(2) may, if the weapon is suitable for law enforcement purposes, training, or identification, retain the weapon for use by the Department of Public Safety or transfer the weapon to the municipal law enforcement agency making the arrest that led to the forfeiture;

(3) shall destroy a weapon that is unsafe or unlawful.

* Sec. 12. AS 12.36.060(c) is amended to read:

(c) A firearm or ammunition forfeited to the state under AS 12.36.300 - 12.36.700 [AS 12.55.015(a)(9), UNLESS REMITTED UNDER AS 12.36.050,] shall be disposed of as provided in AS 18.65.340.

* Sec. 13. AS 12.36 is amended by adding new sections to read:

Article 03. Forfeiture.

Sec. 12.36.300. Property subject to forfeiture. (a) A person's property is subject to forfeiture to the state if the

(1) person is arrested for an offense listed in AS 12.36.320;

(2) person is convicted of the offense; and

(3) state establishes beyond a reasonable doubt that the property is subject to forfeiture under (b) of this section.

(b) Following conviction for an offense listed in AS 12.36.320, a court may order a person to forfeit

(1) property the person acquired through commission of the offense;

(2) property directly traceable to property acquired through the commission of the offense;

(3) any instrumentality the person used in the commission of the offense;

(4) any item set out in AS 04.16.220, AS 17.30.110, AS 43.50.620, or 43.50.625.

(c) Nothing in this section prevents property from being forfeited by the terms of a plea agreement that is approved by a court or by other agreement of the parties to a criminal proceeding.

(d) Except as provided in (e) of this section, at any time, at the request of the state, a court may issue a preliminary order to seize property that is subject to forfeiture and for which forfeiture is sought and to provide for the custody of the property. Before granting an order to seize property under this subsection, the court shall give any putative interest holder in the property the right to be heard with regard to the seizure. The execution on the order to seize the property and the return of the property, if applicable, are subject to this chapter and other state laws. Before issuing an order under this subsection, the court shall make a finding that

(1) there is a substantial probability that the

(A) property is subject to forfeiture;

(B) state will prevail on the issue of forfeiture; and

(C) failure to enter the order will result in the property being destroyed, removed from the state, or otherwise made unavailable for forfeiture; and

(2) the need to preserve the availability of the property through the entry of the requested order outweighs the hardship to the owner and other parties known to be claiming interests in the property.

(e) Property subject to forfeiture under this section may be seized at any time, without a prior court order, if the law enforcement officer making the seizure has probable cause to believe the property is subject to forfeiture and that the delay occasioned by the need to obtain a court order would result in the removal or destruction of the property or otherwise frustrate the seizure.

Sec. 12.36.320. Offenses subject to forfeiture. (a) Forfeiture to the state is permitted following the conviction of a criminal offense under

(1) AS 04.11.010, 04.11.499, 04.11.501, or an ordinance adopted

under AS 04.11.501;

(2) AS 04.16.205;

(3) AS 04.21.060;

(4) AS 08.54;

(5) AS 11.41, AS 11.46, AS 11.56, or AS 11.61, if a deadly weapon was in the actual possession of or used by the defendant during the commission of the offense;

(6) AS 11.41.410 - 11.41.458, as set out in AS 11.41.468;

(7) AS 11.46.460, 11.46.462, or 11.46.484(a)(5), if personal property, other than a motor vehicle, is used in aid of the offense;

(8) AS 11.61.123 - 11.61.128, as set out in AS 11.61.129;

(9) AS 11.61.140;

(10) AS 11.66.100(c) or 11.66.110 - 11.66.135, as set out in AS 11.66.145;

(11) AS 11.66.200 - 11.66.280, as set out in AS 11.66.270;

(12) AS 11.71;

(13) AS 11.73;

(14) AS 16.05;

(15) AS 16.43.140(a), as set out in AS 16.43.970(g);

(16) an ordinance adopted under AS 28.01.015;

(17) AS 28.15.291;

(18) AS 28.35.030 or 28.35.032;

(19) AS 43.50.640;

(20) any applicable law if a motor vehicle, weapon, electronic communication device, or money or other valuable was used in or obtained through an offense that was committed for the benefit of, at the direction of, or in association with a criminal street gang; or

(21) any applicable law if a deadly weapon was in the actual possession of or used by the defendant during the commission of a crime involving domestic violence.

