

STATE	STATUS	Allows for Digital Licenses	Allows for Online Purchase of Licenses
Alabama	Alabama has a mobile app which includes harvest reporting and is accepted in lieu of a paper harvest. Hunters are still required to possess a harvest record and hunting license during hunt. http://www.outdooralabama.com/outdoor-alabama-mobile-app-updated-game-check-conservation-id-simplifies-process		Yes
Alaska	Alaska has myADF&G which provides access to current, personal AK Dept of Fish & Game hunting, fishing and trapping licenses or permit information. Also allows a person to track licensing endorsements, receive notifications of required courses and more.		Yes
Arizona			Yes
Arkansas	In 2017, the Arkansas Game and Fish Commission approved changes to their code of regulations allowing hunting and fishing license holders to carry a digital copy of their license on their phones. Also have waterproof courtesy tags. https://www.agfc.com/en/news/2017/08/25/new-hunting-and-fishing-license-options-being-developed/	Yes	Yes
California	California allows harvest reporting online only		Yes
Colorado	March 2018 launching a new integrated online system for hunting and fishing licenses, stamps etc		Yes
Connecticut			Yes
Delaware			Yes
Florida	The Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission has a mobile app that can be downloaded that allows the possessor to carry and display their hunting and/or fishing license digitally. https://gooutdoorsflorida.com/faq	Yes	Yes
Georgia	Georgia has a mobile app - access copies of current license, store multiple licenses, purchase fishing and hunting licenses, check deer and turkey with or without cell phone service, game check data etc; however a paper copy of license is still required		Yes
Hawaii			Yes
Idaho	Idaho allows photos of fishing and hunting licenses stored on digital device. In addition mobile website allows for downloading and storing license on digital device. https://idfg.idaho.gov/questions?search=license	Yes	Yes

STATE	STATUS	Allows for Digital Licenses	Allows for Online Purchase of Licenses
Illinois	Digital hunting licenses were legalized last year, and legislators in the Illinois Legislative Sportsmen's caucus are currently working on allowing electronic fishing and combo licenses this session	Yes	Yes
Indiana	Digital licenses are allowed. A digital (.pdf) copy of the license is provided when licenses are purchased, and that .pdf is valid in the field.	Yes	Yes
Iowa			Yes
Kansas	No digital licenses are allowed, though some public hunting areas in the state require hunters to check in, check out, and report harvest data via a daily electronic website. https://programs.ksoutdoors.com/Programs/Electronic-Deer-Check-in https://kdwpt.isportsman.net/		Yes
Kentucky	Kentucky requires hunters to complete harvest logs at the time of hunt - followed by calling or logging into a Telecheck system by hunter ID. https://fw.ky.gov/Hunt/Pages/Recording,-Checking,-Tagging-and-Transporting.aspx		Yes
Louisiana	The Louisiana Dept. of Wildlife and Fisheries allows those purchasing fishing licenses online to carry a PDF copy of the license on their mobile device to use while fishing. http://www.wlf.louisiana.gov/recreational-fishing-licenses	Yes	Yes
Maine	You are required to keep an electronic and/or paper copy of your hunting license and any necessary permits with you while hunting or transporting wild birds and wild animals and, if requested to do so, must present it for inspection to any warden, law enforcement officer, MDIFW employee, guide or landowner upon whose land you are hunting.	Yes	Yes
Maryland	Maryland has a mobile app that allows hunters to report harvest to DNR and upload trophy photos only		Yes
Massachusetts	You can either show a paper copy or display a true, complete, and legible image of your license on your smartphone. You must still comply with all tagging requirements. If a tag is required, as it is for hunting deer, bear, and turkey, hunters must carry a paper copy of the tag attached to the appropriate documentation (i.e. license or permit). https://www.mass.gov/how-to/print-or-re-print-fishing-or-hunting-licenses-and-permits	Yes	Yes

STATE	STATUS	Allows for Digital Licenses	Allows for Online Purchase of Licenses
Michigan	As of March 1, 2018 Michigan has developed an electronic license that allows an individual to display an electronic copy of fishing license on electronic device. http://www.michigan.gov/documents/dnr/2018-MI-Fishing-Guide-WEB_615716_7.pdf	Yes	Yes
Minnesota	Minnesota has an Electronic Licensing System and allows fishing/hunting licenses to be purchased on mobile devices and are issued in an electronic format. The email and/or text message stored electronically on your mobile device serves as the license and must be carried on mobile or printed when fishing. http://www.dnr.state.mn.us/licenses/els_agentmgmt.html	Yes	Yes
Mississippi	Mississippi allows for electronic waterfowl stamps only		Yes
Missouri	The Missouri Department of Conservation has an app that hunters and anglers can download, allowing those with the app to carry and display digital copies of their hunting and fishing licenses. It also allows hunters to notch hunting tags digitally. https://mdc.mo.gov/contact-engage/mobile-apps/mo-hunting	Yes	Yes
Montana	Montana allows fishing licenses to be displayed on smart phones. http://fwp.mt.gov/fish/regulations/default.html?id=fishing#fishing	Yes	Yes
Nebraska	Digital licenses are allowed for fishing. Digital hunting licenses are allowed for small game, upland birds, and turkey. All other licenses/permits are not yet available digitally. http://outdoornebraska.gov/wp-content/uploads/2015/12/MobilePermitsGuide_FAQ_12302015.pdf	Yes	Yes
Nevada	Nevada implemented a new hunting, fishing and boat License Simplification program January 2018		Yes
New Hampshire			Yes
New Jersey			Yes
New Mexico	New Mexico has a mobile app which includes license and permit purchasing and look ups. Online licensing system allows for reporting of harvests.		Yes
New York			Yes
North Carolina			Yes

