11 (f) The supreme court may, in its discretion, review a final decision of the 12 Military Appeals Commission under AS 26.05.540 for which a sentence of

1 confinement is imposed, the right to appeal to the Military Appeals Commission under 2 AS 26.05.525 or 26.05.538 has been exhausted, and a petition for review is filed under 3 AS 26.05.540.

4 * Sec. 2. AS 26.05.140(a) is amended to read:

5 (a) Members of the militia ordered into active service for the state by order of 6 the governor are not liable civilly [OR CRIMINALLY] for any act done by them in 7 their official capacity while in [THIS] such service. If a suit is commenced in a court 8 against an officer or enlisted person of the militia as a result of an act done by the 9 officer or enlisted person in an official capacity while in active service, the defendant
10 may require the person instituting the suit to give security for the payment of costs. If 11 judgment is for the defendant, treble costs shall be assessed against the plaintiff. The 12 defendant in the action shall be defended by the attorney general at the expense of the 13 state but the defendant may employ private counsel. Nothing in this subsection

19 (1) an individual account for each retired member of the system that 20 records the benefits paid under this system to the member or surviving beneficiary;

21 (2) a separate account for the Department of Military and Veterans' 22 Affairs' contribution to fund the system based on the actuarial requirements of the 23 system as established by the commissioner of administration under AS 26.05.222 -
24 26.05.229 [THIS CHAPTER];

25 (3) an expense account for the system; this account is charged with all 26 disbursements representing administrative expenses incurred by the system; 27 expenditures from this account are included in the governor's budget for each fiscal 28 year.

29 * Sec. 4. AS 26.05 is amended by adding new sections to read:

30 Article 2. Code of Military Justice.

31 Sec. 26.05.380. Regulations; adopting military justice procedures and

1 nonjudicial punishment. (a) The adjutant general shall adopt regulations consistent 2 with this chapter for members of the militia. The regulations must be approved by the 3 governor.

4 (b) The regulations adopted under this section must

5 (1) provide for nonjudicial punishment; the regulations for nonjudicial
6 punishment may not provide for confinement or separation from military service;

7 (2) as the adjutant general and the governor consider practicable, apply
8 the principles of law and the rules of evidence and procedure governing military 9 criminal cases in the courts of the armed forces of the United States, but may not be 10 contrary to or inconsistent with this chapter or the applicable Alaska Rules of 11 Evidence;

12 (3) include rules of pretrial, trial, and post-trial procedure, including 13 methods of proof, for cases before courts-martial and courts of inquiry.

14 (c) The regulations adopted under this section are exempt from AS 44.62
15 (Administrative Procedure Act).

16 Sec. 26.05.400. Statement of policy on military justice. Courts-martial have 17 primary jurisdiction over offenses under this chapter, except when an act or omission
18 violates both this chapter and local criminal law, foreign or domestic. In that case, a 19 court-martial may be initiated only after a civilian authority has declined to prosecute
20 or dismissed the charge, provided jeopardy has not attached. Jurisdiction over 21 attempted crimes, conspiracy crimes, solicitation, and accessory crimes must be 22 determined by the underlying offense. These jurisdictional requirements do not apply 23 to nonjudicial punishment or administrative action taken by military authorities.

24 Sec. 26.05.403. Persons subject to military courts; jurisdiction. The code of 25 military justice applies to a member of the militia at all times, except when a member 26 of the militia is

27 (1) in active federal service under 10 U.S.C. (Armed Forces); or 28 (2) outside the state and not in active duty status.

29 Sec. 26.05.405. Jurisdiction to try certain personnel. (a) A person
30 discharged from the militia of the state who is later charged with having fraudulently 31 obtained a discharge is subject to trial by court-martial on that charge and is, after

1 apprehension, subject to the code of military justice while in custody under the 2 direction of the militia of the state for the trial. Upon conviction of the charge, the 3 person is subject to trial by court-martial for an offense under this chapter that is 4 committed before the fraudulent discharge.

5 (b) A person who has deserted from the militia of the state may not be relieved 6 from amenability to jurisdiction under the code of military justice by virtue of a 7 separation from a later period of service.

8 Sec. 26.05.408. Territorial applicability. (a) The code of military justice 9 applies to a member of the militia accused of or charged with an offense under this 10 chapter that is committed outside the state if the member is in active state service 11 under this chapter and is serving outside the state at the time the offense is committed.

12 (b) Courts-martial may be convened and held in units of the militia of the state
13 while those units are serving outside the state with the same jurisdiction and powers 14 granted under the code of military justice as if the proceedings were held inside the 15 state. Offenses under this chapter committed by members of the militia outside the 16 state may be tried and punished either inside or outside the state.

17 Sec. 26.05.410. Judge advocates. (a) The senior force judge advocate of each 18 force of militia of the state, or the delegate of the senior force judge advocate, shall 19 make frequent inspections in the field in supervision of the administration of military 20 justice in the force.

21 (b) A convening authority shall communicate directly with the authority's
22 judge advocates in matters relating to the administration of military justice. The judge 23 advocate of a command is entitled to communicate directly with the judge advocate of 24 a superior or subordinate command or with the State Judge Advocate.

25 (c) A person who has acted as member, military judge, trial counsel, defense
26 counsel, or investigating officer, or who has been a witness in a case may not later act 27 as a judge advocate to an authority reviewing the same case.

28 (d) A person may not serve as a judge advocate under the code of military 29 justice unless the person is a commissioned officer of the organized militia of a state
30 or of an active or reserve component of the armed forces or another uniformed service 31 of the United States, is a member in good standing of the bar of the highest court of a state, and is

(1) certified or designated as a judge advocate in the Judge Advocate General's Corps of the United States Army, Air Force, Navy, or the Marine Corps or designated as a law specialist as an officer of the United States Coast Guard, or a reserve component of one of them; or

(2) certified as a nonfederally recognized judge advocate, under the code of military justice, by the senior judge advocate of the commander of the force in the component of the militia of the state of which the accused is a member, as competent to perform the military justice duties required by the code of military justice; if a judge advocate is not available, the certification may be made by the senior judge advocate of the commander of another force in the militia of the state, as the convening authority directs.

