

ACCA

Alaska Center for Children and Adults

Alaska Center for Children and Adults (ACCA, Inc.) is a 501(c)3 organization which has served children and adults who experience disabilities since 1956. ACCA serves communities in the Northern/Interior Regions of Alaska. Programs include:

- Infant Learning Program - Home and community based Education and Therapy services for more than 400 children in Copper River Basin, Delta Ft. Greeley, Fairbanks North Star Borough and North Slope Borough.
- Early Intervention for Young Children – Training for Mental Health providers and supports to Early Care and Learning Centers in the area of Early Childhood Mental Health.
- FACES FASD Diagnostic Team – Medical and Therapeutic evaluations leading to FASD diagnosis for children and youth from across the Northern/Interior region.
- Training Programs – Social skills opportunities for youth with disabilities, training for caregivers and providers related to FASD, language delay, adult communication disorders, infant mental health.
- Support Groups – Support to parents of children with Autism, FASD and Down Syndrome.
- Speech Clinic – Speech/Language Therapy and Cognitive Rehabilitation for adults with Brain Injury and Communication Disorders including dysfluency and hearing impairment.
- Technology User Group – Supports Speech Clinic clients in using and troubleshooting technological devices including iPods, iPads, iPhones, Prentke Romich devices, PC/Apple computers.
- Medical Equipment Loan Closet – Equipment includes wheelchairs, canes, walkers, crutches, knee walkers.

The main ACCA facility in Fairbanks has requested Capital Project Funding for a Facility Upgrade and Expansion project in FY2015. The existing facility is in need of upgrades such as remodeled entryway and ADA modifications. Expanded services in Fairbanks and rural regions have led to increased office and meeting space needs. For more information about this project, please see the Capital Funding Request or contact Susan Kessler, ACCA Executive Director, at the number listed below or by email at susan@acca-ilp.org

ACCA, Inc.

1020 Barnette Street
Fairbanks, Alaska 99701
(907)456-4003 phone
(907) 456-6124 fax
www.acca-ilp.org