STATE	STATUS	Allows for Digital Licenses	Allows for Online Purchase of Licenses
North Dakota	North Dakota allows a digital image of a fishing license stored on a mobile device. https://gf.nd.gov/fishing/license-general-info	Yes	Yes
Ohio	The Ohio Department of Natural Resources allows fishing licenses purchased online to be displayed digitally via phone in place of an actual hard copy license; this does not apply to 1-day fishing licenses. http://wildlife.ohiodnr.gov/stay-informed/online-articles-amp-features/your-wild-ohio-angler/post/did-you-know-buy-your-fishing-license-from-your-phone	Yes	Yes
Oklahoma	Oklahoma has a mobile app with regulations and update on closures. Also offers a mobile or web based E-Check system to buy licenses, guides, field tagging, harvest reporting and other info. https://www.wildlifedepartment.com/echeck/#		Yes
Oregon			Yes
Pennsylvania	Pennsylvania allows for online harvest reporting. http://www.pgc.pa.gov/HuntTrap/Pages/Report-a-Harvest.aspx		Yes
Rhode Island	Rhode Island in March 2018 launched a new on line licensing system that replaces paper based license issuances offering online fishing and hunting licenses, permits, tags and stamps. However printed licenses are still required. http://www.ri.gov/press/view/32657		Yes
South Carolina			Yes
South Dakota	South Dakota allow a photo of the paper copy and save it, or show license via the GFP mobile app. The bar code seen on your license allows South Dakota Game, Fish and Parks (GFP) conservation officers to electronically scan the license on smartphone devices while in the field in lieu of a paper copy. If you choose to print and carry a paper copy of your small game, fishing or trapping license, that is still fine. This does not apply to federal waterfowl stamps, tags and licenses mailed to you from the department's licensing office. Stamps, tags and licenses must be carried with you while you are hunting and all tagging requirements apply. https://gfp.sd.gov/hunt-fish-license/	Yes	Yes

STATE	STATUS	Allows for Digital Licenses	Allows for Online Purchase of Licenses
Tennessee	Tennessee has a mobile app for buying fishing and hunting licenses, review regulations/guides, online harvest reports. https://www.tn.gov/content/tn/twra/stay-connected/mobile-web-information.html		Yes
Texas	Texas provides multiple apps including a hunt harvest app where residents can log harvest and helps biologist manage game population. Paper licenses are required. https://tpwd.texas.gov/regulations/outdoor-annual/app/ https://tpwd.texas.gov/huntwild/hunt/hunt-harvest-app/ https://tpwd.texas.gov/huntwild/apps/#hunting-apps		Yes
Utah	Allows digital copy of hunting/fishing/combination license to be downloaded onto an app from the UT Division of Wildlife Resources. Utah has a mobile app https://wildlife.utah.gov/dwr-multimedia/1531-utah-hunting-and-fishing-mobile-app.html	Yes	Yes
Vermont	Vermont allows for residents to carry digital or electronic copy of fishing, hunting, trapping or transporting fish, game or furbearers. http://www.eregulations.com/vermont/hunting/license-information/	Yes	Yes
Virginia	Virginia allows a person who is required to carry certain hunting, trapping, or fishing licenses or a hunter education certificate on their person can meet the requirement by carrying an electronic copy of the relevant license or certificate. We recommend the electronic carrying of licenses through the use of our app. Electronic carry does not require a signature. https://www.dgif.virginia.gov/licenses/go-outdoors-virginia-help/	Yes	Yes
Washington	Washington provides an interactive licensing database. Paper licenses are required.		Yes
West Virginia	West Virginia has an electronic licensing and game check system. Papre licenses are required. https://www.wvhunt.com/ https://www.wvdnr.gov/Hunting/Game_Check_FAQ.shtm		Yes
Wisconsin	Wisconsin allows a person to display a fishing and hunting licenses, and certain stamps either in paper format and/or electronic display from a mobile device. http://dnr.wi.gov/GoWild/ConservationCard.html	Yes	Yes
Wyoming			Yes