Explanation of Changes (Ver. A to U)

- Clarifies that a performing arts theater license can only be transferred to another person.
- Places additional parameters on beer and wine service in a performing arts theater as follows:
 - The service must be restricted to specified areas, which can include portions of the audience viewing area.
 - It can only be served if the event is expected to have a crowd that is predominantly comprised of those that are over 21 years of age.
- Clarifies that 'skiing and snowboarding' are included in the definition of recreational site.
- Provides for an immediate effective date.
- Other technical and conforming changes.
