

HSGQE Relevancy

National Comparison

- As of June 2013 there were 26 states reporting having current or planned high school exit exam policies (25 current, 1 planned - RI)
 - This represented 69% of the nation's public high school students (25 states)
 - 4 states have recently decided to phase out exit exam requirements (AL, NC, GA, TN)
 - 18 states, including Alaska have Comprehensive exit exams (aligned to state standards and generally targeted to the 9th or 10th grade level).
 - Of the 18 states with Comprehensive exit exams 7 also assess at least one end-of course (EOC) exams (FL, GA, MA, NM, SC, TX, WA)

Alaska Summary

- Passage of the HSGQE to obtain a diploma became effective in 2004
 - Students must pass 3 separate subtests – Reading, Writing, Mathematics
 - Individuals can participate twice a year
 - Grade 10 students take a combined SBA/HSGQE in Spring
 - Grade 11-12 students take HSGQE Retest in either Fall or Spring
- Skills tested by HSGQE
 - Reading
 - Reading comprehension, identification and support for main ideas, application of multi-step directions, ability to make and support assertions, and analysis and evaluation of themes
 - Multiple-choice questions target specific skills, and constructed response questions allow students to elaborate on and to make comparisons among various aspects of the texts. Excerpts from published literature are the basis for evaluating reading skills.
 - Writing
 - Writing compositions, using conventions of Standard English (spelling, grammar, capitalization, and punctuation), and revising writing to improve expression.
 - Multiple-choice questions evaluate specific aspects of writing skill, and constructed-response writing prompts ask students to write and edit narrative, descriptive, and persuasive essays on various topics.
 - Math
 - Computation skills; reading, interpreting, and constructing graphs; and principles of geometry and measurement
 - Students will use a ruler and a protractor for a portion of the subtest. Procedures such as estimation and mental computation are interwoven throughout this examination.
