* Section 1. AS 26.23.020(c) is amended to read:

(c) If the governor finds that a disaster has occurred or that a disaster is imminent or threatened, the governor shall, by proclamation, declare a condition of disaster emergency. The disaster emergency remains in effect until the governor finds that the danger has passed or the disaster has been dealt with so that the emergency no longer exists. The governor may terminate the disaster emergency by proclamation. A proclamation of disaster emergency may not remain in effect longer than 30 days unless extended by a majority of the members of the legislature in joint session [BY A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION]. The proclamation must indicate the nature of the disaster, the area threatened or affected, and the conditions that have brought it about or that make possible the termination of the disaster emergency. A proclamation to declare a condition of disaster emergency must also state whether the governor proposes to expend state funds to respond to the disaster under (i) or (j) of this section.

Unless authorized by a majority of the members of the legislature in joint session,

(1) the governor may not declare a condition of disaster emergency while a declared condition of disaster emergency remains in effect; and

(2) the governor may not declare a condition of disaster emergency related to a condition of disaster emergency previously declared by that

1 governor.

2 * Sec. 2. AS 26.23.210(a) is amended to read:

3 (a) In the event of a conflict between this chapter and AS 26.20, including in 4 the event the governor declares a disaster under this chapter due to an attack or 5 credible threat of imminent enemy or terrorist attack [AS DESCRIBED IN 6 AS 26.23.900(2)], the provisions of this chapter shall govern."

7 * Section 1. AS 26.05.090 is amended to read:

8 Sec. 26.05.090. Proclamations of martial law. The governor may proclaim 9 martial law when the public safety requires it in case of rebellion or actual or 10 imminent invasion, and may order all or any part of the organized militia into active
11 state service to enforce the proclamation. The militia shall assume only those functions 12 of civil government specified by the governor, or those that, in the discretion of the 13 militia commander, must be assumed in order to accomplish a specific mission
14 assigned by the governor. [MARTIAL LAW MAY NOT CONTINUE FOR LONGER
15 THAN 20 DAYS WITHOUT THE APPROVAL OF A MAJORITY OF THE
16 MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATURE IN JOINT SESSION.]

17  Sec. 2. AS 26.05.090 is amended by adding new subsections to read:

18 (b) Unless approved by a majority of the members of the legislature in joint 19 session,

20 (1) martial law may not continue for longer than 20 days; and

21 (2) the governor may not proclaim martial law while a proclamation of 22 martial law remains in effect.

23 (c) If the governor issues a proclamation of martial law for less than 20 days

1 that is not approved by the legislature, the same governor may issue a successive
2 proclamation of martial law for a period of less than 20 days only if the successive
3 proclamation is approved by a majority of the members of the legislature in joint
4 session. If the legislature approves the successive proclamation, the same governor
5 may issue another successive proclamation for a period of less than 20 days without 6 legislative approval.

7 (d) In this section, "martial law" means the suspension of a civil law or a civil 8 lawmaking process.

9 * Sec. 3. AS 26.23.020(f) is amended to read:

10 (f) If the governor proclaims martial law under AS 26.05.090 during 11 [DURING] the effective period of a disaster emergency, the governor is commander in 12 chief of the organized and unorganized militia and of all other forces available for 13 emergency duty. The governor may delegate or assign command authority by 14 appropriate orders or regulations."
