What does the Alaska Securities Act include now?

- Securities broker-dealers, investment advisers, sales agents
- Securities issuers and agents
- Mutual funds, federal covered securities
- Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act (ANCSA) Corporation and shareholder proxy filings

Securities Registrations, Filings and Licenses

Registrations, Filings, Licenses, and Positions
(Securities)

What would the proposed legislation do?

- Simplify and bring Alaska's securities laws current with similar provisions as other states' laws to encourage companies, entrepreneurs and investors to do business in Alaska.
- Separate the Securities Act from the Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act.
- Enhance enforcement provisions, allowing for restitution and increased civil penalties to protect Alaskans, including additional penalties for victimizing vulnerable and older Alaskans.
- Create an Investor Education Fund that allows the Legislature to direct a portion of the civil penalties collected for consumer, investor and marketplace education.
- Allow the Division to require continuing education for investment professionals.

What if the Securities Law is not updated?

- Legitimate businesses face more hurdles in raising funds and operating in Alaska than in some other states.
- ANCSA corporations/shareholders and the securities industries are constrained by provisions designed for only one of the business types.
- Fewer opportunities for consumer, investor and marketplace education
- No restitution for victimized Alaskans and a $25,000 maximum civil penalty for scammers.
