general or nongeneral power of appointment, including one in the form of a power of amendment, bind other persons to the extent their interests, as objects, takers in default, or otherwise, are subject to the power;

(B) to the extent there is no conflict of interest between them or among persons represented, orders binding a conservator bind the person whose estate the conservator controls; orders binding a guardian bind the ward if no conservator of the estate has been appointed; orders binding a trustee bind beneficiaries of the trust in proceedings to probate a will establishing or adding to a trust, to review the acts or accounts of a prior fiduciary, and in proceedings involving creditors or other third parties; orders binding a personal representative bind persons interested in the undistributed assets of a decedent's estate in actions or proceedings by or against the estate; and orders binding an agent having authority to act with respect to the particular questions or dispute bind the principal; if there is no conflict of interest and no conservator or guardian has been appointed, a parent may represent the minor child;

(C) an unborn person, a minor, an incapacitated person, or a person whose identity or location is unknown or not reasonably ascertainable who is not otherwise represented is bound by an order to the extent the interest is adequately represented by another party having a substantially identical interest in the proceeding;

(D) with regard to interests given upon the happening of a certain event to persons who comprise a certain class, orders binding the living persons who would constitute the class, if the event had happened immediately before the commencement of the proceeding, bind all members of the class;

(E) with regard to an interest given to a living person when the same interest or a share of the interest is to pass to the surviving spouse or to persons who are or might be the distributees, devisees, heirs, or issue of the living person upon the happening of a future event, orders binding the living person bind the surviving spouse, distributees, devisees, heirs, or issue of the living person;

(F) with regard to interests given to a person or a class of persons, or to both, upon the happening of a future event, if the same interest or a share of the interest is to pass to another person or class of persons, or to both, upon the happening of an additional future event, orders binding the living person or class of persons who would take the interest upon the happening of the first event bind the persons and classes of persons who might take on the happening of the additional future event;

(G) if a person is designated by a trust instrument to represent and bind a born or unborn beneficiary of the trust and receive a notice, information, accounting, or report for the beneficiary, then the beneficiary is bound by an order binding the designated person; in this subparagraph,

(i) the settlor may make the designation in the trust instrument, in a separate document, or by a trust protector authorized in the trust instrument to make the designation;

(ii) except as otherwise provided in this subparagraph, a person designated under (i) of this subparagraph may not represent and bind a beneficiary while the designated person is serving as trustee;

(iii) except as otherwise provided in this subparagraph, a person designated under (i) of this subparagraph may not represent and bind another beneficiary if the designated person also is a beneficiary, unless the designated person was named by the settlor, is the beneficiary's spouse, or is a grandparent or descendant of a grandparent of the beneficiary or the beneficiary's spouse; in this subsubparagraph, "spouse" means the individual to whom the beneficiary is married and with whom the beneficiary is living, and a physical separation primarily for education, business, health, and similar reasons does not prevent the individual from being considered to be living with the beneficiary;

(3) a person representing another person under (2)(A) - (F) of this section and a person designated under (2)(G)(i) of this section are not liable to the beneficiary whose interests are represented, or to a person claiming through that beneficiary, for an action or omission to act made in good faith;

(4) notice is required as follows:

(A) notice as prescribed by AS 13.06.110 shall be given to every interested person or to one person who can bind an interested person as described in (2)(A), (B), or (D) - (G) of this section; notice may be given both to a person and to another person who may bind the person;

(B) notice is given to unborn persons, a minor, an incapacitated person, or a person whose identity or location is unknown or not reasonably ascertainable, and persons who are not represented under (2)(A), (B), or (D) - (G) of this section, by giving notice to all known persons whose interests in the proceedings are substantially identical to those of the unborn persons, the minor, the incapacitated person, or the person whose identity or location is unknown or not reasonably ascertainable;

(5) at any point in a proceeding, a court may appoint a guardian ad litem to represent the interest of an unborn person, a minor, an incapacitated person, or a person whose identity or address is unknown or not reasonably ascertainable, if the court determines that representation of the interest otherwise would be inadequate; if not precluded by conflict of interests, a guardian ad litem may be appointed to represent several persons or interests; the court shall set out its reasons for appointing a guardian ad litem as a part of the record of the proceeding.