(b) In this section,

(1) "criminal street gang" has the meaning given in AS 11.81.900;

(2) "deadly weapon" has the meaning given in AS 11.81.900.

Sec. 12.36.350. Seizure of property; motion for return of property. (a)

When a law enforcement officer seizes property that is subject to forfeiture to the state, the officer shall provide an itemized receipt to the person possessing the property or, in the absence of a person to whom the receipt could be given, shall leave the receipt in the place where the property was found, if possible.

(b) Following the seizure of property, the defendant in the related criminal matter or another person who claims an interest in seized property may, not later than 60 days before a related criminal trial, claim an interest in seized property or request return of seized property by a motion to the court. A motion filed under this subsection must include facts to support the person's alleged interest in the property.

(c) If a person makes a timely motion under this section, the court shall hold a hearing on the motion within 30 days of the date on which the motion is filed, or before the resolution of any related criminal matter or forfeiture proceeding, whichever is earlier.

(d) At least 10 days before a hearing on a motion filed under this section, the state shall file an answer or responsive motion that shows probable cause for the seizure.

(e) A court shall grant a claimant's motion if the court finds that

(1) it is likely that the final judgment will require the state to return the property to the claimant; and

(2) the property is not reasonably required to be held for investigatory reasons.

(f) In its discretion, the court may order the return of funds or property sufficient to obtain legal counsel but less than the total amount seized, and the court may require an accounting.

(g) In lieu of ordering the return of funds or property, a court may order

(1) the state to give security or written assurance for satisfaction of any judgment, including damages, that may be rendered in a related forfeiture action; or

(2) any other relief the court considers to be just.

1 (h) When a claimant is not represented by an attorney, any inculpatory
2 statements made or inculpatory evidence presented to support the claim in a motion or 3 during a hearing under this section may not be admitted as evidence against the 4 claimant in a subsequent criminal proceeding.

5 Sec. 12.36.400. Ancillary forfeiture. (a) Within 30 days after making a 6 seizure of property or simultaneously upon filing a related criminal indictment, the 7 state shall file a complaint of ancillary forfeiture proceedings or return the property to 8 the person from whom it was seized. A complaint of ancillary forfeiture proceedings
9 shall include the following:

- 10 (1) a description of the property seized;
11 (2) the date and place of seizure of the property;
12 (3) the name and address of the law enforcement agency making the 13 seizure;
14 (4) the specific statutory and factual grounds for the seizure;
15 (5) whether the property was seized under an order of seizure or 16 forfeiture, and, if the property was seized without an order of seizure or forfeiture, an 17 affidavit from a law enforcement officer stating the legal and factual grounds for why 18 an order of seizure or forfeiture was not required; and 19 (6) in the complaint caption and in the complaint, the names of persons
20 known to the state who may claim an interest in the property and the basis for each 21 person's alleged interest.

22 (b) The complaint shall be served on the person from whom the property was 23 seized, the person's attorney of record, and all persons known or reasonably believed 24 by the state to claim an interest in the property. If some or all of those persons cannot 25 be served, a copy of the complaint must also be published at least three times in a 26 newspaper of general circulation in the district of the court having jurisdiction until the 27 forfeiture proceeding is resolved.

28 Sec. 12.36.450. Forfeiture proceedings. (a) A person who claims an interest
29 in seized property shall file an answer to the complaint of forfeiture within 30 days
30 after the date of service of the complaint. The answer shall include facts to support the 31 claimant's alleged interest in the property.

(b) Jurisdiction and venue for a forfeiture proceeding are in the same court in which jurisdiction and venue lie for the criminal matter related to the seized property.

(c) A forfeiture proceeding shall begin after the conclusion of the trial for the related criminal matter in an ancillary proceeding that relates to a defendant's property before the same judge and jury, if applicable, and the court, and the jury, if applicable, may consider the forfeiture of property seized from other persons at the same time or in a later proceeding. If the criminal defendant in the related criminal matter is represented by a public defender, conflict counsel, or other appointed counsel for indigent defendants, representation of the defendant shall continue through the forfeiture proceeding.

(d) Discovery conducted in an ancillary forfeiture proceeding is subject to the Alaska Rules of Criminal Procedure.

(e) An ancillary forfeiture proceeding that relates to the forfeiture of property valued at less than $20,000 shall be held before a court sitting without a jury.