Sec. 26.05.420. Apprehension. (a) A member of the militia or a person authorized under 10 U.S.C. 801 - 946 or the code of military justice to apprehend persons subject to the code of military justice, a marshal of a court-martial, and a peace officer or civil officer having authority to apprehend offenders under the laws of the United States or of a state may apprehend a person subject to the code of military justice upon probable cause that an offense under this chapter has been committed and that the person apprehended committed the offense.

(b) Commissioned officers, warrant officers, petty officers, and noncommissioned officers have authority to suppress disorder or mutual combat among members of the militia and to apprehend a person who participates in the disorder or mutual combat.

(c) If an offender is apprehended outside the state, the offender's return to the area must be in accordance with applicable extradition procedures, if any, or by reciprocal agreement.

(d) A person authorized by this section to apprehend, restrain, or confine persons subject to the code of military justice may not require payment of a fee for apprehending, restraining, or confining a person except as otherwise provided by law.

Sec. 26.05.423. Imposition of restraint. (a) An enlisted member of the militia may be arrested or confined by an oral or written order issued by a commissioned officer or another member of the militia of the state acting at the commissioned officer's direction. A commanding officer may authorize warrant officers, petty officers, or noncommissioned officers to order enlisted members of the commanding officer's command or subject to the commanding officer's authority into arrest or confinement.

(b) A commissioned or warrant officer may be arrested or confined only by a commanding officer who has authority over the commissioned or warrant officer. The commanding officer shall deliver the order orally or in writing, in person or by another commissioned officer. A commanding officer may not delegate the authority granted in this subsection.

(c) A person may not be arrested or confined unless the officer issuing the order for arrest or confinement has probable cause to believe that an offense under this chapter has been committed and that the person has committed the offense.

(d) This section does not limit the authority of persons authorized to apprehend offenders to secure the custody of an alleged offender until proper authority may be notified.

Sec. 26.05.425. Restraint of persons charged with offenses. (a) Except as provided in (b) of this section, a person charged with an offense under this chapter may be arrested or confined as circumstances may require. A person arrested or confined before trial is entitled to prompt notice of the offense of which the person is accused.

(b) A person subject to the code of military justice who is charged with a minor offense normally tried by a summary court-martial or subject to nonjudicial punishment under the code of military justice may not be placed in confinement.

(c) When a person subject to the code of military justice is placed in confinement before summary court-martial or nonjudicial punishment, the person shall be conditionally released pending disposition of the charges.

Sec. 26.05.428. Place of confinement; reports and receiving of prisoners. (a) A person confined as a prisoner under the code of military justice shall be confined in a civilian or military confinement facility.

(b) Unless otherwise authorized by law, a person authorized to receive a prisoner under (a) of this section may not refuse to receive or keep the prisoner committed to the person's charge by a commissioned officer of the militia of the state if the officer furnishes the person with a statement signed by the officer identifying the offense charged against the prisoner.

(c) A person authorized to receive a prisoner under (a) of this section shall, within 24 hours after receiving the statement of commitment under (b) of this section, or as soon as the person is relieved from guard, report to the commanding officer of the prisoner the name of the prisoner, the offense charged against the prisoner, and the name of the person who ordered or authorized the commitment.

Sec. 26.05.430. Delivery of offenders to a civil authority. (a) A person accused of a criminal offense against a civil authority may be delivered, upon request, to a civil authority for trial or confinement.

(b) When a sentence imposed in a court-martial proceeding under the code of military justice is interrupted by the delivery of the offender to a civil authority under this section, and the offender is later convicted and sentenced by the civil authority, competent military authority shall request the civil authority to return the offender to the custody of the military authority for completion of the sentence imposed by court-martial.

(c) The adjutant general, with the approval of the governor, may enter into an agreement with a civil authority to ensure the return of an offender under this section.

Sec. 26.05.433. Courts-martial classified. The military courts for the militia of the state are

(1) a general court-martial, consisting of

(A) a military judge, not fewer than five members, and not fewer than one alternate member; or

(B) only a military judge, if, before the court is assembled, the accused, knowing the identity of the military judge and after consultation with defense counsel, requests orally on the record or in writing a court composed of only a military judge and the military judge approves;

(2) a special court-martial, consisting of

(A) a military judge, not fewer than three members, and not fewer than one alternate member; or

(B) only a military judge, if one has been detailed to the court, and the accused so requests under the conditions prescribed in (1)(B) of this section; and

(3) a summary court-martial, consisting of one commissioned officer.

Sec. 26.05.435. Jurisdiction of courts-martial in general. Each force of the militia of the state in active military service has court-martial jurisdiction over all members of the militia. The exercise of jurisdiction by one force over personnel of another force must be in accordance with the code of military justice.

Sec. 26.05.438. Jurisdiction of a general court-martial. Subject to AS 26.05.435, a general court-martial has jurisdiction to try a member of the militia for an offense under this chapter and may impose a punishment not forbidden by the code of military justice.

Sec. 26.05.440. Jurisdiction of a special court-martial. Subject to AS 26.05.435, a special court-martial has jurisdiction to try a member of the militia for an offense under this chapter and may impose a punishment not forbidden by the code of military justice, other than dishonorable discharge, dismissal, confinement for more than one year, forfeiture of pay exceeding two-thirds pay a month, or forfeiture of pay for more than one year.

Sec. 26.05.443. Jurisdiction of a summary court-martial. (a) Subject to AS 26.05.435, a summary court-martial has jurisdiction to try a member of the militia except officers, cadets, candidates, and midshipmen for an offense under this chapter.

(b) A person over whom a summary court-martial has jurisdiction may not be brought to trial before a summary court-martial if the person objects.

(c) If a person accused of an offense under this chapter objects to a summary court-martial under (b) of this section, the person may be ordered tried by special or general court-martial, as appropriate.

(d) A summary court-martial may, under the limitations as the governor may prescribe, impose a punishment not forbidden by the code of military justice, other than dismissal, dishonorable or bad-conduct discharge, confinement for more than one month, restriction to specified limits for more than two months, or forfeiture of more than two-thirds of one month's pay.

Sec. 26.05.444. Grand jury requirement. (a) A general court-martial in which confinement of more than one year is sought may not be convened until a grand jury of the state has returned a true bill indicating that there is probable cause to believe that the accused member of the militia committed the offense or offenses at issue.