* Sec. 5. AS 13.06.120 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

(b) In this section,

(1) "order" means a judicial order, nonjudicial order, the result of the

1 settlement of an account of a fiduciary under a procedure authorized by AS 13.06 -
2 13.36 or AS 13.38, and a settlement agreement resulting from a proceeding;

3 (2) "proceeding" means a judicial proceeding, nonjudicial proceeding,
4 the settlement of an account of a fiduciary under a procedure authorized by AS 13.06 -
5 13.36 or AS 13.38, and a settlement negotiation, even if the settlement negotiation
6 does not involve a judicial or nonjudicial third party who decides or facilitates a 7 settlement.

8 * Sec. 6. AS 13.36.157 is repealed and reenacted to read:

9 Sec. 13.36.157. Exercise of power of appointment. (a) An authorized trustee 10 with unlimited discretion to invade trust principal may appoint part or all of that 11 principal to a trustee of an appointed trust for, and only for the benefit of, a current 12 beneficiary of the invaded trust to the exclusion of other current beneficiaries. A 13 permissible appointee of a power of appointment held by a beneficiary of the 14 appointed trust is not considered a beneficiary of the appointed trust. The successor
15 and remainder beneficiaries of the appointed trust may be one or more of the successor
16 and remainder beneficiaries of the invaded trust to the exclusion of other successor 17 and remainder beneficiaries.

18 (b) An authorized trustee exercising the power under (a) of this section may 19 grant a discretionary power of appointment, including a presently exercisable power of 20 appointment, in the appointed trust to one or more of the current beneficiaries of the 21 invaded trust, to the extent that the beneficiary who is granted the power to appoint is 22 authorized to receive the principal outright under the terms of the invaded trust. A 23 permissible appointee is not limited to the beneficiaries of the invaded trust.

24 (c) Under (a) and (b) of this section, if the beneficiaries of the invaded trust 25 are described by a class, the beneficiaries of the appointed trust may include present or 26 future members of that class.

27 (d) An authorized trustee with the power to invade trust principal but without 28 unlimited discretion may appoint part or all of the principal of the trust to a trustee of 29 an appointed trust if the current beneficiaries of the appointed trust are the same as the 30 current beneficiaries of the invaded trust and the successor and remainder beneficiaries 31 of the appointed trust are the same as the successor and remainder beneficiaries of the invaded trust. The shares of the current beneficiaries of the appointed trust must be the same as the shares of the current beneficiaries of the invaded trust, and the shares of the successor and remainder beneficiaries of the appointed trust must be the same as the shares of the successor and remainder beneficiaries of the invaded trust.

(e) If the authorized trustee exercises the power under (d) of this section, the appointed trust must include the same standard authorizing the trustee to distribute the income or invade the principal of the appointed trust as the standard in the invaded trust. However, the standard authorizing the trustee to distribute the income or invade the principal of the appointed trust may be changed if the trustee appoints to an appointed trust that is a special needs trust, a pooled trust, or a third-party trust.

(f) If an authorized trustee exercises the power under (d) and (e) of this section to extend the duration of the appointed trust beyond the duration of the invaded trust for any period after the invaded trust would have otherwise terminated under the provisions of the invaded trust, the appointed trust, in addition to the language required to be included in the appointed trust under (e) of this section, may also provide an additional trustee with unlimited discretion to invade the principal of the appointed trust during the extended duration. The trustee with unlimited discretion continues to be subject to the restrictions in (d) - (h) of this section.

(g) Under (d) - (f) of this section, if the beneficiaries of the invaded trust are described by a class, the beneficiaries of the appointed trust include present or future members of that class.

(h) If the authorized trustee exercises the power under (d) - (g) of this section and if the invaded trust grants a power of appointment to a beneficiary of the trust, the appointed trust must grant this power of appointment in the appointed trust, and the class of permissible appointees shall be the same as in the invaded trust.

* Sec. 7. AS 13.36 is amended by adding new sections to read:

Sec. 13.36.158. Additional provisions relating to exercise of a power of appointment. (a) An exercise of the power to invade trust principal under AS 13.36.157 is the exercise of a special power of appointment.

(b) The appointed trust to which an authorized trustee appoints the assets of the invaded trust under AS 13.36.157 may have a duration that is longer than the duration set out in the invaded trust.

(c) If an authorized trustee has unlimited discretion to invade the principal of a trust and if the same trustee or another trustee has a power, not dependent on unlimited discretion, to invade principal under the trust instrument, the authorized trustee having unlimited discretion may exercise the power of appointment under AS 13.36.157(a) - (c).

