3	limited lines credit insurance;
4	(7) miscellaneous limited producer license to a person who transacts
5	insurance in this state that restricts the person's authority to less than the total authority
6	for a line of authority described in AS 21.27.115(1) - (6), (8), and (9):
7	(8) portable electronics limited producer license to a vendor that 8	sells or offers portable electronics insurance as defined in AS 21.36.515; the 9	following provisions apply to a license issued under this paragraph:
10	(A) a vendor shall file with the director a sworn application
11	for a license under this paragraph on a form prescribed and furnished by 12	the director; the vendor shall provide the name, residence address,
13	location of the vendor's home office, and other information required by 14	the director for an employee or officer that is designated by the vendor as
15	the person responsible for the vendor's compliance with the requirements
16	of this chapter; however, if the vendor derives more than 50 percent of its 17	revenue from the sale of portable electronics insurance, the vendor shall
18	provide the information required under this subparagraph for all officers,
19	directors, and shareholders of record having beneficial ownership of 10
20	percent or more of any class of securities registered under the federal
21	securities law;
22	(B) a portable electronics limited producer license issued
23	under this paragraph must authorize the employees or authorized
24	representatives of a vendor to transact portable electronics insurance at 25	each location at which a vendor offers portable electronics to customers in 26	this state; and
27	(C) the employees or authorized representatives of the
28	vendor may transact portable electronics insurance and are not required
29	to obtain a limited producer license if 30	(i) the employees or authorized representatives are
31	not compensated based primarily on the number of customers

1	enrolled for coverage; however, an employee or authorized
2	representative may receive compensation for activities under the
3	license that is incidental to the employee's or authorized
4	representative's overall compensation;
5	(ii) the insurer issuing the portable electronics
6	insurance provides a training program for employees and
7	authorized representatives of the portable electronics limited
8	producer licensee that includes instruction about the portable
9	electronics insurance offered to customers and the disclosures
10	required under AS 21.36.515; and
11	(iii) the vendor maintains a register of each location
12	in the state where the vendor offers portable electronics insurance
13	and submits the register to the director within 30 days after the 14	director requests the register.
15	* Sec. 5. AS 21.36 is amended by adding a new section to article 5 to read:
16	Sec. 21.36.515. Portable electronics insurance. (a) Portable electronics
17	insurance may be offered, issued for delivery, issued, or renewed only if the insurer
18	makes available to customers written material stating
19	(1) a summary of the material terms of the insurance, including
20	(A) the identity of the insurer;
21	(B) the identity of the vendor offering or selling the portable
22	electronics insurance;
23	(C) the amount of the premium for coverage to be paid by the 24	customer;
25	(D) the period for which coverage is effective;
26	(E) deductible amounts, and how the deductible is to be paid;
27	(F) the benefits of the coverage;
28	(G) the process for filing a claim;
29	(H) requirements for returning a device to the vendor or
30	insurer, including related costs;
31	(I) proof-of-loss requirements;

- (2) whether the portable electronic device may be repaired or replaced by the insurer in response to a claim;
 - (3) whether similar make and model reconditioned devices or nonoriginal manufacturer parts and equipment may be used by the insurer in response to a claim;
- 6 (4) that the insurance offered may duplicate coverage in a 7 homeowner's, renter's, or other similar insurance policy;
- 8 (5) that the customer is not obligated to purchase insurance to 9 purchase, lease, or service a portable electronic device; and
- 10 (6) that the customer may cancel enrollment for coverage at any time 11 and receive a refund or credit based on a proration of the premium amount paid by the 12 customer for the period that coverage was effective.
- (b) The written materials required by this section are not subject to the requirements of AS 21.42.120.
- 15 (c) Portable electronics insurance may be offered on a month-to-month or 16 other periodic basis as a group or master policy issued to a vendor under which an 17 individual customer may elect to enroll for coverage. The insurer offering coverage 18 under a group or master policy shall establish eligibility and underwriting standards 19 for customers electing to enroll in coverage for each portable electronics insurance 20 program.

(d) Portable electronics insurance may be offered as commercial inland marine insurance.