(b) The general court-martial convening authority shall designate one or more judge advocates to represent the authority at the grand jury, except that at the request of the adjutant general, and with the consent of the attorney general, an attorney from the Department of Law may represent the convening authority at the grand jury.

Sec. 26.05.445. Venue for grand jury and court-martial. The venue for convening a court-martial, trial, preliminary hearing, and presentation of charges to a state grand jury shall be determined at the discretion of the appropriate court-martial convening authority.

Sec. 26.05.446. Who may convene a general court-martial. (a) A general court-martial may be convened by

- (1) the governor;
- (2) the adjutant general;
- (3) the commanding officer of a force of the militia of the state;
- (4) the commanding officer of a division or a separate brigade;
- (5) the commanding officer of a separate wing.

(b) If a commanding officer who is authorized to convene a general court-martial is the accuser in a matter, the court hearing the matter shall be convened by superior competent authority.

(c) A superior authority may convene a case if the superior authority considers it desirable.

Sec. 26.05.448. Who may convene a special court-martial. (a) A special court-martial may be convened by

- (1) a person who may convene a general court-martial;
- (2) the commanding officer of a garrison, fort, post, camp, station, Air National Guard base, or naval base or station;

(3) the commanding officer of a brigade, regiment, detached battalion, or corresponding unit of the United States Army;

(4) the commanding officer of a wing, group, separate squadron, or corresponding unit of the United States Air Force; or

(5) a commanding officer or officer in charge of any other command when empowered to do so by the adjutant general.

(b) If an officer who is authorized to convene a special court-martial is the accuser in the matter, the court hearing the matter shall be convened by superior competent authority.

(c) A superior authority may convene a case if the superior authority considers it desirable.

Sec. 26.05.450. Who may convene a summary court-martial. (a) A summary court-martial may be convened by

(1) a person who may convene a general or special court-martial;

(2) the commanding officer of a detached company or other detachment or the commanding officer of a corresponding unit of the United States Army;

(3) the commanding officer of a detached squadron or other detachment or the commanding officer of a corresponding unit of the United States Air Force; or

(4) the commanding officer or officer in charge of any other command when empowered to do so by the adjutant general.

(b) If only one commissioned officer is present with a command or detachment, that officer shall be the summary court-martial of that command or detachment and shall hear and determine all summary court-martial cases.

(c) A superior competent authority may convene a summary court-martial if the superior authority considers it desirable.

Sec. 26.05.452. Who may serve on courts-martial. (a) A commissioned officer of the militia of a state or of an active duty component of the armed forces of the United States is eligible to serve on a general, special, or summary court-martial for the trial of a member of the militia.

1 (b) A warrant officer of the militia of a state or of an active duty component of 2 the armed forces of the United States is eligible to serve on a general or special court-
3 martial for the trial of any person, other than a commissioned officer.

4 (c) An enlisted member of the militia of the state who is not a member of the 5 same unit as the accused is eligible to serve on a general or special court-martial for 6 the trial of an enlisted member, but only if the accused has, before the conclusion of a 7 session of the court-martial called by the military judge, personally requested, orally 8 on the record or in writing, that enlisted members serve on the court-martial.

9 (d) After a request is made under (c) of this section, the accused may not be 10 tried by a general or special court-martial unless enlisted members make up at least 11 one-third of the total membership of the court. If eligible enlisted members are not 12 available because of physical conditions or military exigencies, the court may proceed
13 to try the accused without enlisted members, but the convening authority shall place 14 on the record a detailed written explanation of why eligible enlisted members were not 15 available.

16 (e) The accused may not be tried by a court-martial that includes a member 17 who is junior in rank or grade to the accused, unless the inclusion cannot be avoided.

18 (f) When convening a court-martial, the convening authority shall detail the 19 members of the militia of a state or of an active duty component of the armed forces of 20 the United States who are, in the convening authority's opinion, the best qualified for 21 the duty by reason of age, education, training, experience, length of service, and 22 judicial temperament. A person is not eligible to serve as a member of a general or 23 special court-martial if the person is the accuser, is a witness, or has acted as 24 investigating officer or as counsel in the same case.

25 (g) Before a court-martial is assembled for the trial of a case, the convening 26 authority may excuse a member of the court from participating in the case. The 27 convening authority may delegate the authority under this subsection to a judge 28 advocate or to a principal assistant.

29 Sec. 26.05.453. Military judge of a general or special court-martial. (a) A 30 senior force judge advocate who is in the same force as the accused, or a designee,
31 shall detail a military judge to a general and special court-martial. The military judge

1 shall preside over an open session of the court-martial to which the military judge has 2 been detailed.

3 (b) A military judge must be

4 (1) an active or retired commissioned officer of the militia of a state or 5 of an active or reserve component of the armed forces or another uniformed service of 6 the United States;

7 (2) licensed to practice law in a state or a member of the bar of a
8 federal court for at least five years;

9 (3) certified as qualified for duty as a military judge by a senior force 10 judge advocate who is in the same force as the accused.

11 (c) The convening authority or a staff member of the convening authority may 12 not prepare or review a report concerning the effectiveness, fitness, or efficiency of the 13 military judge detailed to the case that relates to performance of duty as a military 14 judge.

15 (d) A person may not act as military judge in a case if that person is the 16 accuser or a witness or has acted as investigating officer or counsel in the same case.

17 (e) The military judge of a court-martial may not consult with the members of 18 the court except in the presence of the accused, trial counsel, and defense counsel, or 19 vote with the members of the court-martial.

20 Sec. 26.05.455. Detail of trial counsel and defense counsel. (a) For each 21 general and special court-martial, the convening authority shall detail trial counsel, 22 defense counsel, and assistants, as appropriate.

23 (b) A person who has acted as investigating officer, military judge, witness, or 24 court member in a case may not act as trial counsel, assistant trial counsel, or, unless 25 expressly requested by the accused, defense counsel or assistant or associate defense 26 counsel in the case.

27 (c) A person who has acted for the prosecution may not act in the same case
28 for the defense. A person who has acted for the defense may not act in the same case 29 for the prosecution.

30 (d) Trial counsel or defense counsel detailed in a general or special court-31 martial must be

(1) a judge advocate, or, if serving as defense counsel, otherwise certified by the senior force judge advocate; and

(2) admitted to the practice of law in this state or otherwise permitted to appear in an action in the courts of this state.