(d) An authorized trustee may exercise the power to appoint in favor of an appointed trust under AS 13.36.157 whether or not there is a current need to invade principal under the terms of the invaded trust.

(e) An authorized trustee exercising the power under AS 13.36.157 - 13.36.159 has a fiduciary duty to exercise the power in the best interests of one or more proper objects of the exercise of the power and as a prudent person would exercise the power under the prevailing circumstances. The authorized trustee may not exercise the power under AS 13.36.157 - 13.36.159 if there is substantial evidence of a contrary intent of the settlor and it cannot be established that the settlor would be likely to have changed this intention under the circumstances existing at the time the trustee exercises the power. The provisions of the invaded trust may not be viewed alone as substantial evidence of a contrary intent of the settlor unless the invaded trust expressly prohibits the exercise of the power in the manner intended by the authorized trustee.

(f) The provisions of AS 13.36.157 - 13.36.159 may not be construed to abridge the right of a trustee to appoint property further in trust under the terms of the governing instrument of a trust, another provision of law, or common law, or as directed by a court having jurisdiction over the trust.

(g) Nothing in AS 13.36.157 - 13.36.159 creates or implies a duty to exercise a power to invade principal. An inference of impropriety may not be made, and liability is not incurred, as a result of an authorized trustee not exercising the power conferred under AS 13.36.157.

(h) A power authorized by AS 13.36.157 may be exercised, subject to the provisions of AS 13.36.159(a), unless expressly prohibited by the terms of the governing instrument. A general prohibition against amending or revoking the invaded trust and a provision that constitutes a spendthrift clause do not preclude the exercise of a power under AS 13.36.157.

(i) An authorized trustee may not exercise a power authorized by AS 13.36.157 to

(1) reduce, limit, or modify a beneficiary's current right to a mandatory distribution of income or principal, a mandatory annuity or unitrust interest, a right to withdraw a percentage of the value of the trust, or a right to withdraw a specified dollar amount, if the mandatory right has come into effect with respect to the beneficiary, but the mandatory right may be reduced, limited, or modified during any extended duration of the trust; however, notwithstanding the other provisions in this paragraph, but subject to the other limitations in AS 13.36.157 - 13.36.159, an authorized trustee may exercise a power authorized by AS 13.36.157 to appoint to an appointed trust that is a special needs trust, a pooled trust, or a third-party trust;

(2) decrease or indemnify against a trustee's liability or exonerate a trustee from liability for failure to exercise reasonable care, diligence, and prudence unless the court having jurisdiction over the trust specifies otherwise;

(3) eliminate a provision granting another person the right to remove or replace the authorized trustee exercising the power under AS 13.36.157 unless a court having jurisdiction over the trust specifies otherwise;

(4) fix as binding and conclusive the value of an asset for purposes of distribution, allocation, or otherwise; or

(5) jeopardize

(A) the deduction or exclusion originally claimed with respect to a contribution to the invaded trust that qualified for the annual exclusion under 26 U.S.C. 2503(b), the marital deduction under 26 U.S.C. 2056(a) or 26 U.S.C. 2523(a), or the charitable deduction under 26 U.S.C. 170(a), 26 U.S.C. 642(c), 26 U.S.C. 2055(a), or 26 U.S.C. 2522(a) (Internal Revenue Code);

(B) the qualification of a transfer as a direct skip under 26 U.S.C. 2642(c) (Internal Revenue Code);

(C) the election to treat a corporation as a subchapter S corporation under 26 U.S.C. 1362 (Internal Revenue Code); or

(D) another specific tax benefit for which a contribution originally qualified for income, gift, estate, or generation-skipping transfer tax purposes under 26 U.S.C. (Internal Revenue Code).

(j) Before exercising the power under AS 13.36.157, an authorized trustee shall consider the tax implications of the exercise of the power.

(k) An authorized trustee may not exercise a power described in AS 13.36.157 - 13.36.159 in violation of the limitations on validity in AS 34.27.051 or 34.27.100, or the restrictions on exercising certain powers in AS 13.36.153 by trustees who are not independent. A violation voids the entire exercise of the power unless the exercise is modified to correct the violation.

