FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2015 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. HB005

Analysis

The bill will provide a larger pool of individuals, related to the protected person, who may be appointed by the court as his or her conservator. This will provide greater flexibility and choice of conservators. However, expanding the number of individuals exempt from prohibition from appointment as conservator may increase the number of vulnerable adults who become victims of financial abuse and exploitation. The bill may expand the opportunity for service providers to act as conservators. Allowing additional service providers to become conservators to their clients may increase the potential for conflict of interest and abuse.

The fiscal impact to the Division of Senior and Disabilities Services is indeterminate. The increase in the number of conservators with conflicts of interest may result in an increase in the number of Adult Protection investigations of financial exploitation. However, the Division does not have the data to determine the number of Conservators who will be granted exception to AS13.26.210(b).
