FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2015 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. HB 11

Analysis

The Sponsor Substitute for House Bill 11 prohibits the state from publishing certain court records on the internet. Specifically, criminal cases that are fully disposed via dismissal, acquittal, or a combination of dismissal and acquittal would not be on the internet after 60 days have elapsed from the date the case was disposed.

SSHB 11 also includes legislative intent that the Court System would, to the extent practicable, remove the criminal cases described in section 2 of the bill from its publicly-accessible internet website.

The Court System anticipates that it can make these changes without a fiscal impact. The Court's administrative staff will identify cases that are closed in the way the bill describes, and remove them from the court's public website after 60 days. The Court System also anticipates that, generally, it will be able to remove from its website criminal cases that were disposed by a dismissal, acquittal, or a combination of dismissal and acquittal before the effective date of the bill, as contemplated by the legislative intent. The Court System therefore submits this zero fiscal note.
