CS for House Bill 142 Sectional Analysis

Section 1

AS 43.23.005 Eligibility

Amends the parent or authorized representative eligibility to claim a dividend on behalf of a minor or disabled individual, by removing the eligibility criteria (a)(4) has been physically present in the state for at least 72 consecutive hours at some time during the prior two years before the current dividend year.

Section 2

AS 43.23.008 Allowable absences.

Adds eligibility criteria to (3)(A) and specifies that the absence is allowable only if the individual is deployed or on a temporary duty assignment while serving on active duty and was physically residing in the state under orders of the armed forces immediately before the absence.

Section 3

This section repeals the following eligibility requirements, criteria, or allowable absences.

AS 43.23.005 (A)(4) Eligibility

Repeals an individual's eligibility to receive a dividend if the individual has been physically present in the state for the at least 72 consecutive hours at some time during the prior two years before the current dividend year.

As 43.23.005(f) Eligibility

Repeals the commissioner's ability to waive the 72 consecutive hour requirement, as that requirement is also repealed.

AS 43.23.008(e) Allowable absence

Repeals the requirement of the department to consider relevant factors to determine if an individual intends to return and remain in the state indefinitely.

Section 4

Provides an effective date of January 1, 2023.
