MARY K. HUGHES

Ms. Hughes is an active member of the Alaskan community. She has served as a member of the Board of Regents of the University of Alaska since 2002 and as a Trustee of the University of Alaska Foundation since 1990. She also is the chief executive of her family's foundation, The John C. Hughes Foundation, whose mission is investment in 501(c)(3) organizations dedicated to enhancing the quality of life for Alaskans.

Ms. Hughes served as the Municipal Attorney for the Municipality of Anchorage from January 3, 1995 to June 30, 2000 and Alaska State Director for the Office of U. S. Senator Lisa Murkowski from May 18, 2005 to January 23, 2008. For nine years, culminating in April of 2012, she also served Senator Murkowski as Chief Administrative Officer of Lisa Murkowski for U. S. Senate. She was Alaska State Co-Chair of the Senator's 2010 write-in campaign. Prior to her appointments, Ms. Hughes was a partner in the Alaskan firm of Hughes, Thorsness, Gantz, Powell & Brundin. She joined the firm in 1974 and served on the firm's Management Committee (and Hiring Partner for ten years). Her practice included a wide variety of commercial transactional and litigation matters. She had particular strengths in administrative law, public utility law (telecommunications), eminent domain and employment law. Additionally, she hosted a weekly radio show, PROFILE ALASKA on AM 700 KBYR, for seven years.

Ms. Hughes was born on Kodiak Island and grew up in Anchorage.

Re: Re-Appointment to University of Alaska Board of Regents

Dear Governor Walker:

In February 2017, my present term on the University of Alaska Board of Regents expires. As you may know, Governor Tony Knowles initially appointed me in 2002 and Governor Sarah Palin reappointed me in 2009. Thus, I will have served a bit over fourteen years on the Board of Regents. I am very interested in re-appointment.

My decision to seek re-appointment is two-fold. Your leadership of the State of Alaska during these challenging times is exemplary; your passion, determination and action inspires many Alaskans, including me. For my entire Regent's tenure, I've relentlessly sought a University of Alaska premised upon welcoming, advising and educating all Alaskans. This simple concept was thwarted by an abundance of dollars and competition among our three universities. The University of Alaska now has a President who is leading with vigilance, thoughtful strategy and boldness. He is thus providing appropriate and well-crafted guidance to the Chancellors (and, of course, the lack of dollars has created at least a temporary atmosphere of collaboration between the three universities). I truly believe that my knowledge, experience, perspective and commitment will assist the University of Alaska in becoming an educational institution of even more incredible value to the State of Alaska and one that welcomes, advises and educates all Alaskans.

Secondly, as you know, the University has been integral to my life. My sister Patti and I were encouraged to attend the University of Alaska by our father. He wanted us to complete our undergraduate studies in Alaska. (He served on both the Kodiak and Anchorage School Boards and has an inspiring passion for education. He and two other Alaskans founded the University of Alaska Foundation and served as its first Trustees.) We both received our undergraduate degrees from the University of Alaska.

As my resume indicates, I have served on the Board of Trustees of the University of Alaska Foundation for many years. Our family, very generous in support of the University, believes, as you do, that education is vital to enhancing the lives of Alaskans. Our emphasis on education, particularly of rural Alaskan children, is demonstrated by our family-endowed scholarship for education of Alaskan teachers which provides a full-ride scholarship for three to five Alaskan students each year. Since 1998, scholars from Ekwok, New Stuyahok, Wrangell, Kake, Palmer, Chugiak, Unalaska, Kodiak, Soldotna, Anchorage and Fairbanks have benefitted from the Patricia Ann Hughes Eastaugh Memorial Teaching Scholarship.

Additionally, I am beginning my second three-year term on the Association of Governing Boards of Universities & Colleges Board of Directors (I will sit on the Board until at least 2022). I am the first Alaskan to serve on the national board, founded in 1921, and one of few board members who lives west of the Mississippi River. The experience not only enriches my personal view of the power of a respected board responding to national educational concerns but provides the University of Alaska Board of Regents with instant guidance when struggling with all of the many issues which occupy the time of the Board.

Thank you for your remarks during our recent meeting in Juneau. My resume is attached. My best personal regards.

Very truly yours,

Mary K. Hughes
