FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2017 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

Analysis

The Senate Judiciary Committee Substitute for Senate Bill 55 (version N) makes a number of technical changes to criminal laws; none of the changes in the bill would result in a fiscal impact to the court system. In general, the bill makes technical adjustments to, and corrects minor drafting errors in, Senate Bill 91, passed in 2016.

SB 55 removes the inflation adjustment for Class B felony theft offenses (sec. 1-3), clarifies the drug possession classifications (sec. 4), clarifies that the court must provide certain information if practicable (sec. 5), makes minor wording changes to the suspended entry of judgment law (sec. 8-10), and adds wording to other provisions to reference that new SEJ procedure (sec. 6-7). It clarifies maximum probation periods (sec. 11), aligns wording to address the new maximum penalty for Class A misdemeanors (sec. 12-13), removes a reference to how certain cases may be dismissed (sec. 14), adjusts the data reporting requirement for the Department of Corrections (sec. 15), and clarifies that the Alcohol Safety Action Program has authority to provide services to persons under 21 who are convicted of certain alcohol offenses (sec. 16).

All of these changes are aimed at improving consistency with other statutes or clarifying a minor drafting error in the prior law. The court system does not anticipate that any of the changes will have a fiscal impact on it, and therefore submits this zero fiscal note.
