

Dianne Blumer

Labor and Workforce Development Commissioner Dianne Blumer is dedicated to ensuring an Alaska workforce ready to meet the business and industry demands of the state, in an environment of opportunity that provides good jobs.

Blumer, a life-long Alaskan, was appointed by Gov. Sean Parnell on May 17, 2012. For more than 20 years she has served the State of Alaska, including in leadership positions as director of the Division of Personnel and Labor Relations and deputy director of the Child Support Services Division. She has also served as a special assistant to Governor Parnell, advising on regulation and policy for three departments: Administration, Revenue and Commerce, Community and Economic Development.

Blumer was born in Ketchikan and raised on Prince of Wales Island. She lived in Southeast Alaska until 2007, when she moved to Anchorage. In addition to her public service, Blumer worked in the private sector managing a Sitka hotel and owning two successful Juneau small businesses.

Blumer serves on the Alaska Prisoner Re-entry Task Force. She also served on the Juneau Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors, the Wildflower Court Assisted Living Facility Board of Directors and the Municipality of Anchorage Public Transportation Advisory Board.
