When the defendant seeks to admit the evidence for any purpose, the defendant shall apply for an order of the court not later than five days [AT ANY TIME] before [OR DURING THE] trial [OR PRELIMINARY HEARING]. The defendant may apply for an order during trial if the request is based on information learned after the deadline or during the trial. After the application is made, the court shall conduct a hearing in camera to determine the admissibility of the evidence. If the court finds that evidence offered by the defendant regarding the sexual conduct of the complaining witness is relevant, and that the probative value of the evidence offered is not outweighed by the probability that its admission will create undue prejudice, confusion of the issues, or unwarranted invasion of the privacy of the complaining witness, the court shall make an order stating what evidence may be introduced and the nature of the questions that may be permitted. The defendant may then offer evidence under the order of the court.

* Sec. 16. AS 12.50.101(g) is amended to read:

The court shall conduct a personal inquiry under oath of the witness concerning the facts giving rise to the claim or claims of privilege in the proffer. The proffer and the testimony of the witness are [IS] privileged and inadmissible for any other purpose. If the proffer and the testimony establish [ESTABLISHES] a factual basis that there is a real or substantial danger that the testimony or other information to be compelled would support a conviction or would furnish a link in the chain of evidence leading to conviction for a crime, the court may find that the witness has a valid claim of privilege.

* Sec. 17. AS 12.50.101 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

(j) If the court finds, after a hearing under (f) of this section and the personal inquiry under (g) of this section, that the witness has a valid claim of privilege, the court shall enter its findings of fact and conclusions of law in a sealed, written order that explains the real or substantial danger that the proffer or testimony would support a conviction or would furnish a link in the chain of evidence leading to conviction for a crime. The attorney general may bring an immediate, interlocutory appeal of the court's decision to the court of appeals. The court issuing the order appealed under this section shall stay its proceeding while the appeal is pending.

* Sec. 18. AS 12.55.025 is amended by adding new subsections to read:

(k) If a defendant intends to claim credit under AS 12.55.027 toward a sentence of imprisonment for time spent in a treatment program as a condition of bail in connection with an offense for which the defendant is being sentenced, the defendant shall file notice with the court and the prosecutor 10 days before the sentencing hearing. The notice shall include the number of days the defendant is claiming. The defendant must prove by a preponderance of evidence that the requirements of AS 12.55.027 are met before credit may be awarded. Except as provided in (l) of this section, except for good cause, a court may not consider a request for credit made under this subsection more than 90 days after the sentencing hearing.

(d) If a defendant intends to claim credit under AS 12.55.027 toward a sentence of imprisonment for time spent in a treatment program as a condition of bail while pending appeal, the defendant shall file notice with the court and the prosecutor not later than 90 days after return of the case to the trial court following appeal. The notice shall include the number of days the defendant is claiming. (e) If a defendant intends to claim credit toward a sentence of imprisonment for time spent in a treatment program either as a condition of probation or as a condition of bail release after a petition to revoke probation has been filed, the defendant shall file notice with the court and the prosecutor 10 days before the disposition hearing. The notice shall include the amount of time the defendant is claiming. The defendant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the credit claimed meets the requirements of this section. A court may not consider, except for good cause, a request for credit made under this subsection more than 90 days after the disposition hearing.

* Sec. 20. AS 12.55.085(f) is amended to read:

section or under the equivalent provision of the laws of another jurisdiction.

* Sec. 21. AS 12.55.127 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

(e) If the defendant is being sentenced for two or more crimes of distribution of child pornography under AS 11.61.125, possession of child pornography under AS 11.61.127, or distribution of indecent material to minors under AS 11.61.128, a consecutive term of imprisonment shall be imposed for some additional term of imprisonment for each additional crime or each additional attempt or solicitation to commit the offense.

* Sec. 23. AS 12.55.175 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

(f) A defendant being sentenced for a sexual felony under AS 12.55.125(i) may not establish, nor may the three-judge panel find under (b) of this section or any other provision of law, that manifest injustice would result from imposition of a sentence within the presumptive range of law by a showing that the defendant, either singly or in combination,
