FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2016 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. SB165

Analysis

The Committee Substitute (Labor & Commerce) for Senate Bill 165 revises the laws in Title 4 concerning persons under the age of 21 who are not authorized to be on premises where alcohol is sold (section 8) and minors who possess, control, or consume alcoholic beverages (section 9). These offenses would be re-characterized as violations, with a set fine of $500. After being sentenced, the minor may complete certain alcohol safety programs and thereby have his or her fine reduced to $50 by the court. Further, SB 165 directs the court not to post the records of minors charged with these offenses n CourtView, if the offense was separately charged (section 11).

This bill will change the ways the court processes "minor consuming" cases, but will not result in a fiscal impact. The court system can readily create a means for excepting these cases from the usual practice of posting cases on CourtView. The court can also process the violations in a regular court hearing, and can track the cases appropriately so that a minor may return to court for a fine reduction, as applicable.

The court system therefore submits this zero fiscal note.
