SB 146
Supporting Document

Existing Statutes Regarding Legislative Directives on the University

Sec. 14.40.090. Correspondence courses for prospectors and miners.

- (a) The University of Alaska shall establish and offer to bona fide Alaska prospectors and miners in the state a correspondence course equal and parallel to the mining extension course being taught at present.
- (b) The University of Alaska may establish the minimum charge necessary to defray costs of material, books, and postage used in the course.

Sec. 14.40.251. Default on tuition, fees, and charges.

- (a) For the purposes of this chapter, tuition, a fee, or another charge to an individual by the University of Alaska is in default after payment has become 180 or more days past due. Upon default, the university may take the individual's permanent fund dividend under AS 43.23.190.
- (b) The University of Alaska shall notify the individual of the default and the consequences of default imposed under (a) of this section by mailing a notice to the individual's most recent address provided to the university by the individual or obtained by the university.
- (c) An individual may appeal a notice of default by filing a statement with the chief finance officer of the University of Alaska within 30 days after the date of the notice, requesting that the default status be reviewed. AS 44.62 (Administrative Procedure Act) does not apply to the review of default under this section. Within 40 days after receiving a written request for review, the chief finance officer shall inform the individual in writing of the decision. The decision of the chief finance officer is a final decision that may be appealed to the superior court under the Alaska Rules of Appellate Procedure.