Sec. 26.05.458. Detail or employment of reporters and interpreters. (a) The convening authority of a general or special court-martial shall detail or employ qualified court reporters, who shall record the proceedings of and testimony taken before that court and may detail or employ interpreters to interpret for the court.

(b) A person may not act as a reporter or interpreter under this section in a case if the person is the accuser, a witness, an investigating officer, counsel for a party, or, if the trial is a rehearing, a member of a prior court-martial in the same case.

Sec. 26.05.460. Absent and additional members. (a) A member of a general or special court-martial may not be absent or excused after the court has been assembled for the trial of the accused unless the member is excused

(1) as a result of a challenge; or

(2) for good cause by the military judge or by order of the convening authority.

(b) If a general court-martial, other than a general court-martial composed of only a military judge, is reduced below five members, the military judge shall assign an available alternate member to the general court-martial to restore the court to five members. The trial may not proceed if a general court-martial, other than a general court-martial composed of only a military judge, is reduced below five members and no alternate is available for assignment.

(c) If a special court-martial, other than a special court-martial composed of only a military judge, is reduced below three members, the military judge shall assign an alternate member to the special court-martial to restore the court to three members. The trial may not proceed if a special court-martial, other than a special court-martial composed of only a military judge, is reduced below three members and no alternate is available for assignment.

(d) If the military judge of a court-martial composed of only a military judge is unable to proceed with a trial because of a challenge or for other good cause, the

1 senior force judge advocate shall detail a new military judge. The trial shall proceed as 2 if no evidence had previously been introduced, unless a verbatim record of the 3 evidence previously introduced or a written stipulation of the evidence is read in court 4 in the presence of the new military judge, the accused, and counsel for both sides.

5 Sec. 26.05.463. Charges and specifications. (a) Charges and specifications
6 must be signed by a member of the militia under oath before a commissioned officer
7 authorized by AS 26.05.545 to administer oaths. The charges and specifications must 8 state

9 (1) that the signer has personal knowledge of, or has investigated, the 10 facts set out in the charges and specifications;

11 (2) that the charges and specifications are true in fact to the best of the 12 signer's knowledge and belief.

13 (b) The person proffering the charges and specifications shall present them to 14 the proper authority. The proper authority receiving the charges and specifications 15 shall immediately determine the disposition of the charges in the interest of justice and 16 discipline, and the person accused shall be informed of the charges as soon as 17 practicable.

18 Sec. 26.05.465. Compulsory self-incrimination prohibited. (a) A member of 19 the militia may not compel a person to make a self-incriminating statement or to 20 answer a question if the answer may incriminate the person.

21 (b) A member of the militia may not interrogate or request a statement from a 22 person suspected of an offense under this chapter without first informing the person of 23 the nature of the accusation and advising the person that the person does not have to 24 make any statement regarding the offense of which the person is accused or suspected 25 and that any statement made by the person may be used as evidence against the person 26 in a trial by court-martial.

27 (c) A member of the militia may not compel a person to make a statement or 28 produce evidence before a military court if the statement or evidence is not material to 29 the issue before the court and may tend to degrade the person.

30 (d) A statement obtained from a person in violation of this section or through 31 the use of coercion, unlawful influence, or unlawful inducement may not be admitted into evidence against the person in a trial by court-martial.

Sec. 26.05.468. Investigation; preliminary hearing. (a) A charge or specification may not be referred to a general court-martial for trial until an investigating officer makes a thorough and impartial investigation of all the matters set out in the charge or specification. The investigating officer shall inquire into the truth of the matters set out in the charges, consider the form of the charges, and recommend a disposition of the case in the interest of justice and discipline.

(b) The accused has the right to be represented by counsel at an investigation. If the accused requests the appointment of military counsel, the investigating officer shall refer the request to the senior force judge advocate, who shall promptly detail defense counsel to represent the accused at the investigation. Defense counsel detailed under this section shall meet the criteria for counsel under AS 26.05.455(d).

(c) In cases where there has been no grand jury proceeding on a charge or no grand jury proceeding is required, the authority investigating the accused shall

(1) advise the accused of the charges against the accused and of the accused's right to be represented by counsel under (b) of this section;

(2) give the accused the opportunity to cross-examine witnesses against the accused, if the witnesses are available; a victim of an offense under AS 26.05.593, 26.05.620, 26.05.621, or 26.05.622 may not be required to testify at a preliminary hearing; a victim of an offense under AS 26.05.593, 26.05.620, 26.05.621, or 26.05.622 who declines to testify is considered unavailable for the purposes of the preliminary hearing;

(3) give the accused the opportunity to present evidence on the accused's own behalf, either in defense or mitigation relevant to the limited purposes of the hearing; the investigating officer shall examine available witnesses requested by the accused.

(d) The presentation of evidence and examination of witnesses at a preliminary hearing, including cross-examination, shall be limited to matters relevant to the limited purposes of the hearing.

(e) If, after the investigation, the charges are referred to the court-martial, the investigating officer shall prepare a statement of the charges and the substance of the testimony taken, and a copy shall be given to the accused.

(f) If an investigation of an offense under this chapter is conducted before the accused is charged with the offense and the accused is present at the investigation and provided with counsel and an opportunity to cross-examine witnesses and present evidence under (c) of this section, no further investigation of that charge is necessary under this section unless the accused demands further investigation after the accused is informed of the charge. A demand for further investigation entitles the accused to recall witnesses for further cross-examination and to offer new evidence in the accused's own behalf.

(g) If evidence adduced in an investigation under this section indicates that the accused committed an uncharged offense, the investigating officer may investigate the subject matter of that offense without the accused's having first been charged with an offense under this chapter if the accused is

- (1) present at the investigation;
- (2) informed of the nature of each uncharged offense investigated; and
- (3) provided with counsel and an opportunity to cross-examine witnesses and present evidence under (c) of this section.

(h) In this section, "victim" means a person who is alleged to have suffered a direct physical, emotional, or pecuniary harm as a result of the matters set out in a charge or specification being considered and who is named in a specification being considered.

Sec. 26.05.470. Forwarding of charges. (a) When a person is held for trial by general court-martial, the commanding officer shall, within eight days after the accused is ordered into arrest or confinement, if practicable, forward the charges, together with the investigation and associated records, to the person exercising general court-martial jurisdiction.

