Representative

New York:

Sufficient proof of authority:
(i) A court order that identifies or describes the relationship between the representative and the protected consumer;
(ii) A valid and lawfully executed power of attorney that permits the representative to act on the protected consumer's behalf; or
(iii) A written affidavit that the representative signs and has notarized in which the representative expressly describes the relationship between the representative and the protected consumer and the representative's authority to act on the protected consumer's behalf.

The term "protected consumer" means an individual who is under the age of sixteen years at the time a request for the placement of a security freeze is made.

If a consumer credit reporting agency does not have a file pertaining to a protected consumer when the consumer credit reporting agency receives a request under subdivision (a) of this section, the consumer credit reporting agency shall create a record for the protected consumer.

Representative" means a person who provides to a consumer reporting agency sufficient proof of authority to act on behalf of a protected person.

Remove Freeze Due to Fraud

A consumer credit reporting agency shall remove a security freeze for a protected consumer, or delete a record of a protected consumer, if the security freeze was placed or the record was created based on a material misrepresentation of fact by the protected consumer or the protected consumer's representative.

Service Charge

A consumer credit reporting agency may charge a reasonable fee, not exceeding fifteen dollars, for each placement or removal of a security freeze for a protected consumer as provided for in subparagraph (iv) of paragraph two of subdivision (a) or clause (C) of subparagraph (ii) of paragraph two of subdivision (f) of this section. A consumer credit reporting agency shall not charge a fee for any other service performed under this section.

Exemptions

This section does not apply to: (1) A person administering a credit file monitoring subscription service to which: (i) the protected consumer has subscribed; or (ii) the representative of the protected consumer has subscribed on behalf of the protected consumer; (2) A person providing the protected consumer or the protected consumer's representative with a copy of the protected consumer's consumer credit report upon the request of the protected consumer or the protected consumer's representative; (3)(i) An entity listed in paragraphs three through eight of subdivision (m) of

- (iii) A written affidavit that the representative signs and has notarized in which the representative expressly describes the relationship between the representative and the protected consumer and the representative's authority to act on the protected consumer's behalf.

Protected Consumer Defined Age

Protected consumer" means an individual who is:

- (a) Under the age of sixteen years old at the time a request for the placement of a security freeze is made pursuant to RCW 19.182.230; or
- (b) Incapacitated and for whom a guardian or limited guardian has been

Record

The protective record that the consumer reporting agency creates under paragraph (b) of this subsection does not need to contain any information other than the protected consumer's personal information, if other information for the protected consumer is not available.

Ways to remove Credit Freeze

A security freeze for a protective record must remain in place until the protected consumer or a representative requests, using a point of contact the consumer reporting agency designates, that the security freeze be removed or that the protective record be deleted. The consumer reporting agency does not have an affirmative duty to notify the protected consumer or the representative that a security freeze is in place or to remove the security freeze or delete the protective record once the protected consumer is no longer a protected consumer. A protected consumer or a representative has the affirmative duty to request that the consumer reporting agency remove the security freeze or delete the protective record. A consumer reporting agency shall remove a security freeze or delete a protective record within 30 business days after receiving a request for removal or deletion from the protected consumer or a representative, who provides:

- (A) Proper identification;
- (B) Sufficient proof of authority, as described in ORS 646A.606 (Security freeze) (3)(b), if the representative seeks to remove the security freeze or delete the protective record;
- (C) Proof that the representative's authority to act on the protected consumer's behalf is no longer valid or applicable, if the protected consumer seeks to remove the security freeze or delete the protective record; and
- (D) A fee, if applicable. [2007 c.759 §5; 2013 c.415 §3]

Remove Freeze

Due to Fraud

A consumer reporting agency may not charge a fee to a consumer or a protected consumer who is the victim of identity theft or to a consumer who has reported or a protected consumer for whom a representative has reported to a law enforcement agency the theft of personal information, provided the consumer or the representative has submitted to the consumer reporting agency a copy of a valid police report, incident report or identity theft declaration.

(2)(a) A consumer reporting agency may charge a reasonable fee of not more than $10 to a consumer, other than a consumer described in subsection (1) of this section, for each placement of a security freeze, temporary lift of the security freeze, removal of the security freeze or replacing a lost personal identification number or password previously provided to the consumer.

(b)(A) Except as provided in subsection (1) of this section and in subparagraph (B) of this paragraph, a consumer reporting agency may charge a reasonable fee of not more than $10 to place or remove a security freeze for a protected consumer's consumer report or protective record or to create or delete a protective record for a protected consumer.

(B) A consumer reporting agency may not charge a fee to place or remove a security freeze on an existing consumer report or protective record for a protected consumer who is under 16 years of age at the time a representative requests the consumer reporting agency to place or remove the security freeze.