(l) Unless a court having jurisdiction over the trust directs otherwise, an authorized trustee may not exercise a power authorized by AS 13.36.157 to change the provisions regarding the determination of the compensation of a trustee. The commissions or other compensation payable to the trustees of the invaded trust may continue to be paid to the trustees of the appointed trust during the term of the appointed trust and shall be determined in the same manner as for the invaded trust.

(m) A trustee may not receive a payment, a commission, or other compensation for appointing property from the invaded trust to an appointed trust under AS 13.36.157. However, a trustee may be compensated at an hourly rate for the time spent considering and implementing the exercise of a power to appoint.

(n) Unless the invaded trust expressly provides otherwise, the provisions in AS 13.36.157 - 13.36.159 apply to

(1) a trust, whether testamentary or inter vivos, governed by the laws of this state, including a trust whose governing law has been changed to the laws of this state; and

(2) a trust that has a trustee who is an individual domiciled in this state, or a trustee that is an entity having an office in this state, if a majority of the trustees select this state as the location for the primary administration of the trust and the selection is made by an instrument in writing that is signed and acknowledged by a majority of the trustees; the instrument exercising this selection shall be kept with the records of the invaded trust.

(o) A power to pay principal that includes words such as "best interests," "welfare," "comfort," or "happiness" is not considered a limitation or modification of the right to distribute principal.

(p) In this section, "internal revenue code" means the Internal Revenue Code of the United States (26 U.S.C.) as it exists on the effective date of this Act and as it is amended from time to time;

Sec. 13.36.159. Implementation of power of appointment. (a) Unless the authorized trustee provides otherwise, the appointment of

(1) all of the assets comprising the principal of the invaded trust to an appointed trust includes subsequently discovered assets of the invaded trust and undistributed principal of the invaded trust acquired after the appointment to the appointed trust;

(2) a part but not all of the assets comprising the principal of the invaded trust to an appointed trust may not include subsequently discovered assets belonging to the invaded trust or principal paid to or acquired by the invaded trust after the appointment to the appointed trust; those subsequently discovered assets remain the assets of the invaded trust.

(b) The exercise of the power to appoint to an appointed trust under AS 13.36.157 shall be evidenced by an instrument in writing that is signed, dated, and acknowledged by the authorized trustee. The exercise of the power is effective 30 days after the date of service of the instrument as specified in (d) of this section, unless the persons entitled to notice consent in writing to a sooner effective date.

(c) An authorized trustee may exercise the power authorized by AS 13.36.157 without the consent of the settlor or a person interested in the invaded trust and without court approval. However, an authorized trustee may seek court approval for the exercise. When seeking court approval, notice shall be sent to all qualified beneficiaries.

(d) A copy of the invaded trust, the appointed trust, and the instrument exercising the power shall be delivered to

(1) the settlor, if living, of the invaded trust;

(2) a person having the right, under the terms of the invaded trust, to remove or replace the authorized trustee exercising the power under AS 13.36.157;

and

(3) a qualified beneficiary or a person who may represent and bind the qualified beneficiary under AS 13.06.120.

(e) Notice under (d) of this section to a qualified beneficiary is not required if the settlor has exempted the authorized trustee from providing notification or information to beneficiaries under AS 13.36.080(b). Notice under (d) of this section shall be provided under AS 13.06.110.

(f) The instrument exercising the power must state whether the appointment is of all or part of the assets comprising the principal of the invaded trust and, if a part, the approximate percentage of the value of the principal of the invaded trust that is the subject of the appointment.

(g) A person entitled to notice under (d) of this section may object to the trustee's exercise of the power under AS 13.36.157 - 13.36.159 by serving a written notice of objection on the trustee before the effective date of the exercise of the power.
The failure to object does not constitute consent.

(h) The receipt of a copy of the instrument exercising the power does not, before the expiration of the limitation period in AS 13.36.100 with respect to a report disclosing the exercise, affect the right of a qualified beneficiary to object to the exercise of the power under AS 13.36.157 and to request the court to modify or to reverse the exercise.

(i) A copy of the instrument exercising the power shall be kept with the records of the invaded trust.