(b) If it is not practicable to forward the charges and investigation and associated records under (a) of this section, the commanding officer shall provide the person with a written explanation for the delay.

Sec. 26.05.473. Advice of judge advocate and reference for trial. (a) Before directing the trial of a charge by general court-martial, the convening authority shall refer it to a judge advocate for consideration and advice. The convening authority may not refer a specification under a charge to a general court-martial for trial unless the convening authority has been advised in writing by a judge advocate that

- (1) the specification alleges an offense under this chapter;
- (2) the specification is warranted by the evidence set out in the report of investigation under AS 26.05.468, if there is a report; and
- (3) a court-martial has jurisdiction over the accused and the offense.

(b) The advice of the judge advocate under (a) of this section with respect to a specification under a charge shall include a written and signed statement by the judge advocate

(1) stating the judge advocate's conclusions with respect to each matter set out in (a) of this section; and

(2) recommending to the convening authority what action to take regarding the specification; if the specification is referred for trial, the recommendation of the judge advocate must accompany the specification.

(c) If a charge or specification is not in the correct form or does not conform to the substance of the evidence set out in the investigating officer's report, the convening authority, with the advice of the judge advocate, may correct the charge or specification to conform to the evidence.

Sec. 26.05.475. Service of charges. A trial counsel shall serve or cause to be served on the accused a copy of the charges. A person may not, against the person's objection, be brought to trial before a general court-martial within five days after the service of charges on the person, or before a special court-martial within three days after the service of charges on the person.

Sec. 26.05.478. Unlawfully influencing the action of a court. (a) An authority convening a general, special, or summary court-martial, a commanding officer, or an officer serving on the staff of a convening authority or commanding officer may not censure, reprimand, or admonish the court, a member of the court, the military judge, or counsel appearing before the court, with respect to the findings of or sentence imposed by the court, or with respect to another exercise of the respective functions of the court, a member of the court, the military judge, or counsel appearing before the court in the conduct of the proceedings.

(b) A member of the militia may not attempt to coerce or, by unauthorized means, influence the action of a court-martial or a member of a court, in reaching the findings or sentence in a case, or the action of a convening, approving, or reviewing authority with respect to a judicial act. This subsection does not apply to

(1) general instructional or informational courses in military justice if the courses are designed solely for the purpose of instructing members of a command in the substantive and procedural aspects of courts-martial; or

(2) statements and instructions given in open court by the military judge, summary court-martial officer, or counsel.

(c) A member of the militia may not, in the preparation of an effectiveness, fitness, or efficiency report, or any other report or document used, in whole or in part, for the purpose of determining whether a member of the militia of the state is qualified to be advanced in grade, in determining the assignment or transfer of a member of the militia of the state, or in determining whether a member of the militia of the state should be retained on active status,

(1) consider or evaluate the performance of duty of the member as a member of a court-martial or witness; or

(2) give a less favorable rating or evaluation of any counsel for the accused because of zealous representation before a court-martial.

(d) In this section, "unauthorized" means contrary to a statute or regulation of the United States or the state.

Sec. 26.05.480. Continuances. The military judge of a general, special, or summary court-martial may, for reasonable cause, grant a continuance to a party for the time, and as often, as justice requires.

Sec. 26.05.483. Oaths or affirmations. (a) Before performing their respective duties, military judges, general and special court-martial members, trial counsel, defense counsel, reporters, and interpreters shall take an oath or affirmation in the presence of the accused that they will perform their duties faithfully.

(b) The form of the oath or affirmation, the time and place of taking, the manner of recording, and a determination of whether the oath or affirmation shall be

1 taken for all cases in which the duties are to be performed or for a particular case, shall 2 be prescribed by rules of procedure. The rules may provide that, if a person takes an 3 oath or affirmation with respect to a duty, the person need not take the oath or 4 affirmation again on detailment to the duty.

5 (c) A witness before a court-martial shall be examined under oath or 6 affirmation.

7 Sec. 26.05.485. Statute of limitations. (a) A person charged with an offense
8 under this chapter may not be tried or punished for the offense unless the person
9 received sworn charges and specifications issued by an officer exercising court-martial 10 jurisdiction over the command not later than three years after the commission of the 11 offense or before the imposition of nonjudicial punishment for the offense under the 12 code of military justice.

13 (b) A period when the accused is absent without authority or fleeing from 14 justice shall be excluded in computing the period of limitation in this section.

15 (c) A period when the accused is absent from territory in which the proper 16 authority has the ability to apprehend the accused, in the custody of civil authorities,
17 or in the hands of the enemy, shall be excluded in computing the period of limitation 18 in this section.

19 (d) When the United States is at war or engaged in contingency operations
20 ordered by the President of the United States, and those operations actually prevented 21 the discovery of the offending behavior or the timely bringing of charges, as 22 determined by a military judge at court-martial, the running of a period of limitation 23 for an offense under this chapter is suspended until two years after the termination of 24 hostilities as proclaimed by the President of the United States or by a joint resolution
25 of the United States Congress if the offense

26 (1) involves fraud or attempted fraud against the United States, a state, 27 or an agency of either, including a conspiracy to commit fraud;

28 (2) is committed in connection with the acquisition, care, handling,
29 custody, control, or disposition of real or personal property of the United States or a 30 state; or

31 (3) is committed in connection with the negotiation, procurement, award, performance, payment, interim financing, cancellation, or other termination or settlement, of a contract, subcontract, or purchase order that is connected with or related to the prosecution of the war, or with the disposition of inventory by a war contractor or government agency.

(e) If charges or specifications are dismissed as defective or insufficient for any cause, and the period prescribed by the applicable statute of limitations has expired or will expire within 180 days after the date of dismissal of the charges and specifications, trial and punishment under new charges and specifications are not barred by the statute of limitations if the new charges and specifications

(1) are received by an officer exercising summary court-martial jurisdiction over the command within 180 days after the dismissal of the charges or specifications;

(2) allege the same acts or omissions that were alleged in the dismissed charges or specifications or acts or omissions that were included in the dismissed charges or specifications.

