FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2014 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. HB 375

Analysis

This legislation repeals AS 11.46.350(b) and (c). Those provisions prescribe a limited privilege for trespassing upon private property under certain circumstances and also prescribe methods of notice and posting by landowners which negate that limited privilege.

By repealing those provisions, HB 375 would strengthen the criminal trespass law at AS 11.46.300-.330 and eliminate potential or possible defenses to a charge of criminal trespass based upon (b) and (c). The bill would impact the general public, landowners, prosecutors and defendants charged with criminal trespass.

This bill would not likely have any material impact upon OPA operations, administration or budget and therefore, OPA submits a zero fiscal note.
