HB 168 Sectional Analysis

Section 1. Redefines travel insurance.

Section 2. Adds a new section defining travel insurance, and who may transact travel insurance. Allows a person that transacts travel services the ability to sell those products under the direction of a person holding a travel insurance limited producer license. Requires a travel insurance limited lines producer to maintain a register of all persons selling insurance on their behalf, and to provide a training program. Limits the information that a person transacting travel insurance may provide, and may not provide to a customer. Makes a travel insurance limited producer liable for the acts of a person selling travel insurance on their behalf.