Sec. 26.05.488. Former jeopardy. Former jeopardy protections provided to a member of the militia are equivalent to those provided under art. 1, sec. 9, Constitution of the State of Alaska, and under the Double Jeopardy Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

Sec. 26.05.490. Pleas of the accused. (a) If, after arraignment, an accused makes an irregular pleading or, after a plea of guilty, initiates an action inconsistent with the plea, or if the accused appears to have entered the plea of guilty improvidently or through lack of understanding of its meaning and effect, or if the accused fails or refuses to plead, a plea of not guilty shall be entered in the record, and the court shall proceed as though the accused had pleaded not guilty.

(b) With respect to a charge or specification to which a plea of guilty has been made by the accused and accepted by the military judge or by a court-martial without a military judge, a finding of guilty of the charge or specification may be entered immediately without vote. This finding shall constitute the finding of the court unless the plea of guilty is withdrawn before announcement of the sentence, in which event, the proceedings shall continue as though the accused had pleaded not guilty.

1 Sec. 26.05.493. Subpoena; process of military courts. (a) A military judge,
2 the president of a court-martial, or a summary court-martial officer may issue
3 subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum for the attendance of witnesses and production
4 of books and records, if the courts are sitting within the state and the witnesses, books,
5 and records sought are located in the state. A subpoena may be served by a person
6 designated by the military judge, the president of the court-martial, or summary court-7 martial officer.

8 (b) If a person who is not a member of the militia of the state fails to comply 9 with a subpoena issued under this section, the military judge, president of the court-10 martial, or summary court-martial officer may apply to a state court for an order to 11 compel obedience by proceedings for contempt as if the subpoena had been issued by 12 a court. The military judge, president of the court-martial, or summary court-martial 13 officer may request the attorney general to bring the action.

14 (c) A person who is not a member of the militia, who has been subpoenaed to 15 appear as a witness or to produce books and records before a court-martial or before a 16 military or civil officer designated to take a deposition to be read in evidence before a 17 court-martial, who has been paid or tendered the fees and mileage of a witness at the 18 rates allowed to witnesses attending a criminal court of the state, and who wilfully 19 neglects or refuses to appear or refuses to qualify as a witness or to testify or to 20 produce evidence that the person may have been legally subpoenaed to produce is 21 guilty of a violation and may be charged and punished as provided in AS 12.55.

22 Sec. 26.05.495. Contempt. (a) A military judge or summary court-martial
23 officer may punish for contempt a person who uses a menacing word, sign, or gesture 24 in its presence, or who disturbs its proceedings by any riot or disorder.

25 (b) A military judge or summary court-martial officer may punish a member 26 of the militia for contempt by confinement not to exceed 30 days or a fine of $100, or 27 both.

28 (c) A military judge or summary court-martial officer may punish a person 29 who is not a member of the militia for direct contempt in an amount not to exceed 30 $100.

31 Sec. 26.05.498. Defense of insanity. (a) The accused may assert the

1 affirmative defense of insanity as provided in AS 12.47.010. If the accused gives
2 notice of the defense, the accused shall file with the military judge the notice required
3 by AS 12.47.090.

4 (b) If the accused asserts the defense of insanity under (a) of this section, the 5 court shall order an examination to be conducted that meets the standards of 6 AS 12.47.070.

7 (c) If the defense of insanity is properly at issue, the military judge shall 8 instruct the members of the court as to the defense and charge them to find the accused

9 (1) guilty;

10 (2) not guilty; or

11 (3) not guilty by reason of insanity.

12 (d) The accused may be found not guilty by reason of insanity if

13 (1) a majority of the members of the court-martial present at the time 14 the vote is taken determines that the defense of insanity has been established; or 15 (2) in the case of a court-martial composed of a military judge or a 16 summary court-martial officer sitting without court members, the military judge or 17 summary court-martial officer determines that the defense of insanity has been 18 established.

19 (e) In the case of a court-martial composed of a military judge or a summary 20 court-martial officer sitting without court members, if the defense of insanity is 21 properly at issue, the military judge or summary court-martial officer shall find the 22 accused

23 (1) guilty;

24 (2) not guilty; or

25 (3) not guilty by reason of insanity.

26 (f) If an accused is found not guilty by reason of insanity, trial counsel shall,
27 within 24 hours, file a petition under AS 47.30.700 for a screening investigation to 28 determine the need for treatment if trial counsel has good cause to believe that the 29 defendant is suffering from a mental illness and, as a result, is gravely disabled or 30 likely to cause serious harm to self or others. In this subsection, "mental illness" has 31 the meaning given in AS 47.30.915.

1 Sec. 26.05.500. Lack of mental capacity or mental responsibility;
2 commitment of accused for examination and treatment. (a) An accused who, as a
3 result of a mental disease or defect that renders the accused incompetent to the extent 4 that the accused is unable to understand the nature of the proceedings or to conduct or 5 cooperate intelligently in the defense of the case, may not be tried, convicted, or 6 sentenced for an offense under this chapter as long as the incompetency exists.

7 (b) If trial counsel or defense counsel has reason to believe that the accused is 8 unable to understand the nature of the proceedings or to conduct or cooperate 9 intelligently in the defense of the case, counsel may file a motion with the military 10 judge assigned to the case for a determination of the competency of the accused. Upon 11 the motion, or on the judge's own motion, the court shall order an examination to be 12 conducted and make a determination in accordance with the requirements of 13 AS 12.47.100. If the military judge determines that the accused must be committed for 14 the purpose of examination, and the accused is not otherwise subject to commitment
15 under AS 47.30.700 - 47.30.915, the military judge shall order the convening authority 16 to seek the assistance of the attorney general in seeking a commitment under 17 AS 12.47.100.

18 (c) If the military court determines that the accused is incompetent to stand
19 trial and the accused is not otherwise subject to commitment under AS 47.30.700 - 20 47.30.915, the military judge shall order the convening authority to seek the assistance
21 of the attorney general in seeking a commitment under AS 12.47.110.

22 (d) If, at the end of a period of commitment under (b) and (c) of this section, it 23 is determined that the accused's mental condition has not improved so as to permit the 24 trial to proceed, the charges shall be dismissed without prejudice, and continued 25 commitment proceedings shall be governed by the provisions relating to civil 26 commitment under AS 47.30.700 - 47.30.915. If the accused remains incompetent for 27 five years after the charges have been dismissed under this subsection, the accused 28 may not be charged again for an offense under this chapter arising out of the facts 29 alleged in the original charges.

