8 * Sec. 2. AS 44.77.010(a) is amended to read:

9 (a) Except as provided in (d) of this section, every claim for reimbursement 10 for wrongful conviction and imprisonment, for money expended, or for 11 compensation for labor, materials, or supplies furnished, or services given to or for the 12 state, whether based on a contract or on a ratification, shall be promptly presented to

2 claim with the attorney general as provided in this section. The person filing a claim 3 must show by a preponderance of the evidence that the person was convicted of one or 4 more offenses, was sentenced to a term of imprisonment, served all or any part of the 5 sentence, and

6 (1) either

7 (A) the conviction on which the sentence was imposed was 8 vacated or reversed because the person was not guilty and

9 (i) the charges on which the conviction was based were

22 imprisonment for which the person was serving a concurrent sentence for another 23 crime to which this section does not apply.

24 (c) A person who meets the requirements of this section is entitled to 25 compensation in the amount of $50,000 multiplied by the number of years served in

31 (e) A claim under this section must be filed within two years after the

1 subsequent dismissal, not guilty verdict, or pardon under (a) of this section, except that 2 the attorney general may authorize payment for a claim for wrongful imprisonment 3 not filed within two years if the person filing the claim shows good cause for the 4 delay.

5 (f) A person who meets the requirements of this section, in addition to the 6 compensation under (c) of this section, is entitled to the following programs and 7 services at no cost to the person:

 13 26 years of age;

14 (3) job training skills for at least three years through an appropriate 15 state program;

 19 costs incurred by the person to prove the person's innocence.

20 (g) Compensation awarded under this section is not subject to 21 (1) taxation by the state, except for any attorney fees awarded;

22 (2) offset by the state for expenses incurred by the state or a 23 municipality to provide services to the person, including costs of the person's 24 imprisonment and any medical services provided.