* Sec. 8. AS 13.36.215 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

(b) In AS 13.36.157 - 13.36.159,

(1) "appointed trust" means an irrevocable trust that receives principal from an invaded trust under AS 13.36.157, including a new trust created by the settlor of the invaded trust or by the trustees, acting in that capacity, of the invaded trust;

(2) "authorized trustee" means, with regard to an invaded trust, a trustee with the authority to pay trust principal to or for a current beneficiary; in this paragraph, "trustee" does not include a settlor or a beneficiary to whom income or principal must be paid, currently or in the future, or who is or will become eligible to receive a distribution of income or principal in the discretion of the trustee other than by the exercise of a power of appointment held in a nonfiduciary capacity;

(3) "current beneficiary" means a person or, with regard to a class of persons, a person who is or will become a member of the class, to whom a trustee may distribute principal when exercising a power under AS 13.36.157;

(4) "invade" means pay directly to the beneficiary of a trust or apply to the benefit of a beneficiary;

(5) "invaded trust" means an irrevocable inter vivos or testamentary trust the principal of which is appointed under AS 13.36.157;

(6) "pooled trust" means a trust described in 42 U.S.C. 1396p(d)(4)(C) that meets the requirements for a pooled trust under the regulations of this state relating to the Medicaid treatment of trusts;

(7) "principal" means the assets of a trust, including accrued and accumulated income, but excluding income that is currently required to be distributed;

(8) "special needs trust" means a trust under 42 U.S.C. 1396p(d)(4)(A) that meets the requirements for a special needs trust under the regulations of this state relating to the Medicaid treatment of trusts;

(9) "third-party trust" means a trust that is

(A) established by a third party with the assets of the third party to provide for supplemental needs for a person eligible when the trust is created or at a future time for needs-based public assistance; and

(B) exempt from the provisions of the regulations of this state relating to the Medicaid treatment of trusts;

(10) "unlimited discretion" means the unlimited right to distribute principal that is not modified in any manner.

* Sec. 9. AS 13.38.200(b) is amended to read:

(b) In exercising a discretionary power of administration regarding a matter within the scope of this chapter, whether granted by the governing instrument or this chapter, including AS 13.38.210 and 13.38.300 - 13.38.490 [13.38.300 - 13.38.410], a fiduciary shall administer a trust or estate impartially based on what is fair and reasonable to all of the beneficiaries, except to the extent that the governing instrument clearly manifests an intention that the fiduciary shall or may favor one or more of the beneficiaries. A determination in accordance with this chapter is presumed to be fair and reasonable to all of the beneficiaries.

* Sec. 10. AS 13.38.210(c) is amended to read:

(c) A trustee may not make an adjustment under this section if

(1) the adjustment would diminish the income interest in a trust that requires all of the income to be paid at least annually to a spouse and for which a federal estate tax or gift tax marital deduction would be allowed, in whole or in part, if the trustee did not have the power to make the adjustment; the prohibition in this paragraph does not apply to a trust after the trustee determines that the marital deduction has not been claimed or has not been allowed;

(2) the adjustment would reduce the actuarial value of the income interest in a trust to which a person transfers property with the intent to qualify for a federal gift tax exclusion;

(3) the adjustment would change the amount payable to a beneficiary as a fixed annuity or a fixed fraction of the value of the trust assets;

(4) the adjustment is from any amount that is permanently set aside for charitable purposes under the governing instrument and for which a federal estate or gift tax charitable deduction has been taken, unless both income and principal are permanently set aside for charitable purposes under the governing instrument;

(5) possessing or exercising the power to make an adjustment would cause an individual to be treated as the owner of all or part of the trust for federal income tax purposes, and the individual would not be treated as the owner if the trustee did not possess the power to make an adjustment;

(6) possessing or exercising the power to make an adjustment would cause all or part of the trust assets to be subject to federal estate or gift tax with respect to an individual, and the assets would not be subject to federal estate or gift tax with respect to the individual if the trustee did not possess the power to make an adjustment;

(7) the trustee is a beneficiary of the trust; or

(8) the trust has been converted to a unitrust under AS 13.38.300 - 13.38.435 [AS 13.38.300 - 13.38.410].

