JASON W. BRUNE

Education:	Alaska Pacific University, Anchorage, AK, Environmental Science (MS Program) Carleton College, Northfield, MN, Bachelor of Arts, Biology Westside High School, Omaha, NE	ABT June, 1995 May, 1991
Work Experience:
December 2014-present	<ul> <li>Cook Inlet Region Inc. (CIRI), Anchorage, AK Senior Director, Lands and Resources</li> <li>Oversee and participate in the development/administration of CIRI's 1.6 million acres of subsurface resources including oil, gas, minerals, sand and gravel, and coal as well as surface timber/carbon resources, land access agreements, and oversight of the surface estate</li> <li>Negotiate land use/royalty/stewardship lease agreements with major oil &amp; gas, mining, and other resource development companies</li> <li>Coordinate with other Alaska Native Corporations as well as CIRI's seven village corporations</li> <li>ANCSA Resource Managers Co-Chair</li> <li>Budget preparation and oversight</li> <li>Supervise staff of six, environmental contractors, stakeholder management, and legal review</li> </ul>
April 2014-December, 2014	<ul> <li>Think Globally, Develop Locally LLC, Anchorage, AK</li> <li>President</li> <li>Public/government affairs, mining, and environmental consulting for complex resource development projects including: Pebble (PLP/Northern Dynasty Minerals), Chuitna (PacRim Coal), Pogo (Sumitomo), and Anglo American</li> </ul>
June 2011-March, 2014	<ul> <li>Anglo American, Anchorage, AK</li> <li>Public Affairs and Government Relations Manager</li> <li>Managed Anglo American's public affairs and government relations functions relating to the Pebble Project and other US interests in Alaska, Washington DC, and Lower 48</li> <li>Represented Anglo American on various Pebble Partnership committees and industry associations</li> <li>Negotiated/supervised public affairs, government relations, and other contracts</li> <li>Oversaw/coordinated components of NEPA/permitting review on behalf of Anglo American</li> <li>Developed stakeholder management programs</li> <li>Interfaced regularly with local, state, national, and international media</li> <li>Presented to/prepared regular briefings for Boards of Anglo American, Anglo Pebble, and Pebble</li> <li>Reported to/interfaced directly with London, Santiago, and Johannesburg offices</li> <li>Advanced Social Management Program Training (University of Cambridge/Queensland)</li> </ul>
August 2000-June, 2011	Resource Development Council, Anchorage, AK Executive Director (2006-2011) Projects Coordinator/AMEREF Executive Director (2000-2 •Researched and advocated for the responsible development of Alaska's natural res •Coordinated meetings with, and attempted to achieve consensus from, diverse stak •Developed/delivered written and oral testimony to the legislature, government and public •State of Alaska registered lobbyist; Oversaw ballot measure campaigns •78-member Board management, development, and coordination •Supervised staff and contractors including lobbyists and public affairs agencies •Budget preparation and oversight •Communicated regularly with media outlets	ources keholders
January 2000-January 2002	University of Alaska Anchorage, Anchorage, AK Adjunct Professor-Web Site Development and MS Office
August 1996-August 2000	University of Alaska Anchorage, Anchorage, AK Enrollment Services, CAPP Coordinator/Curriculum and Publication Specialist
January 1996-July 1996	National Biological Service, Anchorage, AK Prince William Sound Primary Journal Research Assistant
October 1995-May 1996	Alaska Pacific University, Anchorage, AK College Algebra Instructor and Graduate/Undergraduate Mathematics and Science Tutor

Board/Community Service:	<ul> <li>Alaska Miners Association Board (2011-2017), Board President (2015-2017), Anchorage Branch Chair (2013-2015), and State Oversight Committee Co-Chair (2012-present)</li> <li>Consumer Energy Alliance Alaska Board (2010-present), Board Chair (2012-present)</li> <li>Resource Development Council for Alaska Board (2013-present)</li> <li>Tyonek Tribal Conservation District Board (2016-present), Vice Chair (2018-present)</li> <li>Alaska Sealife Center Board (2010-present)</li> <li>AMAPAC (Mining Industry Political Action Committee) Treasurer (2012-present)</li> <li>Anchorage Youth Soccer Club Board (2017-present), Team Manager (2015-present)</li> <li>State Chamber of Commerce Board (2011-2015)</li> <li>Mayor's Energy Task Force (2012-2015)</li> <li>Alaska Performance Excellence (Baldrige Quality) Board (2008-2016)</li> <li>Governor Sean Parnell's Resources, Energy, and Environment Transition Team Co-Chair</li> <li>Cook Inlet Beluga Whale ESA Stakeholder Recovery Team (2010-2013)</li> <li>Exxon Valdez Oil Spill Public Advisory Committee (2004-2012)</li> <li>Elmendorf Air Force Base Honorary Commander, 3rd Civil Engineering Squadron</li> <li>Alaska Resource Education (formerly AMEREE) Executive Director Emeritus</li> </ul>
	Alaska Resource Education (formerly AMEREF) Executive Director Emeritus

PRIVACY