To Whom it May Concern,

I am writing in regard to SB 127, which I understand is meant to repeal SB 91. Please consider moving this bill forward. I've been an Alaska resident all my life, short of a couple of years. Just since February, I've known personally four people who've had their cars stolen, including my nephew who was carjacked by four men at gunpoint. A couple of weeks ago, my cousin's new home was broken into, in broad daylight in Anchorage, and all his work tools and a five hundred pound gun safe were taken. Crime is out of control here, and good people are leaving our state because there is little or no recourse. I miss the state I grew up in. It's time to reclaim it from these crooks.

Thank you,
Tabitha Knell