* Sec. 11. AS 13.38.300 is amended to read:

Sec. 13.38.300. Power to convert to unitrust. Unless expressly prohibited by the governing instrument, a trustee may release the power to adjust under AS 13.38.210 and may convert a trust into a unitrust as described in AS 13.38.300 - 13.38.435 [AS 13.38.300 - 13.38.410] if

(1) the trustee determines that the conversion will enable the trustee to better carry out the intent of the settlor or testator and the purposes of the trust;

(2) the trustee gives written notice of the trustee's intention to release the power to adjust, of the trustee's intention to convert the trust into a unitrust, of the unitrust percentage selected, of the smoothing period selected, and of how the unitrust will operate, including what initial decisions the trustee intends to [WILL] make under AS 13.38.340 [THIS SECTION], to all the sui juris beneficiaries who

(A) are currently eligible to receive income from the trust;

(B) would be eligible, if a power of appointment were not exercised, to receive income from the trust if the interest of all of the beneficiaries eligible to receive income under (A) of this paragraph were to terminate immediately before the giving of the notice; and

(C) would, if a power of appointment were not exercised, receive a distribution of principal if the trust were to terminate immediately before the giving of the notice;

(3) there are at least one sui juris beneficiary under (2)(A) of this section and at least one sui juris beneficiary under (2)(B) or (C) of this section; and

(4) a sui juris beneficiary does not object to the conversion to a unitrust in a writing delivered to the trustee within 60 days after the mailing of the notice under (2) of this section.

* Sec. 13. AS 13.38.330(b) is amended to read:

(b) After a trust has been converted to a unitrust, "income" in the governing instrument means an annual distribution equal to the amount produced by the application of a fixed unitrust percentage established under (d) of this section to [FOUR PERCENT OF] the net fair market value, as determined annually, of the trust's assets, whether the assets would be considered income or principal under other provisions of this chapter, averaged over the lesser of

(1) the preceding years in the smoothing period selected by the trustee; or

(2) the period during which the trust has been in existence.

* Sec. 14. AS 13.38.330 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

(d) The unitrust percentage to be used in determining the unitrust amount must be a reasonable current return from the unitrust of at least three percent and not more than five percent, taking into account the intentions of the trustor of the unitrust as expressed in the governing instrument, the needs of the beneficiaries, general economic conditions, projected current earnings for the unitrust, projected appreciation for the unitrust, and the effect of projected inflation on the unitrust.

* Sec. 15. AS 13.38.340 is amended to read:

Sec. 13.38.340. Trustee's discretionary powers regarding unitrust. The trustee may, in the trustee's discretion, from time to time, determine

- (1) the effective date of a conversion to a unitrust;
- (2) the provisions for prorating a unitrust distribution for a short year in which a beneficiary's right to payments commences or ceases;

* Sec. 16. AS 13.38.350(b) is amended to read:

(b) Unless otherwise provided by the governing instrument, a unitrust distribution shall be considered to have been paid from net income as net income would be determined if the trust were not a unitrust. To the extent net income is insufficient, the unitrust distribution shall be considered to have been paid from ordinary income that is allocable under federal income tax rules to net income as determined for a unitrust. To the extent that the ordinary income is insufficient, the unitrust distribution is considered to have been paid from net realized short-term capital gains. To the extent net income, ordinary income, and net realized short-term capital gains are insufficient, the unitrust distribution shall be considered to have been paid from net realized long-term capital gains. To the extent net income, ordinary income, and net realized short-term and long-term capital gains are insufficient, the unitrust distribution shall be paid from the principal of the trust.

* Sec. 17. AS 13.38.360 is amended to read:

Sec. 13.38.360. Court orders regarding unitrust. The trustee or, if the trustee declines to petition the court, a beneficiary may petition the court to

[(1) SELECT A PAYOUT PERCENTAGE DIFFERENT THAN FOUR PERCENT;

(2)] provide for a distribution of net income, as would be determined if the unitrust [TRUST] were not a unitrust, in excess of the unitrust distribution if the distribution is necessary to preserve a tax benefit [;

(3) AVERAGE THE VALUATION OF THE TRUST'S NET ASSETS OVER A PERIOD OTHER THAN THREE YEARS].

1 * Sec. 18. AS 13.38.390(b) is amended to read:

2 (b) If AS 13.38.380(a)(3), (4), or (6) applies to all the trustees, the trustees
3 may petition the court to direct a conversion. In the alternative, the trustees may 4 appoint an independent person who shall be granted the authority, while acting
5 in a fiduciary capacity, to make decisions in place of the trustees relating to a 6 conversion, reconversion, and the exercise of discretionary powers under 7 AS 13.38.340.

