FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2017 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. HB 156

Analysis

AS 29.45.050(m) provides local communities the ability to offer a full or partial optional property tax exemption or tax deferral to economic development property for up to five (5) years. HB 156 removes the 5-year limitation and allows local communities to specify their own "designated period" which could exceed five years.

Current law also allows local communities to renew a property tax exemption/deferral beyond five years with the exception that taxes for education cannot be a part of such a renewal. HB 156 would remove this requirement.

Current law specifies that an economic development property must meet the requirements of AS 29.45.050(m)(1), (2) & (3) to qualify for the exemption/deferral. HB 156 would require that an applicant qualify for only one of the criteria that are provided in the bill.

As this is an optional exemption, the local government would be required to maintain current valuations of the property and report them to the State Assessor for inclusion in the Full Value Determination for the community. The Division of Community and Regional Affairs does not anticipate a fiscal impact from this legislation.