23 (e) A premium for portable electronics insurance may be billed and collected 24 by the vendor of portable electronics. A charge to the customer for coverage that is not 25 included in the cost associated with the purchase or lease of portable electronics or 26 related services must be itemized separately from the charges for the purchase, lease, 27 or service of a portable electronic device. If the coverage is included with the purchase 28 or lease of portable electronics or related services, the vendor shall clearly and 29 conspicuously disclose to the consumer that the coverage is included with the portable 30 electronics or related services. Vendors collecting premiums for portable electronics 31 insurance are not required to maintain premiums in a segregated account if the vendor is authorized by the producer or insurer to hold premiums in an alternative manner and pays the premiums to the insurer within 60 days after receipt. Premiums received by a vendor from a customer purchasing portable electronics insurance shall be held in a fiduciary capacity for the benefit of the insurer. A vendor may receive compensation for billing and collection services.

6 (f) A portable electronics insurance policy may be changed or terminated as 7 follows:

8 (1) an insurer may cancel or change the terms and conditions of the 9 policy; the insurer shall provide the vendor and enrolled customers with at least 30 10 days' notice and shall provide the vendor with a revised policy or endorsement and 11 each enrolled customer with a revised certificate, endorsement, updated brochure, or 12 other evidence indicating that a change in the terms and conditions has occurred and a 13 summary of material changes;

(2) an insurer may, upon 15 days' notice, terminate an enrolled customer's enrollment under a portable electronics insurance policy for fraud or material misrepresentation in obtaining coverage or in the presentation of a claim under the terms of the policy;

18 (3) an insurer may, without prior notice, immediately terminate an 19 enrolled customer's enrollment under a portable electronics insurance policy

(A) for nonpayment of premium;

(B) if the enrolled customer ceases to have an active service contract with the vendor; or

(C) if an enrolled customer exhausts the aggregate limit of liability, if any, under the terms of the portable electronics insurance policy and the insurer sends notice of termination to the enrolled customer within 30 calendar days after exhaustion of the limit; however, if notice is not sent within 30 calendar days, enrollment shall continue, notwithstanding the exhaustion of the aggregate limit of liability, until the insurer sends notice of termination to the and the enrolled customer.

30 (4) if a portable electronics insurance policy is terminated by a vendor, 31 the vendor shall mail or deliver written notice to each enrolled customer advising the enrolled customer of the termination of the policy and the effective date of termination; the written notice shall be mailed or delivered to the enrolled customer at least 30 days before the termination.

(5) if a policy of portable electronics insurance is terminated by an insurer or a vendor, the insurer or vendor shall, within 60 days after termination, return any unearned premium to the person who paid the premium.

(6) if notice or correspondence with respect to a policy of portable electronics insurance is required under this section or is otherwise required by law, the notice or correspondence must be in writing; notices and correspondence may be sent either by mail or by electronic means as follows:

(A) if the notice or correspondence is mailed, it shall be sent to the vendor of portable electronics at the vendor's mailing address specified for that purpose and to the vendor's affected enrolled customers' last known mailing addresses on file with the insurer; the insurer or vendor of portable electronics shall maintain proof of mailing in a form authorized or accepted by the United States Postal Service or other commercial mail delivery service;

17 (B) if the notice or correspondence is sent by electronic means, 18 it shall be sent to the vendor of portable electronics at the vendor's electronic 19 mail address specified for that purpose and to the vendor's affected enrolled 20 customers' last known electronic mail addresses as provided by each enrolled 21 customer to the insurer or vendor of portable electronics; for purposes of this 22 subparagraph, an enrolled customer's provision of an electronic mail address to 23 the insurer or vendor of portable electronics shall be considered consent to 24 receive notices and correspondence electronically; the insurer or vendor of 25 portable electronics shall maintain proof that the notice or correspondence was 26 sent.

27 (7) notice or correspondence required by this section or otherwise 28 required by law may be sent on behalf of an insurer or vendor by a producer appointed 29 by the insurer.

30 (g) A portable electronics insurance policy must provide that, in the event of a 31 covered loss under more than one policy, the portable electronics policy will provide