8 * Sec. 19. AS 13.38.400 is amended to read:

9 Sec. 13.38.400. Reconversion from a unitrust. A trustee may reconvert a 10 trust that has been converted into a unitrust under AS 13.38.300 by following the same 11 procedures provided in AS 13.38.300 - 13.38.435 [AS 13.38.300 - 13.38.410] for 12 converting a trust into a unitrust. If a unitrust is reconverted under this section, the 13 trustee's power to adjust under AS 13.38.210 applies to the trustee after the 14 reconversion.

15 * Sec. 20. AS 13.38 is amended by adding new sections to article 2 to read:

16 Sec. 13.38.420. Additional unitrust provisions. (a) The unitrust amount may 17 be determined by reference to the net fair market value of the unitrust's assets in one or 18 more years.

19 (b) Distribution of a unitrust amount is considered a distribution of all of the 20 income of a unitrust and is considered to be an income interest.

21 (c) Distribution of a unitrust amount is considered to be a reasonable 22 apportionment of the total return of a unitrust.

23 (d) A unitrust that provides for a distribution based on a unitrust percentage in 24 excess of five percent of the net fair market value of the unitrust assets a year is 25 considered to have paid out all of the income of the unitrust and to have paid out 26 principal of the unitrust to the extent that the distribution exceeds five percent a year.

27 (e) The governing instrument of a unitrust may grant discretion to the trustee 28 to adopt a consistent practice of treating capital gains as part of the unitrust amount to 29 the extent that the unitrust amount exceeds the income determined as if the trust were 30 not a unitrust, or the governing instrument may specify the ordering of classes of 31 income.

(f) Unless the terms of the unitrust specifically provide otherwise, a unitrust amount is considered to have been made from the following sources, which are listed in order of priority:

- (1) net income determined as if the trust were not a unitrust;
- (2) ordinary income not allocable to net income;
- (3) net realized short-term capital gains;
- (4) net realized long-term capital gains; and
- (5) the principal of the trust estate.

(g) The unitrust governing instrument may provide that the trustee may exclude assets used by the unitrust beneficiary, such as a residence property or tangible personal property, from the net fair market value of the unitrust assets for the purposes of computing the unitrust amount. These assets may be considered equivalent to income or to the unitrust amount.

Sec. 13.38.430. Power to treat gains as part of distribution of principal.

Unless prohibited by the unitrust's governing instrument or specifically addressed by AS 13.38.350 or 13.38.420, the trustee of a unitrust may treat gains from the sale of capital assets of the unitrust to be part of a distribution of principal to a beneficiary, and, if the trustee treats these gains as part of a distribution of principal to a beneficiary, the trustee shall treat these gains consistently on the unitrust's books, records, and tax returns as part of a distribution to a beneficiary.

Sec. 13.38.435. Definitions. In AS 13.38.300 - 13.38.435,

- (1) "smoothing period" means the period of years over which the fair market value of the assets of a unitrust are averaged;
- (2) "unitrust amount" means the amount that is distributed from a unitrust to a beneficiary;
- (3) "unitrust percentage" means the unitrust percentage established under AS 13.38.330(d).

* Sec. 21. AS 13.38.690(a) is repealed and reenacted to read:

- (a) A trustee shall allocate
 - (1) to income that portion of a payment that equals the greater of the following:

(A) the portion that the payor characterizes as interest, a dividend, a remittance in place of interest, or a remittance in place of a dividend; or

(B) the portion that is characterized as imputed interest for federal income purposes;

(2) to principal that portion of a payment that remains after the allocation is made under (1) of this subsection.

* Sec. 22. AS 13.38.690(b) is amended to read:

(b) If no [A] part of a payment under a contract calling for equal installments over a fixed period of time is [NOT] allocable to income under the provisions of (a) of this section, the difference between the trust's acquisition value of the contract and the total expected return is [SHALL BE] considered to be interest. The trustee shall allocate to income the portion of each payment equivalent to interest on the then unpaid principal balance at the rate specified in the contract or at a rate necessary to amortize the difference between the expected return and the acquisition value, where that rate is readily ascertainable by the trustee.