(f) If the state fails to prove, beyond a reasonable doubt, that a person from whom property is seized is an owner of the property,

(1) the forfeiture proceeding shall be dismissed and the property shall be delivered to the owner, unless the owner is unknown or the owner's possession of the property is illegal; and

(2) the owner is not subject to any charges by the state for storage of the property or expenses incurred in the preservation of the property.

(g) The court shall enter a judgment of forfeiture, and the seized property shall be forfeited to the state, if the state proves beyond a reasonable doubt that the

(1) property is subject to forfeiture;

(2) criminal prosecution of the owner of the seized property resulted in a conviction; and

(3) value of the property to be forfeited does not unreasonably exceed the

(A) pecuniary gain derived or sought to be derived by the offense;

(B) pecuniary loss caused or sought to be caused by the offense; or

(C) value of the convicted owner's interest in the property.

(h) Within 90 days of a judgment entered under (g) of this section, the person whose property was forfeited may petition the court to determine whether the forfeiture was unconstitutionally excessive or disproportionate under the state or federal constitution. At a hearing on the petition, the petitioner has the burden of establishing by a preponderance of the evidence that the forfeiture was disproportionate to the seriousness of the criminal offense for which the person was convicted. The hearing shall be held before a court sitting without a jury. In determining whether the forfeiture is unconstitutionally excessive or disproportionate under this subsection, the court may consider all relevant factors, including

(1) the seriousness of the criminal offense and of its effect on the community, the duration of the criminal activity, and the harm caused by the defendant;

(2) the extent to which the defendant participated in the offense;

(3) the extent to which the property was used in committing the offense;

(4) the sentence imposed for the commission of the offense that relates to the property that is subject to forfeiture; and

(5) whether the criminal offense was completed or attempted.

(i) The court may not consider the value of the property to the state when it determines whether the forfeiture of property is unconstitutionally excessive or disproportionate under (h) of this section.

(j) In determining the value of property subject to forfeiture, the court may consider relevant factors, including the

(1) fair market value of the property;

(2) value of the property to the defendant, including hardship that the defendant will suffer if the forfeiture is realized; and

(3) hardship from the loss of a primary residence, motor vehicle, or other property to the defendant's family members or others if the property is forfeited.

Sec. 12.36.460. Plea agreements and forfeiture. A court may not accept a

1 plea agreement or other arrangement by which a defendant contributes or donates
2 property to a person, charity, or other organization. This provision does not apply to 3 restitution or other compensation under other state law for victims of crimes.

4 Sec. 12.36.475. Forfeiture of substitute property. Following a person's 5 conviction, the state may make a motion for forfeiture of substitute property owned by 6 the person that is equal to but does not exceed the value of property that is subject to 7 forfeiture but that the state is unable to seize. The court shall order the forfeiture of 8 substitute property only if the state proves beyond a reasonable doubt that the person 9 intentionally transferred, sold, or deposited property with a third party to avoid the 10 court's jurisdiction and the forfeiture of the property, and the substitute property is 11 owned in full by the convicted person.

12 Sec. 12.36.490. Joint and several liability prohibited. A person is not jointly 13 and severally liable for orders for forfeiture of another person's property. When 14 ownership of property is unclear, a court may order each person to forfeit the person's 15 property on a pro rata basis or by another means the court considers to be equitable.

16 Sec. 12.36.520. Appeal. A party to a forfeiture proceeding under this chapter 17 may appeal an order regarding the seizure, forfeiture, or distribution of property under 18 AS 22.07.020 or AS 22.15.240.

19 Sec. 12.36.550. Forfeited property. (a) The state acquires provisional title to 20 seized property at the time the property was used or acquired in connection with an 21 offense that subjects the property to forfeiture. Provisional title authorizes the state to 22 hold and protect the property. Title to the property vests with the state when a trier of 23 fact renders a final forfeiture verdict, and the title relates back to the time when the 24 state acquired provisional title, if the title is subject to claims by third parties that are 25 adjudicated under this chapter.

26 (b) Unless possession of the property is illegal, or a different disposition is 27 specifically provided for by law, except as provided in this section, forfeited property
28 that is not currency shall be delivered along with any abandoned property to the state
29 treasurer for disposition at a public auction. All forfeited currency and all sale 30 proceeds of the sale of forfeited or abandoned property shall be deposited in the 31 general fund.

(c) Proceeds from the sale of forfeited property received by the state from another jurisdiction shall be deposited in the general fund. If federal law prohibits compliance with this section, law enforcement agencies may not seek forfeited property or proceeds from the sale of forfeited property shared or transferred under federal law.

