

Construct for Democratic Action[®]

Democracy

Politics

Dialogue

Deliberation

Action for Change

By sharing needs and values, trusting relationships form and create the awareness of common interests.

Common interests are transformed into common cause through information informed analysis and choice making.

Common cause provides the basis for organizing action to achieve community, organizational and social change.

Bill Hall

arlothall@gmail.com

907-748-3216