FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2018 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. CSHB 170(JUD)

Analysis

This bill modifies the Alaska Statutes to create a new chapter, AS 45.56, as the new Alaska Securities Act. Proposed updates modernize and streamline outdated securities laws to reflect industry changes while enhancing investor protections and remedies. The Division anticipates filing new regulations as soon as practical in order to implement this legislation by the effective date.

While some of the securities or licensing filing types eliminated in this legislation required fees, there have been few such filings in the last number of years so the changes will result in little or no revenue decrease. Several new filing types give the Division the authority to assess fees by regulation and may result in a negligible future revenue increase.

The bill increases the monetary limit for civil penalties. Since civil penalties are not predictable and are deposited into the general fund, there is no fiscal impact to the Division.

The Division of Banking and Securities does not anticipate fiscal impact from this legislation.