(d) A property interest forfeited to the state under AS 12.36.300 - 12.36.700 is subject to the interest of a secured party, unless, in the forfeiture proceeding, the state proves beyond a reasonable doubt that the secured party consented to the use of the property with knowledge that it would be used in connection with the offense that relates to the seizure of the property.

Sec. 12.36.580. Innocent owner. (a) The property of an innocent owner may not be forfeited to the state.

(b) A person is an innocent owner if the person

(1) holds a legal right, title, or interest in the property seized and held the ownership interest in the seized property at the time the illegal conduct that gave rise to the seizure of the property occurred; or

(2) was a bona fide purchaser for fair value.

(c) A person claiming to be an innocent owner has the burden to prove the facts set out in (b) of this section.

(d) The state shall return property immediately to an established innocent owner who has an interest in homesteaded property, a motor vehicle valued at less than $10,000, or a conveyance that is encumbered by a security interest that was perfected under state law or that is subject to a lease or rental agreement, unless the secured party or lessor consented to the use of the property with knowledge that it would be used for a purpose for which forfeiture is permitted.

(e) If a person establishes that the person is an innocent owner under this section, and the state pursues a forfeiture proceeding against the person's property, the state shall prove by clear and convincing evidence that the innocent owner consented to the use of the property with knowledge that it would be used for a purpose for which forfeiture is permitted.

(f) A person who acquired an ownership interest in property subject to

1 forfeiture after the commission of an offense that gave rise to the forfeiture, and who
2 claims to be an innocent owner, has the burden of production to show that the person
3 is an innocent owner under (b) of this section.

4 (g) If a person establishes that the person is an innocent owner under (f) of this 5 section, and the state pursues a forfeiture proceeding against the person's property, the 6 state shall prove by clear and convincing evidence that, at the time the person acquired 7 the property, the person had

8 (1) actual knowledge that the property was subject to forfeiture; or 9 (2) notice of a defect in title.

10 (h) If the state fails to meet its burdens as provided in (e) and (g) of this 11 section, the court shall find that the person is an innocent owner and shall order the 12 state to relinquish all claims of title to the innocent owner's property.

13 Sec. 12.36.600. Seized property. (a) Seized currency alleged to be subject to 14 forfeiture shall be deposited with the clerk of the court in an interest-bearing account.

15 (b) Seized property, other than currency or real property, that is not required
16 by federal or state law to be destroyed shall be

17 (1) placed under seal and removed to a place designated by the court;

18 or

19 (2) held in the custody of a law enforcement agency.

20 (c) Seized property shall be kept by the custodian in a manner to protect it
21 from theft or damage and, if ordered by the court, insured against those risks.

22 (d) A law enforcement agency may not retain forfeited or abandoned property.

23 Sec. 12.36.610. Annual report. (a) Every law enforcement agency that 24 engaged in seizures or forfeitures in the previous year shall prepare an annual report of 25 the agency's seizures and forfeitures conducted under AS 12.36.300 - 12.36.700 and 26 under federal forfeiture law, and the report must include the following:

27 (1) the total number of seizures of currency and the total amount of 28 currency seized in each seizure;

29 (2) the total number of seizures of property and the number and types
30 of items seized in each seizure;

31 (3) the market value of each item of seized property;

(4) aggregate demographic information about the persons whose property has been seized or forfeited, including race, ethnicity, and sex; and

(5) the total number of occurrences of each class of offenses that resulted in the agency's seizure of property.

(b) A law enforcement agency shall submit its annual report to the Department of Public Safety and to the district attorney's office in the law enforcement agency's district. A law enforcement agency that did not engage in seizure or forfeiture under AS 12.36.300 - 12.36.700 or federal forfeiture law, or both, shall report that fact in its annual report.

(c) The Department of Public Safety shall compile the reports submitted by each law enforcement agency and issue an aggregate report of all forfeitures in the state.

(d) By April 1 of each year, the Department of Public Safety shall publish on its Internet website the department's aggregate report and individual law enforcement agency reports submitted for the previous year.

19 least five days before the date of the intended transfer as stated in the notice required

23 that the transfer will not circumvent the protections provided under AS 12.36.300 - 24 12.36.700 or that would otherwise be available to a putative interest holder in the 25 property and that the transfer is actually necessary for an active criminal case or 26 criminal investigation brought by the federal government.
