Summary of Changes ver D – ver J

HB 102 — Limited Teacher Certificates

Subsections (c) and (e) were amended in the House Education Committee to remove references to charter schools and academic policy committees. Prior to the change, academic policy committees of charter schools could request limited teacher certificates directly from the Department of Education and Early Development. Following the change, limited teacher certificates may only be requested by the school board of a district or regional educational attendance area (REAA).
