3 * Section 1. AS 18.65.850(e) is amended to read:

4 (e) A court may not deny a petition for a protective order solely because

5 (1) there is [OF] a lapse of time between an act of sexual assault and 6 the filing of the petition;

7 (2) the stalking or act of sexual assault was the basis for a previous 8 protective order; or

9 (3) a court previously found that the petitioner was a victim of 10 stalking or sexual assault but declined to order relief under this section, if the

12 * Sec. 2. AS 18.65.850 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

13 (f) Within 30 days before, or within 60 days after, the expiration of a

15 court for an extension of the protective order. The court shall schedule a hearing and

1 provide at least 10 days' notice to the respondent of the hearing and of the respondent's
 2 right to appear and be heard, either in person or through an attorney. If the court finds 3 that an extension of the provisions of the order is necessary to protect the petitioner 4 from stalking or sexual assault, regardless of whether the respondent appears at the 5 hearing, the court may extend the provisions of the order. An extension granted under 6 this subsection is effective for six months unless earlier dissolved by court order.

7 * Sec. 3. AS 18.66.100(e) is amended to read:

8 (e) A court may not deny a petition for a protective order under this section

 11 and the filing of the petition;

12 (2) the act of domestic violence was the basis for a previous 13 protective order; or

14 (3) a court previously found that the incident was a crime of 15 domestic violence committed against the petitioner but declined to order relief 16 under this section, if the petition alleges a change in circumstances since the 17 court's previous finding.

18 * Sec. 4. AS 18.66.100 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

19 (f) Within 30 days before, or within 60 days after, the expiration of a 20 protective order issued or extended under (b)(2) of this section, a petitioner may 21 petition the court for an extension of the protective order. The court shall schedule a 22 hearing and provide at least 10 days' notice to the respondent of the hearing and of the 23 respondent's right to appear and be heard, either in person or through an attorney. If 24 the court finds that an extension of the provisions of the order is necessary to protect