* Sec. 23. AS 13.38.690(c) is amended to read:

(c) If no [THERE IS NOT A] portion of a payment from a separate fund held exclusively for the benefit of the trust [THAT] is allocable to income under (a) or (b) of this section, but the internal net income of the fund determined as if the fund were a separate trust subject to AS 13.38.200 - 13.38.410, 13.38.500 - 13.38.690, or 13.38.710 - 13.38.860 [AS 13.38.500 - 13.38.860] is readily ascertainable by the trustee, the internal net income of the fund is considered to be the income earned by the fund, and the portion of the payment equal to the then undistributed net income of the fund realized since the trust acquired its interest in the fund is considered to be a distribution of that internal net income of the fund and shall be allocated to the trust income account. The balance of the payment described in this subsection shall be allocated to principal. The power to adjust under AS 13.38.210, the power to convert to a unitrust under AS 13.38.300, and the provisions of AS 13.38.420 apply to retirement benefits covered by this subsection that are payable to a trust. These powers and provisions may be exercised by the payee trustee or in the governing instrument for the retirement benefits separately and independently from the exercise by the payee trustee or in the governing instrument of these powers and provisions for the trust, as if the retirement benefits and the trust were separate trusts subject to this chapter.

* Sec. 24. AS 13.38.690(d) is amended to read:

(d) A trustee shall allocate 10 percent of the part of the payment that is required to be made during the accounting period to income and the balance to principal if there is no [NOT A] part of the payment that is allocable to income under (a) - (c) of this section and all or part of the payment is required to be made. The trustee shall allocate the entire payment to principal if no [A] part of a payment is [NOT] required to be made or the payment received is the entire amount to which the trustee is entitled. In this subsection, a payment is not "required to be made" to the extent that it is made because the trustee exercises a right of withdrawal.

* Sec. 25. AS 13.38.690(e) is amended to read:

(e) If, to obtain a federal estate or gift tax marital deduction for a trust, the trustee must allocate more of a payment to income than provided for by this section, the trustee shall allocate to income the additional amount necessary to obtain the marital deduction [TO INCOME].

* Sec. 26. AS 13.46.190 is amended to read:

Sec. 13.46.190. Termination of custodianship. The custodian shall transfer in an appropriate manner the custodial property to the minor or to the minor's estate upon the earlier of the

(1) minor's attainment of 21 years of age with respect to property transferred under AS 13.46.030 or 13.46.040 unless the time of transfer of the custodial property to the minor is changed under AS 13.46.195 or 13.46.197;

(2) minor's attainment of 18 years of age with respect to property transferred under AS 13.46.050 or 13.46.060, unless the time of transfer of the custodial property to the minor is changed under AS 13.46.197;

(3) time specified in the transfer under AS 13.46.080 if the time of transfer of the custodial property to the minor is changed under AS 13.46.195 or 13.46.197; or

1 (4) minor's death.

2 * Sec. 27. AS 13.46 is amended by adding a new section to read:

3 Sec. 13.46.197. Extension of custodial term by custodian. (a) A custodian
4 may extend the custodial term under this section to an age older than the age that is 5 specified by this chapter or a transferring document made under AS 13.46.080, subject
6 to the right of the minor to compel immediate distribution under (c) of this section.

7 (b) To extend the custodial term under (a) of this section, the custodian shall 8 give the minor written notice of the custodian's intent to extend the custodial term. The 9 notice must specify the duration of the extension by indicating the new custodial term
10 and must inform the minor of the minor's right to compel immediate distribution under 11 (c) of this section. The custodian shall give the notice during the later of the following 12 periods:

13 (1) the six-month period that precedes the last day of the custodial 14 term; or

15 (2) the six-month period that begins on the minor's 18th birthday.

16 (c) Rather than permit the extension of the custodial term, the minor may 17 compel immediate distribution of all or part of the custodial property by giving written 18 notice to the custodian

19 (1) during the six-month period that begins on the day that is the last 20 day of the current custodial term; or

21 (2) within 90 days after receiving the custodian's notice under (b) of 22 this section.

23 (d) If a minor does not exercise the minor's right to compel distribution under 24 (c) of this section, the custodial term shall be extended as indicated in the custodian's 25 notice given under (b) of this section, and the minor may not compel the immediate 26 distribution of custodial property before the end of the custodial term, as extended.

27 (e) A custodian may extend the custodial term more than once under this 28 section.

29 (f) In this section, "custodial term" means the period of time provided in or 30 allowed by this chapter during which the custodian is directed to hold custodial 31 property until the property is transferred to the minor.

1 * Sec. 28. AS 13.46.990(11) is amended to read:
