Unclaimed Property

Millions of unclaimed assets are in Alaska waiting to be claimed. These include, but are not limited to, stocks, bonds, mutual funds, bank accounts, uncashed payroll checks, utility deposits, traveler's checks, and contents from deposit boxes. Click the link below to start your free search.

Suggestions for locating unclaimed property

- Search the only legitimate, free, multi-state website.
- There is a link on missingmoney.com to every state's unclaimed property office. If you have lived in a state that does not list their information on the website, go to the map on the website and click on that state.
- If you locate your name, contact that state's unclaimed property office or file a claim online.
