Employment History

Employment work history including paid, unpaid, or voluntary.

I was born and raised in Anchorage, attended Dimond High School and the University of Alaska Anchorage. Prior to working at the Anchorage Fire Department, I spent several years commercial fishing in the Bering Sea followed by six years on the North Slope as a weld and piping inspector. While working on the slope I was member of several emergency response teams, including Fire, EMS, and Industrial Rescue. In 2011 I was hired with the Anchorage Fire Department. While working with the Fire Department I was elected to position of Executive Board Members for the Anchorage Firefighters. This position has allowed me to learn about several aspects of labor relations, cohesive labor management relations and working to improve safety and working conditions for Anchorage Firefighter and Alaska workers. As a member of the workers compensation board I have had the unique opportunity to work collectively with labor and industry to serve Alaska Workers.

Education, Training, Experience & Qualifications

List both formal and informal education and training experiences:

Over the years I have attended and been a part of several informal and formal trainings related to this position. I have recently completed a certified mediator program which focuses on conflict resolution. I have traveled around the US and attended classes on labor relations, bargaining agreements, improving labor management relationships, health and safety, to name a few. As a representative for the International Association of Fire Fighters I have had the chance assist with negotiating collective bargaining agreements, arbitrations and unfair labor practices around Alaska and the Northwest.

List any professional licenses, certifications, or registrations and dates obtained that may be used as qualifying criteria: I have been a firefighter in Anchorage for eight years and during that time I have also been a representative for the International Association of Fire Fighters, representing members both in Alaska and throughout the Northwest.
List any community service, municipal government, and state positions held, and any awards received. I currently serve on the workers compensation board and would like to transition to the Labor Relations Agency, I enjoy the opportunity to serve Alaskans and this is a position that I feel that I would be an excellent fit for. I have been a part of several community service programs including national and local projects. I coordinated a program called Operation Warm which gave brand new coats to students most in need, within our community. I have helped fundraise for the American Cancer Society and the Red Cross.