30 (e) When the custodian of an accused person hospitalized under (c) of this 31 section determines that the person has recovered to the extent that the accused is able

1 to understand the nature of the proceedings against the accused and to conduct or 2 cooperate intelligently in the defense of the case, the custodian shall promptly transmit 3 a notification of the determination to the general court-martial convening authority for 4 the accused and trial and defense counsel.

5 (f) Upon receipt of the notice, the convening authority shall promptly take 6 custody of the accused unless the accused is no longer a member of the militia.

7 (g) If the accused remains a member of the militia, the military judge detailed 8 to the case shall conduct the hearing required under AS 12.47.120. If the judge finds 9 the accused competent, the court-martial shall be assembled.

10 (h) The custodian of the accused person may retain custody of the person for 11 not more than 30 days after transmitting the notifications required under (e) of this 12 section.

13 (i) If, during a period of commitment under this section, the accused is no 14 longer a member of the militia, the convening authority shall promptly notify the 15 custodian and the attorney general; the custodian and the attorney general may take 16 what further action may be appropriate.

17 Sec. 26.05.503. Voting and rulings. (a) Voting by members of a general or 18 special court-martial on the findings and on the sentence shall be by secret written 19 ballot. The junior member of the court shall count the votes. The count shall be 20 checked by the president, who shall immediately announce the result of the ballot to 21 the members of the court.

22 (b) The military judge shall rule on all questions of law and all interlocutory
23 questions arising during the proceedings. A ruling made by the military judge on a 24 question of law or an interlocutory question, other than the factual issue of mental 25 responsibility of the accused, is final and constitutes the ruling of the court. However,
26 the military judge may change the ruling at any time during the trial. Unless the ruling 27 is final, if a member objects to a ruling, the court shall be cleared and closed, and the 28 question shall be decided by a voice vote as provided in AS 26.05.505, beginning with 29 the junior in rank.

30 (c) Before a vote is taken on the findings, the military judge shall, in the 31 presence of the accused and counsel, instruct the members of the court as to the elements of the offense under this chapter and charge them that

(1) the accused is presumed to be innocent until the guilt of the accused is established by legal and competent evidence beyond a reasonable doubt;

(2) if there is a reasonable doubt as to the guilt of the accused, the doubt must be resolved in favor of the accused, and the accused must be acquitted;

(3) if there is a reasonable doubt as to the degree of guilt, a finding of guilt must be in a lower degree as to which there is no reasonable doubt; and

(4) the burden of proof to establish the guilt of the accused beyond a reasonable doubt is on the state.

(d) A military judge sitting without court members shall

(1) determine all questions of law and fact arising during the proceedings and, if the accused is convicted, adjudge an appropriate sentence;

(2) make a general finding and shall, in addition, on request, find the facts specially.

(e) If a military judge sitting without court members files an opinion or memorandum of decision, the opinion or memorandum of decision is sufficient if the findings of fact appear in the opinion or memorandum of decision.

Sec. 26.05.505. Number of votes required. (a) A person may not be convicted of an offense under this chapter that is tried by a court-martial unless by the unanimous verdict of the members of the court present at the time the vote is taken.

(b) All other questions to be decided by the members of a general or special court-martial shall be determined by a majority vote, but a determination to reconsider a finding of guilty or to reconsider a sentence, with a view toward decreasing it, may be made by any lesser vote that indicates that the reconsideration is not opposed by the number of votes required for that finding or sentence. A tie vote on a challenge disqualifies the member challenged. A tie vote on any other question is a determination in favor of the accused.

Sec. 26.05.508. Record of trial. (a) Each general and special court-martial shall keep a separate record of the proceedings in each case brought before it, and the record must be authenticated by the signature of the military judge. If the military judge cannot authenticate the record because of the military judge's death, disability, or absence, the record shall be authenticated by the signature of the trial counsel or, if the trial counsel is unable to authenticate the record because of the trial counsel's death, disability, or absence, then by the signature of a member of the court. In a court-martial consisting of only a military judge, the record shall be authenticated by the court reporter under the same conditions that would impose a duty on a member under this subsection.

(b) In each general and special court-martial case resulting in a conviction, a complete verbatim record of the proceedings and testimony shall be prepared. In all other court-martial cases, the record shall contain the matters as may be prescribed by rules of procedure.

(c) Each summary court-martial shall keep a separate record of the proceedings in each case, and the record shall be authenticated in the manner as may be prescribed by rules of procedure.

(d) A copy of the record of the proceedings of each general and special court-martial shall be given to the accused as soon as the record is authenticated.

Sec. 26.05.510. Cruel and unusual punishments prohibited. A court-martial may not impose on a member of the militia punishment by flogging, branding, marking, or tattooing on the body, or another cruel or unusual punishment. The use of irons, single or double, except for the purpose of safe custody, is prohibited.

Sec. 26.05.513. Punishments; maximum limits. (a) A court-martial may not impose a punishment that exceeds the limits set out in the code of military justice and may not impose a sentence of death. A sentence of confinement imposed under this chapter may not exceed 10 years. An offense under this chapter for which a sentence of confinement for a term of more than one year is imposed is a felony offense. Except for convictions by a summary court-martial and except as otherwise specifically provided in the code of military justice, all other offenses under this chapter for which a sentence of confinement for a term of one year or less is imposed are misdemeanors. A conviction by a summary court-martial is a violation.

(b) A nonjudicial punishment may not include a sentence of confinement or separation from military service.

Sec. 26.05.515. Deferment of sentences. (a) If an accused is under sentence to 1 confinement that has not yet been ordered executed, the convening authority or, if the 2 accused is no longer under the convening authority's jurisdiction, the person exercising 3 general court-martial jurisdiction over the command to which the accused is currently 4 detailed may, in that person's sole discretion, defer service of the sentence to 5 confinement. The deferment terminates when the sentence is ordered to be executed.

6 The deferment may be rescinded at any time by the authority who granted it or, if the 7 accused is no longer under that person's jurisdiction, by the person exercising general 8 court-martial jurisdiction over the command to which the accused is currently detailed.

