HB 181 Sectional Analysis

Section 1.

Clarifies that legislators are entitled to per diem during legislative session, as appropriated by the Legislature.

Section 2.

Clarifies that legislators are entitled to a travel allowance.

Section 3.

Clarifies that Legislative Council is responsible for setting legislative travel policies.

Section 4.

Legislators may receive a per diem as recommended by the State Officers Compensation Commission.

Section 5.

Clarifies that travel policies for the Joint Armed Services Committee, which are currently linked to those set by Leg Council, are still linked to travel policies set by Leg Council.

Section 6.

Requires that the State Officers Compensation Commission adds per diem to the list of equitable funding it must recommend, along with compensation, benefits, and other allowances.
