Cost for Sign-and-Sale events

When the print/poster are delivered in time for the holidays, we hold sign-and-sale events in Anchorage and Fairbanks at our respective depots, and typically in a public location in the small community featured in the artwork.

- Facility Rentals – Typically the railroad does not have much of an expense here, as we use our depots and/or community spaces that have low to no rental fee.
- Air Fare Anchorage-Fairbanks for Artist and Staff member $800
- Food for staff manning the event and for the artist $100
- Total Sign-and-Sale Costs $900

Publicity Costs

Advertisements in Anchorage, Fairbanks and small community newspaper

Alaska Dispatch – 2 ads $2,000

Fairbanks Daily News Miner – 2 ads $800

Frontiersman – 2 ads $900

Total Advertising $3,700

PR Agency Time to Promote on Social Media $1,000

Total Publicity Costs $4,700

Hard costs total about $20,000 annually

Revenue Generation

ARRC Ticket window and Gift Shops in Fairbanks and Anchorage sell the print, poster and pin year-round with the big push during the holidays and summer during daily passenger season. Depending on the artwork, some years sell better than others.

- Prints sell for $55 each
- Posters sell for $30 each
- Pins sell for $5 each

Note: the Gift Shop also order other merchandise featuring the artwork (ornaments, coasters, mugs, T-shirts, etc.) that sell pretty well during the holidays and summer season.

Revenues in 2015:

Amounts below include sales of prints/posters from previous years.

- Gift Shop gross sales for prints / posters was about $21,000
- Ticket Window poster/print sales was about $2,000

Bottom line: Annual revenues of $20,000 - $23,000 generally cover the hard costs of our Annual Art Print/Poster program in addition to some of the staff time.
