

JASON W. BRUNE

PRIVACY

PRIVACY

Education:	Alaska Pacific University , Anchorage, AK, Environmental Science (MS Program) Carleton College , Northfield, MN, Bachelor of Arts, Biology Westside High School , Omaha, NE	ABT June, 1995 May, 1991
Work Experience:
December 2014-present	Cook Inlet Region Inc. (CIRI), Anchorage, AK Senior Director, Lands and Resources <ul style="list-style-type: none">•Oversee and participate in the development/administration of CIRI's 1.6 million acres of subsurface resources including oil, gas, minerals, sand and gravel, and coal as well as surface timber/carbon resources, land access agreements, and oversight of the surface estate•Negotiate land use/royalty/stewardship lease agreements with major oil & gas, mining, and other resource development companies•Coordinate with other Alaska Native Corporations as well as CIRI's seven village corporations•ANCSA Resource Managers Co-Chair•Budget preparation and oversight•Supervise staff of six, environmental contractors, stakeholder management, and legal review
April 2014-December, 2014	Think Globally, Develop Locally LLC, Anchorage, AK President <ul style="list-style-type: none">•Public/government affairs, mining, and environmental consulting for complex resource development projects including: Pebble (PLP/Northern Dynasty Minerals), Chuitna (PacRim Coal), Pogo (Sumitomo), and Anglo American
June 2011-March, 2014	Anglo American, Anchorage, AK Public Affairs and Government Relations Manager <ul style="list-style-type: none">•Managed Anglo American's public affairs and government relations functions relating to the Pebble Project and other US interests in Alaska, Washington DC, and Lower 48•Represented Anglo American on various Pebble Partnership committees and industry associations•Negotiated/supervised public affairs, government relations, and other contracts•Oversaw/coordinated components of NEPA/permitting review on behalf of Anglo American•Developed stakeholder management programs•Interfaced regularly with local, state, national, and international media•Presented to/prepared regular briefings for Boards of Anglo American, Anglo Pebble, and Pebble•Reported to/interfaced directly with London, Santiago, and Johannesburg offices•Advanced Social Management Program Training (University of Cambridge/Queensland)
August 2000-June, 2011	Resource Development Council, Anchorage, AK Executive Director (2006-2011) Projects Coordinator/AMEREF Executive Director (2000-2006) <ul style="list-style-type: none">•Researched and advocated for the responsible development of Alaska's natural resources•Coordinated meetings with, and attempted to achieve consensus from, diverse stakeholders•Developed/delivered written and oral testimony to the legislature, governmental agencies, and public•State of Alaska registered lobbyist; Oversaw ballot measure campaigns•78-member Board management, development, and coordination•Supervised staff and contractors including lobbyists and public affairs agencies•Budget preparation and oversight•Communicated regularly with media outlets
January 2000-January 2002	University of Alaska Anchorage, Anchorage, AK Adjunct Professor-Web Site Development and MS Office
August 1996-August 2000	University of Alaska Anchorage, Anchorage, AK Enrollment Services, CAPP Coordinator/Curriculum and Publication Specialist
January 1996-July 1996	National Biological Service, Anchorage, AK Prince William Sound Primary Journal Research Assistant
October 1995-May 1996	Alaska Pacific University, Anchorage, AK College Algebra Instructor and Graduate/Undergraduate Mathematics and Science Tutor

Board/Community Service:

Alaska Miners Association Board (2011-2017), Board President (2015-2017), Anchorage Branch Chair (2013-2015), and State Oversight Committee Co-Chair (2012-present)
Consumer Energy Alliance Alaska Board (2010-present), Board Chair (2012-present)
Resource Development Council for Alaska Board (2013-present)
Tyonek Tribal Conservation District Board (2016-present), Vice Chair (2018-present)
Alaska Sealife Center Board (2010-present)
AMAPAC (Mining Industry Political Action Committee) Treasurer (2012-present)
Anchorage Youth Soccer Club Board (2017-present), Team Manager (2015-present)
State Chamber of Commerce Board (2011-2015)
Mayor's Energy Task Force (2012-2015)
Alaska Performance Excellence (Baldrige Quality) Board (2008-2016)
Governor Sean Parnell's Resources, Energy, and Environment Transition Team Co-Chair
Cook Inlet Beluga Whale ESA Stakeholder Recovery Team (2010-2013)
Exxon Valdez Oil Spill Public Advisory Committee (2004-2012)
Elmendorf Air Force Base Honorary Commander, 3rd Civil Engineering Squadron
Alaska Resource Education (formerly AMEREF) Executive Director Emeritus

PRIVACY