9 (b) If a court-martial sentences an accused to confinement, the convening
10 authority may, without the consent of the accused, defer the service of the sentence
11 until after the accused has been permanently released to the militia of the state by a 12 state, the United States, or a foreign country

13 (1) that had custody of the accused;

14 (2) that temporarily returned the accused to the militia of the state for 15 trial by court-martial; and

16 (3) to which, after the court-martial, the militia of the state returned the 17 accused under the authority of a mutual agreement or treaty.

18 (c) In a case in which a court-martial sentences an accused to confinement and 19 the sentence to confinement has been ordered executed, but in which review of the 20 case under AS 26.05.525, 26.05.538, or 26.05.540 is pending, the adjutant general 21 may defer further service of the sentence to confinement while that review is pending.

22 (d) In (b) of this section, "state" includes the District of Columbia and any 23 commonwealth, territory, or possession of the United States.

24 Sec. 26.05.518. Execution of confinement. A person must serve a sentence of 25 confinement imposed by a court-martial, whether or not the sentence includes 26 discharge or dismissal from the militia of the state, and whether or not the discharge or 27 dismissal has been executed. The sentence may be carried into execution by 28 confinement in a place authorized by the code of military justice. A person confined 29 under the code of military justice is subject to the same discipline and treatment as 30 other persons confined or committed to the place of confinement.

31 Sec. 26.05.520. Error of law; lesser included offense. (a) A finding or

1 sentence of a court-martial may not be held incorrect on the ground of an error of law
2 unless the error materially prejudices the substantial rights of the accused.

3 (b) A reviewing authority authorized under the code of military justice to 4 approve or affirm a finding of guilt may approve or affirm, instead, so much of the 5 finding as includes a lesser included offense under this chapter.

6 Sec. 26.05.523. Withdrawal of appeal. In a case subject to appellate review 7 under the code of military justice, the accused may, at any time, file with the 8 convening authority a written statement expressly withdrawing the right of the accused
9 to the appeal. The withdrawal shall be signed by both the accused and the accused's 10 defense counsel and filed in accordance with rules of procedure.

11 Sec. 26.05.525. Appeal by the state. (a) In a trial by court-martial in which a 12 punitive discharge may be imposed, the state may appeal to the Military Appeals
13 Commission established under this chapter

14 (1) an order or ruling of the military judge that terminates the 15 proceedings with respect to a charge or specification;

16 (2) an order or ruling that excludes evidence that is substantial proof of 17 a fact material in the proceeding;

18 (3) an order or ruling that directs the disclosure of classified
19 information;

20 (4) an order or ruling that imposes sanctions for nondisclosure of 21 classified information;

22 (5) the refusal of the military judge to issue a protective order sought
23 by the prosecution to prevent the disclosure of classified information;

24 (6) the refusal of the military judge to enforce an order issued under 25 (a)(5) of this section that was previously issued by an appropriate authority.

26 (b) An appeal of an order or ruling may not be taken unless the trial counsel
27 provides the military judge with written notice of appeal from the order or ruling 28 within 72 hours after the order or ruling. The notice must include a certification by the 29 trial counsel that the appeal is not taken for the purpose of delay and, if the order or 30 ruling appealed is one that excludes evidence, that the evidence excluded is substantial 31 proof of a fact material in the proceeding.

1 (c) An appeal under this section shall be forwarded to the Military Appeals
2 Commission under AS 26.05.538. In ruling on the appeal, the Military Appeals
3 Commission may act only with respect to matters of law.

4 (d) A period of delay resulting from an appeal under this section shall be 5 excluded in deciding an issue involving the denial of a speedy trial, unless an 6 appropriate authority determines that the appeal was filed solely for the purpose of 7 delay with the knowledge that it was totally frivolous and without merit.

8 (e) The state may not appeal a finding of not guilty with respect to a charge or 9 specification by the members of the court-martial, or by a judge in a bench trial if the 10 finding was not made on reconsideration.

11 Sec. 26.05.528. Vacation of suspension. (a) A probationer serving a period of 12 probation under a sentence suspended by a special court-martial that, as approved, 13 includes a bad-conduct discharge, or a suspended general court-martial sentence, is 14 entitled to a hearing before the suspension is vacated. The probationer shall be 15 represented at the hearing by military counsel if the probationer requests 16 representation.

17 (b) If the suspended sentence was imposed by a special court-martial, the 18 officer having special court-martial jurisdiction over the probationer shall hold a 19 hearing on the alleged violation of probation. The record of the hearing and the 20 recommendation of the officer having special court-martial jurisdiction shall be sent 21 for action to the officer exercising general court-martial jurisdiction over the 22 probationer. If the officer vacates the suspension, the unexecuted part of the sentence, 23 except a dismissal, shall be executed, subject to applicable restrictions in the code of 24 military justice.

25 (c) The suspension of another sentence may be vacated by an authority for the 26 command in which the accused is serving or detailed who is competent to convene a 27 court of the kind that imposed the sentence.

28 Sec. 26.05.530. Petition for a new trial. At any time within two years after 29 approval by the convening authority of a court-martial sentence, the accused may 30 petition the adjutant general for a new trial on the grounds of newly discovered 31 evidence or fraud on the court-martial.

1 Sec. 26.05.533. Restoration. (a) All rights, privileges, and property affected
2 by an executed part of a court-martial sentence that has been set aside or disapproved, 3 except an executed dismissal or discharge, shall be restored unless a new trial or 4 rehearing is ordered and the executed part is included in a sentence imposed on the 5 new trial or rehearing.

6 (b) If a previously executed sentence of dishonorable or bad-conduct 7 discharge is not imposed on a new trial, the governor may substitute an administrative 8 form of discharge unless the accused is to serve out the remainder of the accused's 9 enlistment.

10 (c) If a previously executed sentence of dismissal is not imposed on a new 11 trial, the governor may substitute an administrative form of discharge, and a 12 commissioned officer dismissed under the original sentence may be reappointed by the 13 governor alone to the commissioned grade and rank that, in the opinion of the 14 governor, the former officer would have attained had the officer not been dismissed.
15 The reappointment of the former officer shall be without regard to the existence of a 16 vacancy and shall affect the promotion status of other officers only to the extent the 17 governor may direct. The time between the dismissal and the reappointment shall be 18 considered as actual service for all purposes, including the right to pay and 19 allowances.

20 Sec. 26.05.535. Leave required to be taken pending review of court-
21 martial convictions. In accordance with rules adopted under AS 26.05.380, an
