FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2014 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. CSSB108(JUD)

Analysis

The Committee Substitute for Senate Bill 108 (JUD) makes certain criminal case records confidential, and therefore not accessible to the general public. Specifically, criminal cases that are fully disposed via dismissal, acquittal, or a combination of dismissal and acquittal would be deemed confidential 90 days after the case is closed.

When a court case is confidential, the court system provides access to the case file only to the parties, the attorneys of record in the case, individuals with a written order from the court authorizing access, and court personnel for case processing purposes only, in accordance with Administrative Rule 37.5(c)(4). Cases that become confidential remain listed on the court's website in its case management system (CourtView), but the names of any party are removed, so that it is anonymous. Under SB 108, for any criminal case that is fully disposed via dismissal, acquittal, or a combination, the Court System would have 90 days to remove the names of the parties in the case from CourtView to make it anonymous, and would make the paper case file confidential.

The Court System can make these cases generally confidential without a fiscal impact, but the exceptions create specific access for agencies, which does carry a cost. The court system would need to create a unique portal, working with the CourtView vendor, and maintain that portal with security features. Creating the portal will cost an initial one-time fee of $22,000; each year the portal is in existence, we would have a cost of $3,000 for maintenance plus $500 for a SSL (security) fee.
