

Charles Cross

Summary

I was born and raised in Western Alaska and graduated high school in Anchorage. After high school I attended UAF and UAA pursuing a degree in Justice. While going to school, I worked in Prudhoe Bay for three summers and then as a security guard in Anchorage.

I worked for the Alaska State Troopers for 20 years and retired as a Post Commander in Nome. I completed hundreds of hours of training in the area of criminal law enforcement, leadership and being an instructor for new and existing troopers, police and VPSOs.

I have a passion for training and further developing individual advancement.

Employment History

Alaska State Troopers

Sergeant
September 1998 – October 2018

I was the supervisor for the Nome and Unalakleet Posts of the Alaska State Troopers. Prior to this, I was the supervisor for the Western Alaska Alcohol & Narcotics Team and the Major Offenders Unit in Anchorage. I was an investigator in the Alaska Bureau of Alcohol and Drug Enforcement and a patrol trooper in Kodiak and Fairbanks.

Hobbies & Interests

I am the head coach for the Nome-Beltz high school wrestling team. I built my own cabin near Nome. I love to spend my free time with my family and friends hunting and fishing. I have a strong interest in helping people with their personal finances. I am a Financial Coach Master Trainer from the Ramsey Group and I'm a coordinator for Financial Peace University. I own Cross Financial Solutions, a platform in which I also volunteer my time at the jail and school teaching inmates and students about smart ways to manage their financial lives.
